The Utilities Act 2000 (Commencement No.
3 and Transitional Provisions) Order 2000

Made - - - - 4th November 2000

The Secretary of State, in exercise of the powers conferred on him by section 110(2) and (3) of the Utilities Act 2000⁽¹⁾, hereby makes the following Order:—

Citation and interpretation

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Utilities Act 2000 (Commencement No. 3 and Transitional Provisions) Order 2000.

(2) In this Order—

“the Act” means the Utilities Act 2000;

“the Electricity Act” means the Electricity Act 1989⁽²⁾; and

“the Gas Act” means the Gas Act 1986⁽³⁾.

(3) In this Order (save where the context otherwise requires) references to sections and Schedules are references to sections of and Schedules to the Act.

Provisions of the Act commenced by this Order

2. Subject to articles 3 to 12, 7th November 2000 is the appointed day for the coming into force of the provisions of the Act listed in the first column of the Schedule to this Order for the purposes set out in the second column.

Transitional provisions

3.—(1) Where at any time before the appointed day any individual or body consulted by the Council pursuant to section 19(4)(a) objects to the disclosure of any information relating to it the Council shall until the appointed day refrain from disclosing that information.

(1) 2000 c. 27.

(2) 1989 c. 29.

(3) 1986 c. 44.

(2) On and after the appointed day the entirety of section 19(4) shall apply to any information which, pursuant to paragraph (1), the Council has refrained from disclosing.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), the “appointed day” means the day appointed for the coming into force of section 19(4)(b).

(4) Until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1), in section 19(5) for “Authority” there is substituted “Director General of Gas Supply, the Director General of Electrical Supply”.

4. In section 33DA of the Gas Act (which section 20(5) inserts into that Act)—

- (a) until the appointed day for the coming into force of paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 6 for “gas transporters” or “transporters” in all places where the words occur there is substituted “public gas transporters”; and
- (b) until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1) for “Authority” there is substituted “Director”.

5. In section 42AA of the Electricity Act (which section 20(6) inserts into that Act)—

- (a) until the appointed day for the coming into force of paragraph 38(4) of Schedule 6, the duty of the Council to publish information relating to complaints shall relate to complaints made by consumers about any matter relating to the activities of public electricity suppliers (as defined in section 6(9) of the Electricity Act) and the holders of a licence granted under section 6(2)(a) of the Electricity Act and “complaints” in section 42AA(2) of the Electricity Act shall be construed accordingly; and
- (b) until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1) for “Authority” there is substituted “Director”.

6.—(1) Where at any time before the appointed day any individual or body consulted by the Council pursuant to section 21(4)(a) objects to the publication of any information relating to it the Council shall until the appointed day refrain from publishing that information.

(2) On and after the appointed day the entirety of section 21(4) shall apply to any information which, pursuant to paragraph (1), the Council has refrained from publishing.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), the “appointed day” means the day appointed for the coming into force of section 21(4)(b).

7. In section 32 of the Gas Act (which section 22(1) substitutes for the original section 32 of that Act)—

- (a) until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 95 for any purpose which includes the exercise by the Authority of its powers under section 30A(1) of the Gas Act (which section 95 inserts into that Act), there is omitted from the definition of “enforcement function” in subsection (10) “or 30A”; and
- (b) until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1) for “Authority” in each place where it appears there is substituted “Director”.

8. In section 46 of the Electricity Act (which section 22(2) substitutes for the original section 46 of that Act)—

- (a) until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 59 for any purpose which includes the exercise by the Authority of its powers under section 27A(1) of the Electricity Act (which section 59 inserts into that Act), there is omitted from the definition of “enforcement function” in subsection (10) “or 27A”; and
- (b) until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1) for “Authority” in each place where it appears there is substituted “Director”.

9. Until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1), in section 33 of the Gas Act (which section 23(1) substitutes for the original section 33 of that Act) and in section 46A of the Electricity Act (which section 23(2) inserts into that Act) for “Authority” in all places where it occurs there is substituted “Director”.

10.—(1) Until the appointed day for the coming into force of section 3(1), in sections 105(3)(a) and 105(8)(c) for “Authority” there is substituted “Director General of Gas Supply, the Director General of Electricity Supply” and in section 105(11) for “Authority” there is substituted “Director General of Gas Supply or the Director General of Electricity Supply”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This is the third Commencement Order made under the Utilities Act 2000 (“the Act”).

Article 2 brings into force on 7th November 2000 those provisions of the Act listed in the Schedule to the Order for the purposes specified therein. These provisions relate principally to the functions of the Gas and Electricity Consumer Council (“the Council”) which came into being on 1st November 2000.

Article 2 commences section 4 of the Act for the purpose of requiring the Council to produce a forward work programme. The majority of the provisions in Part III of the Act are commenced. The principal exceptions are sections 24(4), 25 and 26. There are also transitional arrangements relating to the commencement of certain provisions; in particular articles 4 and 5 address section 20, articles 7 and 8 section 22 and article 9 section 23.

Article 2 also commences, with transitional arrangements provided in article 10, section 105 of the Act dealing with restrictions on the disclosure of information.

Further, certain minor, consequential and transitional provisions and repeals are commenced by article 2.
