67.—(1) Where, on any day, there is—

- (a) a general interruption or subsequent dislocation in the postal services of the United Kingdom, or
- (b) an event or circumstances causing an interruption in the normal operation of the Office, the registrar may certify the day as being one on which there is an “interruption” and, where any period of time specified in the Act or these Rules for the giving, making or filing of any notice, application or other document expires on a day so certified the period shall be extended to the first day next following (not being an excluded day) which is not so certified.

(2) Any certificate of the registrar given pursuant to this rule shall be posted in the Office.

(3) If in any particular case the registrar is satisfied that the failure to give, make or file any notice, application or other document within any period of time specified in the Act or these Rules for such giving, making or filing was wholly or mainly attributable to a failure or undue delay in the postal services in the United Kingdom, the registrar may, if she thinks fit, extend the period so that it ends on the day of the receipt by the addressee of the notice, application or other document (or, if the day of such receipt is an excluded day, on the first following day which is not an excluded day), upon such notice to other parties and upon such terms as she may direct.

(4) In this rule “excluded day” means a day which is not a business day of the Office under the registrar’s direction pursuant to section 80, as published in accordance with rule 70 below.

Alteration of time limits (Form TM9)

68.—(1) The time or periods—

- (a) prescribed by these Rules, other than the times or periods prescribed by the rules mentioned in paragraph (3) below, or
- (b) specified by the registrar for doing any act or taking any proceedings, subject to paragraph (2) below, may, at the written request of the person or party concerned, or on the initiative of the registrar, be extended by the registrar as she thinks fit and upon such terms as she may direct.

(2) Where a request for the extension of a time or periods prescribed by these Rules—

- (a) is sought in respect of a time or periods prescribed by rules 13, 18, 23, 25, 31, 32, 33 or 34, the party seeking the extension shall send a copy of the request to each person party to the proceedings;
- (b) is filed after the application has been published under rule 12 above the request shall be on Form TM9 and shall in any other case be on that form if the registrar so directs.

(3) The rules excepted from paragraph (1) above are rule 10(6) (failure to file address for service), rule 11 (deficiencies in application), rule 13(1) (time for filing opposition), rules 13(3) and 13(5) (time for filing counter-statement), rule 13(4) (cooling off period) save as provided for in that rule, rule 23(4) (time for filing opposition), rule 25(3) (time for filing opposition), rule 29 (delayed renewal), rule 30 (restoration of registration), rule 31(2) (time for filing counter-statement), rule 32(2) (time for filing counter-statement), rule 33(2) (time for filing counter-statement), and rule 47 (time for filing opposition).

(4) Subject to paragraph (5) below, a request for extension under paragraph (1) above shall be made before the time or period in question has expired.

(5) Where the request for extension is made after the time or period has expired, the registrar may, at her discretion, extend the period or time if she is satisfied with the explanation for the delay in requesting the extension and it appears to her to be just and equitable to do so.

(6) Where the period within which any party to any proceedings before the registrar may file evidence under these Rules is to begin upon the expiry of any period in which any other party may file evidence and that other party notifies the registrar that he does not wish to file any, or any further, evidence the registrar may direct that the period within which the first mentioned party may file evidence shall begin on such date as may be specified in the direction and shall notify all parties to the dispute of that date.

(7) without prejudice to the above, in the case of any irregularity or prospective irregularity in or before the Office or the registrar which—

- (a) consists of a failure to comply with any limitation as to times or periods specified in the Act or these Rules or the old law as that law continues to apply and which has occurred or appears to the registrar as likely to occur in the absence of a direction under this rule, and

(b) is attributable wholly or in part to an error, default or omission on the part of the Office or the registrar and which it appears to her should be rectified, she may direct that the time or period in question shall be altered in such manner as she may specify upon such terms as she may direct.

Filing of documents, hours of business, Trade Marks Journal and translations

Filing of documents by electronic means

69. The registrar may, at her discretion, permit as an alternative to the sending by post or delivery of the application, notice or other document in legible form the filing of the application, notice or other document by electronic means subject to such terms or conditions as she may specify either generally by published notice or in any particular case by written notice to the person desiring to file any such documents by such means.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules revoke and replace the Trade Marks Rules 1994 (S.I. 1994/2583, as amended). They re-enact, with modifications and amendments of a drafting nature, the 1994 Rules as amended and make several changes of substance in order to give better effect to the provisions of the Trade Marks Act 1994 (“the Act”).

The changes of substance are as follows—

(1) with the consent of both of the parties the registrar may grant a “cooling-off” period in actions for opposition to registration of a trade mark (rule 13);

(2) certain time limits in actions for revocation (on grounds other than non-use) and invalidation have been reduced from three months to six weeks (rules 32 and 33);

(3) the time limit for appeal to the appointed person has been reduced from one month to 28 days (rule 63);

(4) an application for a trade mark now requires more detailed information regarding the specification of the class of goods or services in Schedule 4 to which it relates (rule 8);

(5) provision has been made for “filing” of a document with the registrar to mean delivery of that document to the registrar at the Office (rule 2);

(6) nothing in section 67(2) of the Act relating to publication of information is to be construed as preventing the publication of decisions of cases relating to trade marks decided by the registrar (rule 49);

(7) provision has been made for the registrar to call case management conferences and pre-hearing reviews (rules 36 and 37);

(8) where the Rules provide for the use of an affidavit or statutory declaration, a witness statement verified by a statement of truth may now be used as an alternative (rule 55);

(9) provision has been made for the calling and cross-examination of persons in proceedings where a party has adduced evidence of a statement made by a person otherwise than while giving oral evidence in those proceedings and does not call that person as a witness (Rule 55).

Any proceeding commenced before the registrar before the entry into force of these Rules shall proceed under the Trade Mark Rules 1994 as amended or old law as appropriate, but where a new step is to be taken on or after 26th April 2000 in relation to any proceedings commenced under the Trade Mark Rules 1994 these Rules shall apply to such proceedings from that date.
