(5) If the court is satisfied that a further order for continued detention of cash should be made under section 26(4) of the Act, it shall endorse the order for continued detention accordingly, and a copy of the order as endorsed shall be given by the clerk of the court to every person to whom notice of the order for continued detention has been given.

Direction for release of cash

6. A direction under section 27(3) of the Act for the release of detained cash shall be in Form D, and shall provide for the release of the cash within seven days of the date of the making of the direction or such longer period as with the agreement of the person from whom the cash was seized may be specified in the direction, except that the cash shall not be released whilst section 27(5) of the Act applies.

(3) At the hearing of an application received in accordance with paragraph (1) the justice of the peace shall require the matters contained in the application to be sworn by the applicant under oath, may require the applicant to answer any questions under oath, and may require any response from the respondent to the application and from any other party heard by the court in accordance with section 28(3) of the Terrorism Act 2000 to be made under oath.

Order for forfeiture of detained cash

8. An order for the forfeiture of detained cash made by a justice of the peace under section 28 of the Act shall be in Form F and a copy of the order shall be given to every person to whom notice of the order for continued detention was given and to every party heard by the court in accordance with section 28(3) of the Act when considering the application.

Release of cash to meet legal expenses in connection with appeal against forfeiture order

9.—(1) An application under section 29(3) of the Act for the release of cash to meet the appellant's legal expenses in connection with his/her appeal under section 29(1) of the Act shall be made in writing to the magistrates' court which made the order for forfeiture under section 28 of the Act, and shall contain the name and address of the solicitor instructed by the appellant and the amount requested to be released, together with any evidence in support of the application.

Notice

11. Any notice or copy of any order required to be given to any person under these Rules may be given by post to his/her last known address.

Procedure at hearings

12.—(1) At the hearing of an application under section 26(1), 26(4), 27(2) or 28(1) of the Act, any person to whom notice of the application has been given may attend and be heard on the question of whether an order or further order of continued detention should be made, an existing order should be discharged or a forfeiture order should be made, as the case may be, but the fact that any such person does not attend shall not prevent the court from hearing the application.

(2) Subject to the foregoing provisions of these Rules, proceedings on such an application shall be regulated in the same manner as proceedings on a complaint, and accordingly for the purposes of these Rules the application shall be deemed to be a complaint, the applicant a complainant, the respondents to be defendants and any notice given by the clerk of a magistrates' court under rule 5(3) or 7(2) of these Rules to be a summons: but nothing in this rule shall be construed as enabling a warrant of arrest to be issued for failure to appear in answer to any such notice.
