EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (UK Depository Interests in Foreign Securities) Regulations 1999 (S.I.1999/2383) (“the principal Regulations”).

On 28th November 2001 the Inland Revenue adopted a revised interpretation of the term “listed on a recognised stock exchange” and other similar phrases. In consequence of that revised interpretation, certain investments would cease to fall within the definition “foreign securities” for the purposes of the principal Regulations and, accordingly, UK depository interests in those investments would fall outside the scope of those Regulations.

The purpose of the amendment is to ensure that the scope of the principal Regulations is not affected by the revised interpretation.
