2003 No. 1034

The Special Immigration Appeals
Commission (Procedure) Rules 2003

PART 7

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Address for service

50.—(1) Every party, and any person representing a party or acting as special advocate, must notify the Commission of a postal address at which documents may be served on him and of any changes to that address.

(2) Until a party, representative or special advocate notifies the Commission of a change of address, any document served on him at the most recent address he has given to the Commission shall be deemed to have been properly served on him.
