2005 No. 1905

WATER, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Drought Plan Regulations 2005

Made	- - - -	10th July 2005
Laid before Parliament		13th July 2005
Coming into force	- -	1st October 2005

The National Assembly for Wales in relation to undertakers whose area is wholly or mainly in Wales, and the Secretary of State in relation to all other undertakers, in exercise of the powers conferred upon them by sections 37B(3),(5), (6) and (8), 39B(5), 213(2)(e) and (f) and 219 of the Water Industry Act 1991(1), and after consultation with each other(2), make the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement, extent and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Drought Plan Regulations 2005 and shall come into force on 1st October 2005.

(2) These Regulations extend to England and Wales.

(3) In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Water Industry Act 1991;

“drought plan” means a plan prepared and maintained by a water undertaker in accordance with their duty under section 39B(1) of the Act.

“draft drought plan” means a draft drought plan sent to the Secretary of State or the National Assembly for Wales in accordance with section 37B(1) of the Act.

(4) Reference in these Regulations to section 37B of the Act is a reference to that section as applied by section 39B(5) of the Act.

- (1) 1991 c. 56. Sections 37B and 39B were inserted into the Water Industry Act 1991 by sections 62 and 63 of the Water Act 2003 (c. 37). Section 39B(5) applies the provisions of section 37B to drought plans. See the definition of “prescribed” in section 219 of the Water Industry Act 1991. Functions of the Secretary of State under sections 37B and 39B(5) are transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999 (S.I.1999/672) (“the Order”), as amended by section 100(2)(g) and (3) of the Water Act 2003. Functions under those provisions so far as relating to matters other than the construction or enlargement of reservoirs are transferred to the Assembly in relation to any water undertaker whose area is wholly or mainly in Wales.
- (2) Article 2 of, and Schedule 1 to, the Order (as amended by section 100(3) of the Water Act 2003) provide that the functions referred to above, so far as exercisable in relation to England, shall be exercisable only after consultation with the Secretary of State. Article 5 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Order provide that, in so far as they are exercisable in relation to Wales, the functions referred to above shall be exercisable only after consultation with the Assembly.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, made together by the National Assembly for Wales in relation to undertakers whose area is wholly or mainly in Wales, and the Secretary of State in relation to all other undertakers, prescribe how water undertakers are to prepare and publish drought plans.

The obligation for water undertakers to prepare and maintain a drought plan arises under section 39B(1) of the Water Industry Act 1991 (inserted by section 63 of the Water Act 2003). Section 39B(5) of this Act applies the powers to make regulations in section 37B, in relation to water resources plans, to drought plans.

Regulation 2 prescribes the method of publication of a draft drought plan and the persons to whom it and the accompanying statement must be copied. Regulation 3 prescribes what information water undertakers must specify in a statement accompanying a draft drought plan for the purpose of dealing with representations. Regulation 4 prescribes how water undertakers are to deal with representations received in relation to a draft drought plan, while regulation 5 provides that an inquiry or other hearing may be held in connection with a draft drought plan. Regulations 6 prescribes the method of publication of the water undertaker's completed drought plan.

A Regulatory Impact Assessment in relation to these Regulations has been prepared and placed in the library of each House of Parliament. Copies of this document can be obtained from the Water Supply & Regulation Division, Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs, Rm 3/G18, Ashdown House, 123 Victoria Street, London, SW1E 6DE.
