The Special Immigration Appeals
Commission (Procedure) Rules 2003

PART 7

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Correction of orders and determinations

54.—(1) The Commission may at any time amend an order or determination to correct a clerical error or other accidental slip or omission.

(2) Where an order or determination is amended under this rule—

- (a) the Commission must serve the amended order or determination on every person on whom the original order or determination was served; and
- (b) the time within which a party may apply for permission to appeal against an amended determination runs from the date on which the party is served with the amended determination.
