(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order declares the Agreement between the European Community and its Member States and the Swiss Confederation, on the Free Movement of Persons, signed on 21st June 1999, to be a Community Treaty as defined in section 1(2) of the European Communities Act 1972. The object of the Agreement is to accord rights of entry and residence (for both economically active and inactive persons), and rights of access to work (for both employed and self-employed persons); to facilitate the provision of services in the territory of the Contracting Parties; and to accord equal treatment as regards living, employment and working conditions.

The principal effect of declaring this Agreement to be a Community Treaty as so defined is to bring into play, in relation to it, the provisions of section 2 of the European Communities Act 1972 (which provide for the implementation of treaties so specified).
