(5) The decision of an appeal panel on an appeal pursuant to arrangements made under paragraph (1) shall be binding on the relevant person, the teacher in charge and the local education authority.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations prescribe limits on the powers of teachers in charge of pupil referral units to exclude pupils under s.52 of the Education Act 2002, and the procedure which is to be followed by the teacher in charge and the local education authority following an exclusion from a pupil referral unit.

Regulation 3 prescribes the local education authority as the body responsible under section 52(3) of the 2002 Act for considering whether the excluded pupil should be reinstated.

Regulation 5 requires the teacher in charge to inform the parents (or pupil if he is 18 or over) of details of an exclusion. The teacher in charge must also inform the local education authority if the exclusion is permanent, will result in the pupil missing a public examination, or takes the total exclusions for that pupil over five days in a term.

Regulation 6 requires the local education authority, where the exclusion will result in the pupil missing a public examination, or takes the total exclusions for that pupil over 15 days in a term, to consider the circumstances, listen to any representations from the parent (or pupil if he is 18 or over) or the teacher in charge, and to decide whether the pupil should be reinstated or not.

Regulation 7 requires the local education authority to make arrangements for the parent (or pupil if he is 18 or over) to appeal against a decision of the teacher in charge to permanently exclude a pupil. The appeal panel shall have regard to both the interests of the excluded pupil and those of other pupils and persons working at the pupil referral unit. A failure to follow procedural requirements is not of itself to lead to a decision to reinstate. The decision of the appeal panel is binding. The panel may decide not to issue a direction requiring reinstatement of the pupil if they consider it is not practical because of exceptional circumstances or other reasons.

Regulation 8 requires teachers in charge, local education authorities and appeal panels to have regard to guidance given by the Secretary of State.

Regulation 9 provides for the local education authority to give the Secretary of State information about excluded pupils.

The Schedule prescribes the constitution and procedure for appeal panels by making appropriate modifications to the Schedule to the Education (Pupil Exclusions and Appeals) (Maintained Schools) (England) Regulations 2002.
