

SCHEDULE 1

REGULATIONS

Parascending and Similar Activities

12. Save with permission of the Queen's Harbour Master, or in areas designated for such activity from time to time by him and marked with buoys, no person shall engage or take part in parascending or other activity involving the towing of a kite or other thing, from land or water, in such a manner as to cause it to become airborne in any part of the Dockyard Port.