EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations partly replace, with amendments, the National Care Standards Commission (Fees and Frequency of Inspections) Regulations 2003 (“the 2003 Regulations”) and prescribe the fees that are to be paid to the Commission for Social Care Inspection (“the CSCI”) by establishments and agencies (other than voluntary adoption agencies, independent hospitals, independent clinics and independent medical agencies) under Part 2 of the Care Standards Act 2000 (“the Act”).

The National Care Standards Commission is abolished with effect from 1st April 2004 and its functions in relation to the regulation of certain establishments and agencies have been transferred to the CSCI pursuant to section 102 of the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003 as from that date.

The fees are payable—

- (a) on an application for registration in respect of an establishment or agency (regulation 3); and
- (b) on an application for the variation or removal of any condition for the time being in force in relation to the registration (regulation 4).

In addition, regulation 5 prescribes the annual fee that is to be paid in respect of certain establishments and agencies under section 16(3) of the Act, the annual fee that is to be paid by a local authority fostering service under section 51(1) of the Act and the annual fee that is to be paid by boarding schools, residential special schools and residential colleges under section 87D of the Children Act 1989.

Regulation 6 prescribes the frequency of inspections of premises used for the purposes of certain establishments and agencies and of premises used for the purposes of a local authority fostering service.

The 2003 Regulations are revoked by regulation 7.
