The effect of the amendments is—

- (b) reflecting section 22 of the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000, to prohibit candidates at a Greater London Authority election from including in their nomination papers (and on the ballot papers at the election) a description, other than “Independent”, unless they are standing for election in the name of a party registered under Part II of that Act at the time by which the notice of election is required to be published; and
- (c) reflecting an amendment to section 82 (declarations as to election expenses) of the Representation of the People Act 1983, made by paragraph 8 of Schedule 18 to the Political Parties, Elections and Referendums Act 2000, to remove from the prescribed forms of declarations as to election expenses (Forms 17 and 18 in Schedule 5 to the principal Rules, which were added by the Greater London Authority Elections (No. 2) (Amendment) Rules 2000), references to making the declaration before a Justice of the Peace or other specified person.
