Parliamentary Under Secretary of State,
Department for Transport

(1) 1994 c. 22; section 22A was inserted by section 33(2) of the Vehicles (Crime) Act 2001 (c. 3).
(2) S.I. 2002/2742, to which there are amendments not relevant to these Regulations.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Road Vehicles (Registration and Licensing) Regulations 2002 (“the 2002 Regulations”).

Regulation 15 and Schedule 3 of the 2002 Regulations provide that where an insurer has informed the Secretary of State that a car is uneconomical to repair, or the registration document has been surrendered to the Secretary of State under regulation 20(5) of those Regulations, the vehicle must undergo an examination to confirm it is the registered vehicle, before a new registration document is issued. The examination is known as a “Vehicle Identity Check”.

Regulation 2 increases the fee for a Vehicle Identity Check, or for a further Vehicle Identity Check on appeal, by 32.1% from £26.50 to £35.
