Circumstances in which a person is or is not responsible for a child or qualifying young person

3.—(1) For the purposes of child tax credit the circumstances in which a person is or is not responsible for a child or qualifying young person shall be determined in accordance with the following Rules.

Rule 1

- 1.1. A person shall be treated as responsible for a child or qualifying young person who is normally living with him (the “normally living with test”).
- 1.2. This Rule is subject to Rules 2 to 4.

Rule 2 (Competing claims)

- 2.1. This Rule applies where—
 - (a) a child or qualifying young person normally lives with two or more persons in—
 - (i) different households, or
 - (ii) the same household, where those persons are not limited to the members of a ^{F29}... couple, or
 - (iii) a combination of (i) and (ii), and
 - (b) two or more of those persons make separate claims (that is, not a single joint claim made by a ^{F30}... couple) for child tax credit in respect of the child or qualifying young person.
- 2.2. The child or qualifying young person shall be treated as the responsibility of—
 - (a) only one of those persons making such claims, and
 - (b) whichever of them has (comparing between them) the main responsibility for him (the “main responsibility test”), subject to Rules 3 and 4.

Rule 3

- 3.1. The persons mentioned in Rule 2.2. (other than the child or qualifying young person) may jointly elect as to which of them satisfies the main responsibility test for the child or qualifying young person, and in default of agreement the Board may determine that question on the information available to them at the time of their determination.

Rule 4

- 4.1. A child or qualifying young person shall be treated as not being the responsibility of any person during any period in which any of the following Cases applies.

Case A

The child or qualifying young person is provided with, or placed in, accommodation under Part III of the Children Act 1989 ^{M16}, [^{F31}Parts 4 or 6 of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014,] Part II of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995 ^{M17} [^{F32}by virtue of a requirement in a child assessment order within the meaning of section 35 of the Children’s Hearings (Scotland) Act 2011, a child protection order within the meaning of section 37 of that Act, a compulsory supervision order within the meaning of section 83 of that Act or an interim compulsory supervision order within the meaning of section 86 of that Act,] or Part IV of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995 ^{M18}, and the cost of that child's or qualifying young person's accommodation or maintenance is borne wholly or partly—

- (i) out of local authority funds under [^{F33}section 22C(10)]^{F34} ... of the Children Act 1989 [^{F35}or section 81(13) of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014] or [^{F36}regulation 33 of the Looked After Children (Scotland) Regulations 2009],
- (ii) in Northern Ireland, by an authority, within the meaning in Article 2, and under Article 27, of that Order, or
- (iii) out of other public funds.

^{F37} ... In the circumstances prescribed in regulation 3 of the Child Benefit (General) Regulations 1976 ^{M19}, or regulation 3 of the Child Benefit (General) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1979 ^{M20}.

Case B

The child or qualifying young person—

- (i) is being looked after by a local authority, and
- (ii) has been placed for adoption by that authority in the home of a person proposing to adopt him, and a local authority is making a payment in respect of the child's or qualifying young person's accommodation or maintenance, or both, under [^{F38}section 22C(10)]^{F39} ... of the Children Act 1989, [^{F40}section 81(13) of the Social Services and Well-being (Wales) Act 2014,][^{F41}regulation 33 of the Looked After Children (Scotland) Regulations 2009] or Article 27 of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995.

This Case applies in Northern Ireland with the modification that for references to a local authority there are substituted references to an authority (within the meaning in Article 2 of that Order).

Case C

A custodial sentence—

- (a) for life,
- (b) without limit of time,

- (c) of detention during Her Majesty's pleasure,
- (d) in Northern Ireland, of detention during the pleasure of the Secretary of State, or
- (e) for a term or period of more than four months, has been passed on the child or qualifying young person.

Case D

The F42

... qualifying young person claims and is awarded child tax credit in his or her own right, in respect of a child for whom he or she is responsible, for that period.

[^{F43}Case E

^{F44} ... The qualifying young person, claims incapacity benefit in his or her own right and that benefit is paid to or in respect of him or her for that period.

This Case does not apply at any time (“the later time”) during a period of incapacity for work which began before 6th April 2004 in the case of a person in respect of whom, at a time—

- (a) during that period of incapacity, and
- (b) before that date,

both incapacity benefit [^{F45}or contributory employment and support allowance payable under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2007] and child tax credit were payable, if child tax credit has been payable in respect of him or her continuously since 5th April 2004 until that later time.

For the purposes of this Case “period of incapacity” shall be construed in accordance with section 30C of the 1992 Act (incapacity benefit: days and periods of incapacity for work) but disregarding subsections (5) and (5A) of that section.]

[^{F46}Case F

^{F47} ... The qualifying young person claims and receives working tax credit in his or her own right (whether alone or on a joint claim).]

^{F47}

[^{F48}Case G

The qualifying young person has a spouse, civil partner or partner with whom they are living and the spouse, civil partner or partner is not in full-time education or approved training as provided for under regulation 5(3).]

[^{F48}Case H

The responsible person is the spouse, civil partner or partner of a qualifying young person with whom they are living.

[^{F49}Cases G and H do] not apply to persons in receipt of child tax credit for a qualifying young person who is living with a partner on the day before 1st September 2008.]

4.2 [^{F50}Where a child or qualifying young person is in residential accommodation referred to in regulation 9 of the Child Benefit (General) Regulations 2006 and in the circumstances prescribed in paragraphs (a) or (b) of that regulation, he shall be treated as being the responsibility of any person who was treated as being responsible for him immediately before he entered that accommodation.]

(2) Where—

- (a) a claimant is treated as responsible for a child or qualifying young person by virtue of the preceding Rules, and
- (b) the child or qualifying young person has a child of his or her own, normally living with him or her,

the claimant shall also be treated as responsible for, and as having made a claim for child tax credit in respect of, the child of the child or qualifying young person (but without prejudice to the facts as to which of them is mainly responsible for that child).

Maximum age and prescribed conditions for a qualifying young person

5.—(1) For the purposes of Part 1 a person ceases to be a qualifying young person (unless disqualified earlier under the following paragraphs) on the date on which he attains the age of [^{F55}twenty].

(2) A person who is not a child, but has not attained the age of [^{F56}twenty] years, is a qualifying young person for any period during which the following conditions are satisfied with regard to him [^{F57}(and once a person falls within the terms of paragraph (3)(b), he shall be treated as having satisfied the first condition from the [^{F58}relevant leaving date] mentioned in that paragraph)].

(3) The first condition is that he is ^{F59}...—

(a) receiving full-time education, not being—

(i) advanced education, or

(ii) education received by that person by virtue of his employment or of any office held by him; ^{F60}...

[^{F61}(ab) undertaking approved training [^{F62}, is enrolled or has been accepted to undertake such training,] which is not provided [^{F63}by means of a contract of employment]; or]

(b) under the age of eighteen years and—

[^{F64}(i) [^{F65}he ceased to receive full-time education or to undertake approved training (the date of that event being referred to as “the relevant leaving date”);]

(ii) within 3 months of the [^{F66}relevant leaving date], he has notified the Board (in the manner prescribed by regulation 22 of the Tax Credits (Claims and Notifications) Regulations 2002) that he is registered for work or training with [^{F67}a qualifying body], and

(iii) not more than 20 weeks has elapsed since the [^{F68}relevant leaving date].]

[^{F69}(3A) A person who has attained the age of nineteen years satisfies paragraph (3)(a) or (ab) only where the course of education or training began before he attained that age [^{F70}, or he enrolled or was accepted to undertake that course before he attained that age].]

(4) The second condition is that the period in question is not (and does not include)—

(a) a week in which he (having ceased to receive full-time education [^{F71}or approved training]) becomes engaged in remunerative work [^{F72}or];

^{F73}(b)

(c) a period in respect of which that person receives income support [^{F74}, income-related employment and support allowance payable under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act

2007][^{F75}] income-based jobseeker’s allowance within the meaning of section 1(4) of the Jobseekers Act 1995 ^{M21}[^{F76} or universal credit under Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012].

(5) [^{F77}For the purposes of paragraphs (3) and (4) a person shall be treated as being in full-time education if full-time education is received by that person by undertaking a course—

- (a) at a school or college, or
- (b) where that person has been receiving that education prior to attaining the age of sixteen, elsewhere, if approved by the Board,][^{F78} or,
- (c) where that person begins to receive that education after attaining the age of 16, elsewhere, if approved by the Board, provided that—
 - (i) that person has received a statement of special educational needs, and
 - (ii) that programme of education has been assessed by a local authority as being suitable for that person’s special needs,] where in pursuit of that course, the time spent receiving instruction or tuition, undertaking supervised study, examination or practical work or taking part in any exercise, experiment or project for which provision is made in the curriculum of the course, exceeds or exceeds on average 12 hours a week in normal term-time ^{F79} ... [^{F80} and shall include gaps between the ending of one course and the commencement of another, where the person enrolls on and commences the latter course].

[^{F81}(5A) If paragraph (5) does not apply, then for the purposes of paragraphs (3) and (4) a person shall be treated as being in full-time education if that person is being provided with “appropriate full-time education” in England within section 4 (appropriate full-time education or training) of the Education and Skills Act 2008.]

(6) In calculating the time spent in pursuit of the course, no account shall be taken of time occupied by meal breaks or spent on unsupervised study.

[^{F82}(7) In determining whether a person is undertaking a course of full-time education or approved training, there shall be disregarded any interruption—

- (a) for a period of up to 6 months, whether beginning before or after the person concerned attains age 16, to the extent that it is reasonable in the opinion of the Board to do so; and
- (b) for any period due to illness or disability of the mind or body of the person concerned provided that it is reasonable in the opinion of the Board to do so.]

[^{F83}(8) In this regulation “a statement of special educational needs” means a statement, plan or assessment made by a local authority, which identifies and assesses the special educational needs of a person and specifies the special educational provision required by that person.]

Entitlement to child tax credit after death of child or qualifying young person

6. If—

- (a) a child or qualifying young person dies, and
- (b) a person is (or would, if a claim had been made, have been) entitled to child tax credit in respect of the child or qualifying young person immediately before the death, that person shall be entitled to child tax credit in respect of the child or qualifying young person for the period of eight weeks immediately following the death or, in the case of a qualifying young person, until the date on which he or she would have attained the age of [^{F84}twenty], if earlier.

^{F113}Individual element: exceptions to the restriction on numbers

Textual Amendments

F113 Regs. 9-14 inserted (6.4.2017) by The Child Tax Credit \(Amendment\) Regulations 2017 \(S.I. 2017/387\), regs. 1, 5

Exceptions for the purposes of regulation 7(2A)(b)

9.—^{F114}(1) For the purposes of regulation 7(2A)(b), an exception applies in relation to A if—

- (a) A is (in accordance with paragraphs (5) and (6)) the third or subsequent child or qualifying young person for whom the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, is or are responsible and either—
 - (i) any of regulations 10 to 14 applies in relation to A; or
 - (ii) all, or all but one, of the other children or qualifying young persons (“AA”) for whom the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, is or are responsible are adopted within the meaning given by regulation 11 or cared for under a non-parental caring arrangement within the meaning given by regulation 12 (reading references to “A” in those regulations as if they were references to “AA”); or
- (b) A is (in accordance with paragraphs (5) and (6)) the first or second child or qualifying young person for whom the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, is or are responsible.]

(3) Where an exception applies in relation to A by virtue of paragraph (1), an exception applies also in relation to any other child or qualifying young person who was born on or after 6th April 2017 and for whom the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, is or are responsible, if—

- (a) regulation 7(2A) would (apart from this paragraph) prevent the inclusion of an individual element of child tax credit in respect of that other child or qualifying young person, but would not do so if A were disregarded; and
- (b) the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, was or were already responsible for that other child or qualifying young person before the date on which the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, became responsible for A.

^{F116}(4)

(5) For the purposes of ^{F117}[this regulation], whether A is the first, second, third or subsequent child or qualifying young person is determined by treating children and qualifying persons as forming a single class and, subject to paragraph (6), the order of the members within that class is determined by the following date in relation to each member, taking the earliest date first:—

- (a) where the claimant, or at least one of the joint claimants, is the member’s parent or step-parent (in either case, other than by adoption), the member’s date of birth; or
- (b) in any other case, the date on which the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, became responsible for the member.

^{F118}(6) In a case where the date determined under paragraph (5) is the same in respect of two or more members, their order (as between themselves only) is to be such as the Board determines to be appropriate to ensure that the individual element of child tax credit is included in respect of the greatest number of members.]

(7) Where joint claimants became responsible for a child or qualifying young person on different dates, any reference in this regulation to the date on which either or both of the joint claimants became responsible for that child or qualifying young person is a reference to the earliest of those dates.

Non-parental caring arrangements

12.—(1) This regulation applies in relation to A if the claimant or at least one of the joint claimants—

- (a) is a friend or family carer in relation to A; or
- (b) is responsible for a child or qualifying young person who is a parent of A.

(2) But this regulation does not apply in relation to A if the claimant, or at least one of the joint claimants, is—

- (a) a parent of A; or
- (b) a step-parent of A.

(3) In this regulation, “friend or family carer” means a person who is responsible for A and—

- (a) is named, in—
 - (i) a child arrangements order under section 8 of the Children Act 1989, or
 - (ii) a residence order under article 8 of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995, as a person with whom A is to live;
- (b) is a guardian of A appointed under—
 - (i) section 5 of the Children Act 1989;
 - (ii) section 7 of the Children (Scotland) Act 1995; or
 - (iii) article 159 or 160 of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995;
- (c) is a special guardian of A appointed under section 14A of the Children Act 1989;
- (d) is entitled to a guardian’s allowance under section 77 of the Contributions and Benefits Act or section 77 of the Contributions and Benefits (Northern Ireland) Act 1992 in respect of A;
- (e) is a person in whose favour a kinship care order, as defined in section 72(1) of the Children and Young People (Scotland) Act 2014, subsists in relation to A;

- (f) is a person in whom one or more of the parental responsibilities or parental rights described in section 1 or 2 of [F120 the Children (Scotland) Act 1995] are vested by a permanence order made in respect of A under section 80 of the Adoption and Children (Scotland) Act 2007;
- (g) fell within any of paragraphs (a) to (f) immediately prior to A's 16th birthday and has since continued to be responsible for A; or
- (h) has undertaken the care of A in circumstances in which it is likely that A would otherwise be looked after by a local authority.

Non-consensual conception

13.—(1) This regulation applies in relation to A if—

- (a) the claimant is A's parent; and
- (b) the Board determines that—
 - (i) A is likely to have been conceived as a result of sexual intercourse to which the claimant did not agree by choice, or did not have the freedom and capacity to agree by choice; and
 - (ii) the claimant is not living at the same address as the other party to that intercourse ("B").

Control or coercion

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b)(i), the circumstances in which the claimant is to be treated as not having the freedom or capacity to agree by choice are to include (but are not limited to) circumstances in which, at or around the time A was conceived—

- (a) B was—
 - (i) personally connected to the claimant; and
 - (ii) repeatedly and continuously engaging in behaviour towards the claimant that was controlling or coercive; and
- (b) that behaviour had a serious effect on the claimant.

(3) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(a)(i), B is personally connected to the claimant if—

- (a) B is in an intimate personal relationship with the claimant; or
- (b) B and the claimant live together and—
 - (i) are members of the same family; or
 - (ii) have previously been in an intimate personal relationship with each other.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (2)(b), behaviour has a serious effect on the claimant if—

- (a) it causes the claimant to fear, on at least two occasions, that violence will be used against the claimant; or
- (b) it causes the claimant serious alarm or distress which has a substantial adverse effect on the complainant's day-to-day activities.

(5) For the purposes of paragraph (3)(b)(i), B and the claimant are members of the same family if—

- (a) they are, or have been, married to each other;
- (b) they are, or have been, civil partners of each other;
- (c) they are relatives (within the meaning of section 63(1) of the Family Law Act 1996);
- (d) they have agreed to marry each other (whether or not the agreement has been terminated);
- (e) they have entered into a civil partnership agreement (within the meaning of section 73 or 197 of the Civil Partnership Act 2004), whether or not the agreement has been terminated;
- (f) they are both parents of the same child;
- (g) they have, or have had, parental responsibility (within the meaning of section 3 of the Children Act 1989 or article 6 of the Children (Northern Ireland) Order 1995) for the same child; or
- (h) they have, or have had, in respect of the same child, one or more of the parental responsibilities or parental rights described in section 1 or 2 of the Children (Scotland) Act 2007.

Determinations

- (6) The Board may make a determination under paragraph (1)(b)(i) if, and only if—
 - (a) the claimant provides evidence from an approved person which demonstrates that—
 - (i) the claimant has had contact with that person or another approved person; and
 - (ii) the claimant’s circumstances are consistent with those of a person to whom paragraph (1)(a) and (b)(i) apply; or
 - (b) there has been—
 - (i) a conviction for—
 - (aa) an offence of rape under section 1 of the Sexual Offences Act 2003, section 1 of the Sexual Offences (Scotland) Act 2009 or article 5 of the Sexual Offences (Northern Ireland) Order 2008,
 - (bb) an offence of controlling or coercive behaviour in an intimate or family relationship under section 76 of the Serious Crime Act 2015, or
 - (cc) any offence under the law of any jurisdiction outside the United Kingdom that the Board considers to be analogous to an offence mentioned in paragraph (aa) or (bb), or
 - (ii) an award under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme in respect of a relevant criminal injury sustained by the claimant, and it appears to the Board to be likely (disregarding the matters mentioned in paragraph (7)) that the offence was committed, or the relevant criminal injury was caused, by B and either resulted in the conception of A or diminished the claimant’s freedom or capacity to agree by choice to the sexual intercourse which resulted in that conception.
- (7) In considering, for the purposes of paragraph (6)(b), the likelihood that the offence or injury resulted in the conception of A the matters to be disregarded are any possibilities that the conception of A may have resulted from another such offence or injury, regardless of whether any conviction or award has occurred in respect of that other offence or injury.
- (8) In paragraph (6)(a), “approved person” means a person of a description specified on a list approved by the Board for the purposes of this regulation and acting in the capacity referred to in the description.
- (9) In paragraph (6)(b)(ii), “relevant criminal injury” means—

- (a) a sexual offence (including a pregnancy sustained as a direct result of being the victim of a sexual offence),
- (b) physical abuse of an adult, including domestic abuse, or
- (c) mental injury,

as described in the tariff of injuries in the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme.

(10) In paragraphs (6)(b)(ii) and (9), “Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme” means the Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme or the Northern Ireland Criminal Injuries Compensation Scheme as established from time to time under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act 1995 or the Criminal Injuries Compensation (Northern Ireland) Order 2002 respectively.

(11) The Board may treat the condition in paragraph (6)(a) as met if the Board are satisfied that the claimant has provided the evidence to the Secretary of State for corresponding purposes in relation to universal credit, income support or old style JSA.

(12) The Board may make a determination under paragraph (1)(b)(ii) if the claimant confirms that the criterion in paragraph (1)(b)(ii) is met.

Application to single and joint claims

(13) In this regulation, “claimant”, in relation to a single claim, means the person who makes the claim.

(14) In relation to a joint claim—

- (a) paragraph (1)(b)(i) applies if it applies to either of the joint claimants; and
- (b) references in the other provisions of this regulation to “the claimant” mean the joint claimant to whom paragraph (1)(b)(i) applies (and, in paragraphs (6) and (11) include a joint claimant who purports to meet that criterion).

(15) In paragraph (14), “joint claimant” means a member of the couple making the claim.

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

C12 Reg. 13 modified (6.4.2017) by S.I. 2003/742, reg. 25D (as inserted by The Child Tax Credit (Amendment) Regulations 2017 (S.I. 2017/387), regs. 1, 10)

Continuation of certain exceptions

14.—(1) This regulation applies in relation to A if—

- (a) no other exception applies in relation to A under these Regulations;
- (b) the claimant, or at least one of the joint claimants, is A’s step-parent (and, in this Regulation, “C” means the claimant or a joint claimant who is A’s step-parent); and
- (c) paragraph (2), (4) or (5) applies.

(2) This paragraph applies if—

- (a) C has previously been entitled to child tax credit jointly with a parent of A;
- (b) immediately before that joint entitlement ceased, an exception applied under regulation 9(1)^{F121} ... in relation to A;
- (c) since that joint entitlement ceased, C has continuously been entitled to child tax credit (whether or not jointly with another person); and
- (d) where the criterion in sub-paragraph (b) is met by virtue of ^{F122}... regulation 10, the condition in paragraph (3) is met.

- (3) The condition in this paragraph is that—
- (a) the claimant, or either or both of the joint claimants, is or are responsible for one or more other children or qualifying young persons born as a result of the same pregnancy as A; and
 - (b) A is not the first in the order of those children as determined in accordance with regulation 9.

Where a corresponding exception previously applied for the purposes of another benefit

- (4) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) within the 6 months immediately preceding the day on which a relevant CTC entitlement began—
 - (i) C was entitled to an award of universal credit as a member of a couple jointly with a parent of A; or
 - (ii) C and a parent of A were a couple and either of them was entitled to an award of income support or old style JSA;
 - (b) immediately before the entitlement mentioned in sub-paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) ceased, the amount of that entitlement included an amount in respect of A by virtue of any exception corresponding, for the purposes of that entitlement, to an exception under regulation 9(1) ^{F123} ... in relation to A;
 - (c) C has continuously been entitled to child tax credit (whether or not jointly with another person) since the relevant CTC entitlement mentioned in sub-paragraph (a); and
 - (d) where the criterion in sub-paragraph (b) is met by virtue of ^{F124} ... regulation 10, the condition in paragraph (3) is met.
- (5) This paragraph applies if—
- (a) within the 6 months immediately preceding the day on which a relevant CTC entitlement began—
 - (i) C was entitled to an award of universal credit (whether or not as a member of a couple jointly with another person); or
 - (ii) C was entitled to an award of income support or old style JSA (whether or not C was in a couple with another person);
 - (b) immediately before the entitlement mentioned in sub-paragraph (a)(i) or (ii) ceased, the amount of that entitlement included an amount in respect of A by virtue of any exception corresponding, for the purposes of that entitlement, to the exception that, under regulation 9(1), applies where this regulation applies;
 - (c) C has continuously been entitled to child tax credit (whether or not jointly with another person) since the relevant CTC entitlement mentioned in sub-paragraph (a); and
 - (d) where the criterion in sub-paragraph (b) is met by virtue of [^{F125}regulation 10], the condition in paragraph (3) is met.

Interpretation

- (6) In this regulation—
- “couple” has the same meaning as in Part 1 of the Welfare Reform Act 2012; and
 - “relevant CTC entitlement” means an entitlement of C (whether or not jointly with another person) to child tax credit.
- (7) For the purposes of this regulation, an entitlement of C to child tax credit is to be regarded as continuous despite any interruption of less than 6 months in such an entitlement.]

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

The Tax Credits Act 2002 (“the Act”) introduces new tax credits—child tax credit and working tax credit—which will be available from 6th April 2003.

Section 8 of the Act provides that entitlement of a person or persons to child tax credit is dependent on him, or (in the case of a joint claim) either or both of them, being responsible for a child or qualifying young person. These Regulations provide the meaning of “responsible” and set out ages and qualifying conditions for children and qualifying young persons. They also set out the circumstances in which child tax credit is paid for up to eight weeks after a child or qualifying young person has died.

Section 9 of the Act provides for the determination of the maximum rate of child tax credit. Subsection (2) of that section provides that the determination must include first the family element of child tax credit and, secondly, an individual element of child tax credit in respect of each child or qualifying young person for whom the claimant or (in the case of a joint claim) either or both of the joint claimants is or are responsible.

Subsection (5) of section 9 provides that the amount of those elements may vary according to the age of the child or qualifying young person or otherwise, and must be subject to cumulative increases where he or she is disabled or severely disabled.

Regulations 1 and 2 provide for the citation, commencement and effect of the Regulations, and for interpretation.

Regulation 3 determines the circumstances in which a person is or is not responsible for a child or qualifying young person, for child tax credit purposes.

Regulation 4 provides for a person who has attained the age of 16 years to remain a “child” for the purposes of child tax credit and working tax credit until the 1st September following their sixteenth birthday.

Regulation 5 provides for the maximum age for a qualifying young person (the date on which he or she attains 19 years), and the conditions which a person who is no longer a child but is under 19 has to fulfil to be a qualifying young person.

Regulation 6 prescribes the circumstances in which a person is entitled to Child Tax Credit for a child or qualifying young person who has died.

Regulation 7 prescribes the maximum rate at which a person or persons may be entitled to Child Tax Credit.

Regulation 8 defines “disabled” and “severely disabled” for the purposes of section 9 of the Act. A regulatory impact assessment in respect of the Act has been prepared and placed in the Library of each House of Parliament. A copy can be found on the Inland Revenue website (www.inlandrevenue.gov.uk).
