Made - - - - 29th March 2005

Coming into force

in accordance with article

1(2)

31st March 2005

Whereas—

- (a) the Secretary of State for Health (“the Secretary of State”) consulted—
 - (i) such organisations as appeared to him to be representative of interests substantially affected by his proposals for this Order,
 - (ii) the National Assembly for Wales, and
 - (iii) such other persons as he considered appropriate;
- (b) as a result of that consultation it appeared to the Secretary of State that it was appropriate to vary his proposals, and he undertook such further consultation with respect to the variations as appeared to him appropriate;
- (c) following the consultation mentioned in recitals (a) and (b) the Secretary of State considered it appropriate to proceed with the making of this Order;
- (d) a document containing the Secretary of State’s proposals was laid before Parliament as required by section 6 of the Regulatory Reform Act 2001⁽¹⁾ and the period for Parliamentary consideration under section 8 of that Act expired;
- (e) the Secretary of State had regard to the representations made during that period and in particular to the House of Lords Delegated Powers and Regulatory Reform Committee’s Eleventh Report of Session 2003-04 and the House of Commons Regulatory Reform Committee’s Fifth Report of Session 2003-04;
- (f) a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament with a statement giving details of those representations and the changes to the Secretary of State’s proposals in the light of them;
- (g) the draft was approved by resolution of each House of Parliament;

- (h) this Order removes a function of the National Assembly for Wales, and the Assembly has agreed that it be made;
- (i) the Secretary of State is of the opinion that this Order does not remove any necessary protection or prevent any person from continuing to exercise any right or freedom he might reasonably expect to continue to exercise; and
- (j) this Order creates burdens affecting persons in the carrying on of certain activities, and the Secretary of State is of the opinion that—
 - (i) the provisions of this Order, taken as a whole, strike a fair balance between the public interest and the interests of the persons affected by the burdens being created, and
 - (ii) the extent to which this Order removes or reduces one or more burdens, or has other beneficial effects for persons affected by the burdens imposed by the existing law, makes it desirable for this Order to be made;

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order is made under section 1 of the Regulatory Reform Act 2001. It reduces the burdens imposed on NHS charities by removing the requirement for their accounts to be audited under the National Health Service Act 1977 and making amendments to various other statutes which deal with the auditing of charity accounts. It also removes certain burdens in relation to the accounts of NHS trustees for non-charitable trusts.

Article 2 amends section 98 of the National Health Service Act 1977 to remove the accounts of certain NHS charities from the requirements of that section (which relate to accounts and audit).

Article 3 amends the Charities Act 1993 to provide for the audit or examination of the accounts of English NHS charities by persons appointed by the Audit Commission and for the audit or examination of the accounts of Welsh NHS charities by the Auditor General for Wales. It also gives the Comptroller and Auditor General access to the accounts and background documents where a person has carried out an audit or examination in the case of an English National Health Service charity. The Commissioners can give directions about examinations.

Article 4 amends the Audit Commission Act 1998 to remove the accounts of NHS charities from the audit requirements of that Act.

Article 5 applies the Charities (Accounts and Reports) Regulations 1995 to NHS charities, subject to the modifications set out in the Schedule. Article 6 designates Article 5 and the Schedule as subordinate provisions under section 4(3) of the Regulatory Reform Act 2001.
