As regards Wales, Article 5 of and Schedule 2 to the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I. 1999/672) directs that the power of the Secretary of State is exercisable in relation to Wales only after consultation with the Assembly. As regards Scotland, the power was transferred to the Scottish Ministers by section 53 of the Scotland Act 1998 (c. 46) but remains exercisable by the Secretary of State by virtue of section 56(1) of that Act.

(b) The limit in that subsection was increased to £2,100 million by S.I. 1996/569 and thereafter to £2,300 million by S.I. 2000/995.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

Section 8 of the Industrial Development Act 1982 makes provision for the Secretary of State to provide financial assistance for industry.

Section 8(4) provides that the aggregate of

- (a) the sums paid by the Secretary of State under this section or section 8 of the Industry Act 1972 (c. 63), other than sums paid in respect of foreign currency guarantees, and
- (b) the liabilities of the Secretary of State under any guarantees given by her under either of those sections (exclusive of any liability in respect of interest on a principal sum so guaranteed and of any liability under a foreign currency guarantee), less repayments in respect of loans or guarantees (other than foreign currency guarantees) under either section shall not exceed the limit specified in section 8(5).

Section 8(5) provides that the limit shall be £1,900 million but the Secretary of State may, on not more than four occasions, by Order made with the consent of the Treasury increase or further increase that limit by a sum not exceeding £200 million.

This is the third occasion that the sum has been increased under section 8(5) of the Industrial Development Act 1982. The limit was first increased under section 8(5) by the Financial Assistance For Industry (Increase of Limit) Order 1996 (S.I. 1996/569) by £200 million to £2,100 million with effect from 29 February 1996. The limit was further increased under section 8(5) by the Financial Assistance For Industry (Increase of Limit) Order 2000 (S.I. 2000/995) by £200 million to £2,300 million with effect from 6 April 2000.

This Order increases the limit by £200 million to £2,500 million.
