UNITED NATIONS

The Terrorism (United Nations Measures) (Isle of Man) Order 2001

Made	- - - -	9th October 2001
Laid before Parliament		9th October 2001
Coming into force	- -	10th October 2001

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 9th day of October 2001

Present,

The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

Whereas under Article 41 of the Charter of the United Nations the Security Council of the United Nations has, by a resolution adopted on 28th September 2001, called upon Her Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and all other States to apply certain measures to give effect to decisions of that Council in relation to combating terrorist activities:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, in exercise of the powers conferred on Her by section 1 of the United Nations Act 1946<sup>(1)</sup>, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

Citation, commencement, operation, extent and amendment

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Terrorism (United Nations Measures) (Isle of Man) Order 2001 and shall come into force on 10th October 2001.

(2) If the Security Council of the United Nations takes any decision which has the effect of cancelling or postponing or suspending the operation of the resolution adopted by it on 28th September 2001, in whole or in part, this Order shall cease to have effect or its operation shall be postponed or suspended, in whole or in part, as the case may be, in accordance with that decision.

(3) Particulars of the decisions referred to in paragraph (2) above shall be published by the Secretary of State in a notice in the London, Edinburgh and Belfast Gazettes.

(4) This Order shall extend to the Isle of Man, as part of its law.

(1) 1946 c. 45.

(5) Articles 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10 and 11 shall apply to any person within the Isle of Man and to any person elsewhere who—

- (a) is a British citizen, a British Dependent Territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British subject, a British National (Overseas) or a British protected person and is ordinarily resident in the Isle of Man; or
- (b) is a body incorporated or constituted under the law of the Isle of Man.

Interpretation: general

2. In this Order, unless the context otherwise requires—

“body corporate” includes a limited liability company constituted under the Limited Liability Companies Act 1996 (an Act of Tynwald) and, in relation to such a company, any reference to a director or other officer of a body corporate is a reference to a member and to the company’s manager and registered agent;

“custody” means custody within the meaning of the Custody Act 1995 (an Act of Tynwald);

“document” includes information recorded in any form, and in relation to information recorded otherwise than in legible form, references to its production include references to producing a copy of the information in legible form;

“funds” means financial assets and economic benefits of any kind, including (but not limited to) gold coin, gold bullion, cash, cheques, claims on money, drafts, money orders and other payment instruments; deposits with financial institutions or other entities, balances on accounts, debts and debt obligations; securities and debt instruments (including stocks and shares, certificates representing securities, bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, debenture stock and derivatives contracts); interest, dividends or other income on or value accruing from or generated by assets; credit, rights of set-off, guarantees, performance bonds or other financial commitments; letters of credit, bills of lading, bills of sale; documents evidencing an interest in funds or financial resources, and any other instrument of export financing;

“relevant institution” means—

- (a) a body corporate wherever incorporated;
- (b) a partnership formed under the law of the Isle of Man;
- (c) a partnership or other unincorporated association of two or more persons formed under the law of a member State of the European Community;
- (d) a European authorised institution within the meaning of the Banking Co-ordination (Second Council Directive) Regulations 1992(2) which has lawfully established a branch in the Isle of Man for the purpose of accepting deposits or other repayable funds from the public;
- (e) a building society within the meaning of section 7 of the Industrial and Building Societies Act 1892 (an Act of Tynwald);

“the Treasury” means the Isle of Man Treasury, a department of the government of the Isle of Man.

Interpretation: terrorism

3.—(1) In this Order “terrorism” means the use or threat of action where the action falls within paragraph (2) below, the use or threat is designed to influence the government or to intimidate the

(2) S.I.1992/3218, amended by S.I.s 1993/3225, 1995/1217, 1995/1442, 1996/1669 and 1999/2094. Chapter II of Part I of Schedule 5 to the Bank of England Act 1998 (c. 11) and sections 70(1) and 79(14) and Part II of Schedule 6 of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 (c. 36).

public or a section of the public, and the use or threat is made for the purpose of advancing a political, religious or ideological cause.

(2) Action is terrorism if it—

- (a) involves serious violence against a person,
- (b) involves serious damage to property,
- (c) endangers a person's life, other than that of the person committing the action,
- (d) creates a serious risk to the health or safety of the public or a section of the public, or
- (e) is designed seriously to interfere with or seriously to disrupt an electronic system.

(3) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) above, the use or threat of action falling within paragraph (2) which involves the use of firearms or explosives is terrorism whether or not the use or threat is designed to influence the government or to intimidate the public or a section of the public.

(4) For the purposes of this article—

- (a) “action” includes action outside the Isle of Man,
- (b) a reference to any person or to property is a reference to any person, or to property, wherever situated,
- (c) a reference to the public includes a reference to the public of a country other than that of the Isle of Man, and
- (d) “the government” means the government of the Isle of Man or of a country or territory other than the Isle of Man.

Collection of funds

4.—(1) Any person who invites another to provide funds and intends that they should be used, or knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that they may be used, for the purposes of terrorism, shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who receives funds, and intends that they should be used, or knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that they may be used, for the purposes of terrorism, shall be guilty of an offence.

(3) Any person who provides funds, and knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that they will or may be used for the purposes of terrorism, shall be guilty of an offence.

(4) In this article a reference to the provision of funds is a reference to them being given, lent or otherwise made available, whether or not for consideration.

Making funds available

5. Any person who, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Treasury under this article, makes any funds or financial (or related) services available to, or for the benefit of—

- (a) persons who commit, attempt to commit, facilitate or participate in the commission of terrorism,
- (b) persons controlled or owned by persons referred to in paragraph (a) above, or
- (c) persons acting on behalf of, or on the direction of, persons referred to in paragraph (a) above, shall be guilty of an offence.

Freezing of funds on suspicion

6.—(1) Where the Treasury have reasonable grounds for suspecting that the person by, for, or on behalf of whom any funds are held is or may be—

- (a) a person who commits, attempts to commit, participates in, or facilitates the commission of terrorism,
- (b) a person controlled or owned directly or indirectly by a person referred to in sub-paragraph (a) above,
- (c) a person acting on behalf of, or at the direction of a person referred to in sub-paragraph (a) above, the Treasury may by notice direct that those funds are not to be made available to any person, except under the authority of a licence granted by the Treasury under this article.

(2) A notice given under paragraph (1) shall specify either—

- (a) the period for which it is to have effect, or
- (b) that the direction is to have effect until it is revoked by notice under paragraph (3) below.

(3) The Treasury may by notice revoke a direction under paragraph (1) at any time.

(4) The expiry or revocation of a direction shall not affect the application of article 5 in respect of the funds in question.

(5) A notice under paragraph (1) or (3) shall be given in writing to the person holding the funds in question (“the recipient”), and shall require the recipient to send a copy of the notice without delay to the person whose funds they are, or on whose behalf they are held (“the owner”).

(6) A recipient shall be treated as complying with that requirement if, without delay, he sends a copy of the notice to the owner at his last-known address or, if he does not have an address for the owner, he makes arrangements for a copy of the notice to be supplied to the owner at the first available opportunity.

(7) Any person whose funds are the subject of a direction made under paragraph (1) above, may apply for the direction to be reviewed in the same manner as the review of a direction under the Banking Act 1989 (an Act of Tynwald), and section 24 of that Act and any regulations under that section shall apply to a review under this Order as they apply in respect of a review under that section.

(8) Any person who contravenes a direction under paragraph (1) above shall be guilty of an offence.

(9) A recipient who fails to comply with such a requirement as is mentioned in paragraph (6) shall be guilty of an offence.

Facilitation of activities prohibited under articles 4, 5 and 6(8)

7. Any person who intentionally engages in any activities knowing that the object or effect of those activities is to enable or facilitate the commission (by that person or another) of an offence under articles 5 or 6(8) shall be guilty of an offence.

Offences in connection with licences

8.—(1) Any person who, for the purposes of obtaining a licence under article 5 or 6, knowingly or recklessly makes any statement or furnishes any document or information which is false in a material particular shall be guilty of an offence.

(2) Any person who has done any act under the authority of a licence granted by the Treasury under this Order and who fails to comply with the conditions attaching to that licence shall be guilty of an offence:

Provided that no person shall be guilty of an offence under this paragraph where he proves that the condition with which he failed to comply was modified, otherwise than with his consent, by the Treasury after the doing of the act authorised by the licence.

Failure to disclose knowledge or suspicion of offences

- 9.—(1) A relevant institution is guilty of an offence under this Order if—
- (a) it knows or suspects that a person who is, or has been at any time since the coming into force of this Order, a customer of the institution or is a person with whom the institution has had dealings in the course of its business since that time—
    - (i) is a person who commits, attempts to commit, participates in or facilitates terrorism;
    - (ii) is a person controlled or owned directly or indirectly by a person referred to in paragraph (i);
    - (iii) is a person acting on behalf of, or at the direction of, a person referred to in paragraph (i) above; or
    - (iv) has committed an offence under articles 4, 5, 6(8) or 8; and
  - (b) it does not disclose to the Treasury the information or other matter on which the knowledge or suspicion is based as soon as is reasonably practicable after that information or other matter comes to its attention.
- (2) Where a relevant institution discloses to the Treasury—
- (a) its knowledge or suspicion that a person is a person covered by paragraph (1)(a) above, or a person who has committed an offence under article 5, 6(8) or 8, or
  - (b) any information or other matter on which that knowledge or suspicion is based,
- the disclosure shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction imposed by statute or otherwise.

Obtaining of information

10.—(1) Without prejudice to any other provision of this Order or any provision of any other law, the Treasury may request any person to furnish to them any information in his possession or control, or to produce to them any document in his possession or control, which they may require for the purpose of securing compliance with or detecting evasion of this Order or any law making provision with respect to any of the matters regulated by this Order that is in force in the United Kingdom, or any of the Channel Islands or any territory listed in the Schedule to this Order; and any person to whom such a request is made shall comply with it within such time and in such manner as may be specified in the request.

(2) Nothing in the foregoing sub-paragraph shall be taken to require any person who has acted as advocate for any person to furnish or produce any privileged information or document in his possession in that capacity.

(3) Where a person is convicted of failing to furnish information or produce a document when requested to do so under this article the court may make an order requiring him, within such period as may be specified in the order, to furnish the information or produce the document.

(4) The power conferred by this article to request any person to produce documents shall include power to take copies of or extracts from any document so produced and to request that person, or, where that person is a body corporate, any other person who is a present or past officer of, or is employed by, the body corporate, to provide an explanation of any of them.

(5) The furnishing of any information or the production of any document under this article shall not be treated as a breach of any restriction imposed by statute or otherwise.

(6) Any person who—

- (a) without reasonable excuse, refuses or fails within the time and in the manner specified (or, if no time has been specified, within a reasonable time) to comply with any request made under this article by any person who is empowered to make it; or
- (b) furnishes any information or produces any document which to his knowledge is false in a material particular or recklessly furnishes any document or information which is false in a material particular to such a person in response to such a request; or
- (c) otherwise wilfully obstructs any person in the exercise of his powers under this article; or
- (d) with intent to evade the provisions of this article, destroys, mutilates, defaces, secretes or removes any document,

shall be guilty of an offence.

Disclosure of information

11.—(1) No information furnished or document produced (including any copy of an extract made of any document produced) by a person in pursuance of a request made under this Order shall be disclosed except—

- (a) with the consent of the person by whom the information was furnished or the document was produced or the person from whom the document was seized:

Provided that a person who has obtained information or is in possession of a document only in his capacity as servant or agent of another person may not give consent for the purposes of this subparagraph but such consent may instead be given by any person who is entitled to that information or to the possession of that document in his own right; or

- (b) to any person empowered under this Order to request that it be furnished or produced; or
- (c) to any person holding or acting in any office under or in the service of—
  - (i) the Crown in respect of the Government of the United Kingdom;
  - (ii) the Government of the Isle of Man;
  - (iii) the States of Guernsey, the States of Alderney or the Chief Pleas of Sark;
  - (iv) the States of Jersey; or
  - (v) the government of any territory listed in the Schedule to this Order;
- (d) on the authority of the Treasury, to any organ of the United Nations or to any person in the service of the United Nations or to the government of any other country for the purpose of assisting the United Nations or that government in securing compliance with or detecting evasion of measures in relation to terrorism decided upon by the Security Council of the United Nations; or
- (e) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, any proceedings—
  - (i) in the Isle of Man, for an offence under this Order; or
  - (ii) for any offence under any law making provision with respect to such matters that is in force in the United Kingdom, the Bailiwick of Guernsey, the Bailiwick of Jersey, or any territory listed in the Schedule to this Order.

(2) Any person who, without reasonable excuse, discloses information or a document in contravention of paragraph (1) above shall be guilty of an offence.

Penalties and proceedings

12.—(1) Any person guilty of an offence under article 4, 5, 6(8), 7 or 8(2) shall be liable—

- (a) on conviction on information to custody for a term not exceeding seven years or to a fine or to both; or

- (b) on summary conviction to custody for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (2) Any person guilty of an offence under article 8(1), 10(6)(b) or (d) or 11(2) shall be liable—
  - (a) on conviction on information to custody for a term not exceeding two years or to a fine or to both;
  - (b) on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum.
- (3) Any person guilty of an offence under article 6(9), 9 or 10(6)(a) or (c) shall be liable on summary conviction to custody for a term not exceeding six months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum or to both.
- (4) Where any body corporate is guilty of an offence under this Order, and that offence is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to be attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or any person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, he, as well as the body corporate, shall be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.
- (5) Notwithstanding anything in section 75(1) of the Summary Jurisdiction Act 1989 (an Act of Tynwald), a complaint relating to an offence under this Order which is triable by a court of summary jurisdiction may be heard if it is made at any time within three years after the commission of the offence and within 12 months after the date on which evidence sufficient in the opinion of the prosecutor to justify the proceedings comes to his knowledge.
- (6) For the purposes of this article—
  - (a) a certificate signed by or on behalf of the prosecutor as to the date on which such evidence as is referred to in paragraph (5) above came to his knowledge shall be conclusive evidence of that fact;
  - (b) a certificate purporting to be so signed shall be presumed to be so signed unless the contrary is proved; and
  - (c) section 27(2) of the Police Powers and Procedure Act 1998 (an Act of Tynwald) shall apply to offences under this Order which are not arrestable offences by virtue of the term of custody for which a person may be sentenced in respect of them, as if they were mentioned in that subsection; and accordingly such offences shall be arrestable offences within the meaning of that Act.
- (7) No proceedings for an offence under this Order, other than a summary offence, shall be instituted except by or with the consent of the Attorney General for the Isle of Man:

Provided that this paragraph shall not prevent the arrest, or the issue or execution of a warrant for the arrest, of any person in respect of such an offence, or the remand in custody or on bail of any person charged with such an offence, notwithstanding that the necessary consent to the institution of proceedings for the offence has not been obtained.

Functions of the Treasury

13. The Treasury may, to such extent and subject to such restrictions and conditions as they may think proper, delegate or authorise the delegation of any of their powers under this Order to any person, or class or description of persons, approved by them and references in this Order to the Treasury shall be construed accordingly.

Licences

14.—(1) A licence granted under this Order shall be in writing and may be either general or special, may be subject to or without conditions, and may be limited so as to expire on a specified date unless renewed.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(2) A special licence may be varied or revoked at any time by written notice given by the Treasury to each recipient of the licence.

(3) The Treasury shall publish a general licence in such manner as they think fit. A general licence may have varied or revoked at any time by written notice, which shall be published by the Treasury in the same manner as the licence.

(4) A notice under paragraph (2) above may be given by post, and shall be deemed to have been given to a person if it is sent to him at his last-known address.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order, made under the United Nations Act 1946, imposes in the Isle of Man measures against terrorism pursuant to a decision of the Security Council of the United Nations in its Resolution 1373 of 28th September 2001. It prohibits fundraising for, and restricts the making available of funds to, or the provision of financial services to terrorists. It also provides powers to freeze accounts of suspected terrorists.
