The Community Interest Company Regulations 2005

PART 2

The community interest test and excluded companies

Other activities not to be treated as being carried on for the benefit of the community

4. For the purposes of the community interest test, an activity is to be treated as not being an activity which a reasonable person might consider is an activity carried on for the benefit of the community if, or to the extent that, a reasonable person might consider that that activity benefits only the members of a particular body or the employees of a particular employer.
