The Disease Control (England) Order 2003

PART 3

Licences

[^{F1}Cross-border movements of animals into England]

^{F1}18.—(1) In this article a “cross-border movement” means the movement of an animal—

- (a) from Scotland into England, where the movement of the animal within Scotland is carried out under the authority of a licence (general or specific) issued by an authority in Scotland which is responsible for issuing licences in relation to the movement of animals; or
- (b) from Wales into England, where the movement of the animal within Wales is carried out under the authority of a licence (general or specific) issued by an authority in Wales which is responsible for issuing licences in relation to the movement of animals.

(2) That part of a cross-border movement which is carried out within England is treated as if it were authorised by a general licence under article 12.

(3) But paragraph (2) does not apply in the case of a cross-border movement by a person specified in a notice under article 13(1)(b), if that notice prohibits movements of animals by that person generally or to premises which are the destination of the cross-border movement in question.]

F1 Art. 18 substituted (24.12.2012) by The Agriculture, Animals, Environment and Food etc. \(Miscellaneous Amendments\) Order 2012 \(S.I. 2012/2897\), arts. 1(1), 5(2)
