The Personal Protective Equipment Regulations 2002

Exceptions to placing on the market and supply in respect of certain PPE

10. For the purposes of regulations 8 and 9, PPE shall not be regarded as being placed on the market or supplied, as the case may be—

(a) where that PPE—

(i) will be brought into service in a country outside the Community; or

(ii) is imported into the Community for re-export to a country outside the Community, save that this paragraph shall not apply if the CE marking, or any inscription liable to be confused therewith, is affixed thereto.
