

SCHEDULE 4

RESERVATIONS, DECLARATIONS AND STATEMENTS MADE BY THE PARTIES TO THE 1995 CONVENTION LUXEMBOURG

Articles 9 and 13

The Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg declares that the rules laid down in Article 14 of the European Convention on Extradition will not apply where the person claimed consents to simplified extradition to another Member State. The rules laid down in Article 14 will, however, apply in the event of re-extradition to another Member State.

Article 12

The Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg reserves the right to apply Article 12(1), second indent, and (2).

Article 15

The Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg declares that the competent authorities referred to in Article 15 are as follows:— for the purposes of Articles 6 to 8, the public prosecutor's office attached to the district court with jurisdiction for the place in question; — for the purposes of Articles 4, 5, 10 and 14, the Minister for Justice. However, the public prosecutor's office attached to the district court with jurisdiction for the place in question is also empowered to request the information referred to in Article 4.

Article 16

Pursuant to Article 16(3), the Government of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg declares that the Convention will apply to it in its relations with Member States that have made the same declaration.
