NATIONAL HEALTH SERVICE, ENGLAND

The National Health Service Trusts (Trust Funds: Appointment of Trustees) Order 2000

Made - - - - 1st February 2000
Coming into force - - 4th February 2000

The Secretary of State for Health, in exercise of the powers conferred upon him by section 11 (1) and (2) of the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990(1), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the National Health Service Trusts (Trust funds: Appointment of Trustees) Order 2000 and shall come into force on 4th February 2000.

(2) In this Order—

“the Act” means the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990;

“the Trust” means each National Health Service trust specified in the Schedule to this Order.

Appointment of trustees

2.—(1) The Secretary of State shall appoint trustees for the Trust for the purpose of exercising the functions described in section 11(1) of the Act (trust funds and trustees of NHS trusts) in relation to the Trust in respect of which the appointment is made.

(2) The appointment of any trustee under paragraph (1) shall be for such period, not exceeding 4 years, as the Secretary of State may specify on making the appointment.

Termination and suspension of appointment

3. Where the Secretary of State is of the opinion that it is not in the interests of the Trust or of the health service or of the administration of any trust funds that a trustee for the Trust should continue to hold that office, he may forthwith terminate his tenure of office and, pending any such determination, may suspend any such trustee from such office.

(1) 1990 c. 19. Section 11 was amended by the Health Act 1999 (c. 8), section 13(6).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Signed by authority of the Secretary of State for Health

1st February 2000

John Denham
Minister of State,
Department of Health
