2000 No. 188

The Data Protection (Notification and Notification Fees) Regulations 2000

Duty to notify changes to matters previously notified

12.—(1) Subject to regulation 13 below, every person in respect of whom an entry is for the time being included in the register is under a duty to give the Commissioner a notification specifying any respect in which—

- (a) that entry becomes inaccurate or incomplete as a statement of his current registrable particulars, or
- (b) the general description of measures notified under section 18(2)(b) of the Act or, as the case may be, that description as amended in pursuance of a notification under this regulation, becomes inaccurate or incomplete, and setting out the changes which need to be made to that entry or general description in order to make it accurate and complete.

(2) Such a notification must be given as soon as practicable and in any event within a period of 28 days from the date on which the entry or, as the case may be, the general description, becomes inaccurate or incomplete.

(3) References in this regulation to an entry being included in the register include any entry being treated under regulation 8 above as being so included.
