Dated 10th March 2002

(a) 1988 c.34; see the definition of “regulations” in section 43. This Act is repealed by Part I of Schedule 15 to the Access to Justice Act 1999 (c.22), subject to immaterial exceptions, and to transitional provisions and savings contained in S.I. 2000/774 and 916.

(b) S.I. 1989/339. These Regulations are revoked by virtue of the repeal of enabling provisions in the Legal Aid Act 1988, subject to the transitional provisions and savings contained in S.I. 2000/774, which provided, inter alia, that any reference to an “Area Director” shall, in relation to services covered by instruments such as this, be replaced by a reference to a “Regional Director”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Civil Legal Aid (General) Regulations 1989 in order to provide for the imposition of an embargo against any further work being carried out under a legal aid certificate once notice has been served that it may be discharged or revoked. They also clarify the position regarding amendments of certificates. They apply to transitional cases to which the principal Regulations continue to apply by virtue of the provisions in the Access to Justice Act 1999 (Commencement No. 3, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2000.
