EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends article 5(2)(b) of the County Court Fees Order 1999 (S.I.1999/689), which provides that working tax benefit is a qualifying benefit leading to exemption from court fees, as long as either child tax credit is being paid or there is a disability or severe disability element, and the gross annual income for the purposes of the working tax credit is below a given threshold. The amendments made by this Order:

- (a) provide that the child tax credit need not be received by the party seeking exemption from court fees, as long as it is being paid in respect of a claim for child tax credit made jointly by the party and his spouse or partner; and
- (b) increase the income threshold from £14,213 to £14,600.
