SCHEDULE

Regulation 15

[Schedule 3A to the 1995 Regulations]

“SCHEDULE 3A

Regulation 10A

FORM AND CONTENT OF SUMMARY FINANCIAL STATEMENT
OF COMPANIES AND GROUPS PREPARING ACCOUNTS IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

Form of summary financial statement

1.—(1) The summary financial statement shall contain the information prescribed by the following paragraphs of this Schedule in such order, and under such headings, as the directors consider appropriate.

(2) The summary financial statement shall contain any other information necessary to ensure that the statement is consistent with the full accounts and reports for the year in question.

(3) Nothing in this Schedule shall be construed as prohibiting the inclusion in the summary financial statement of any additional information derived from the company’s annual accounts, directors' report, directors' remuneration report (if any) or operating and financial review (if any).

Summary of paragraph 1(1) of Schedule 6 to the 1985 Act and of the directors' remuneration report

2. The summary financial statement shall contain the whole of, or a summary of—
- (a) that portion of the notes to the accounts for the year in question which set out the information required by paragraph 1(1) of Part I of Schedule 6 to the 1985 Act (aggregate amount of directors' emoluments etc); and
 - (b) to the extent that the company is required to produce a directors' remuneration report, those portions of the directors' remuneration report for the year in question which set out the matters required by paragraphs 3 (statement of company’s policy on directors' remuneration) and 4 (performance graph) of Schedule 7A to the 1985 Act.

Summary profit loss and account: companies not required to prepare group accounts

3.—(1) The summary financial statement shall contain, in the case of a company the directors of which are not required to prepare group accounts for the financial year, a summary profit and loss account showing either—

- (a) each of the headings and sub-totals included in the full profit and loss account in accordance with international accounting standards, or
- (b) where the directors consider it appropriate, a combination of such headings and sub-totals where they are of a similar nature.

(2) The summary financial statement shall also contain the information concerning recognised and proposed dividends included in the full accounts and reports.

(3) In this paragraph, and in paragraphs 4 to 6 below, the expressions “headings and “subtotals” have the same meaning as in international accounting standard 1 on the presentation of financial statements.

Summary profit and loss account: companies required to prepare group accounts

4.—(1) The summary financial statement shall contain, in the case of a company the directors of which are required to prepare group accounts for the financial year, a summary consolidated profit and loss account showing either—

- (a) each of the headings and sub-totals included in the full consolidated profit and loss account in accordance with international accounting standards, or
- (b) where the directors consider it appropriate, a combination of such headings and sub-totals where they are of a similar nature.

(2) The summary financial statement shall also contain the information concerning recognised and proposed dividends included in the full accounts and reports.

Summary balance sheet: companies not required to prepare group accounts

5. The summary financial statement shall contain, in the case of a company the directors of which are not required to prepare group accounts for the financial year, a summary balance sheet showing either—

- (a) each of the headings and sub-totals included in the full balance sheet in accordance with international accounting standards, or
- (b) where the directors consider it appropriate, a combination of such headings and sub-totals where they are of a similar nature.

Summary balance sheet: companies required to prepare group accounts

6. The summary financial statement shall contain, in the case of a company the directors of which are required to prepare group accounts for the financial year, a summary consolidated balance sheet showing either—

- (a) each of the headings and sub-totals included in the full consolidated balance sheet in accordance with international accounting standards, or
- (b) where the directors consider it appropriate, a combination of such headings and sub-totals where they are of a similar nature.

Corresponding amounts

7.—(1) In respect of every item shown in the summary profit and loss account or summary consolidated profit and loss account (as the case may be), or in the summary balance sheet or summary consolidated balance sheet (as the case may be), the corresponding amount must be shown for the immediately preceding financial year.

(2) For the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), “the corresponding amount” is the amount shown in the summary financial statement for that year or which would have been so shown had such a statement been prepared for that year, taking account of any adjustments to corresponding amounts made in the full accounts and reports.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, which come into force on 1st October 2005, amend the Companies (Summary Financial Statement) Regulations 1995 (S.I. 1995/2092) (“the 1995 Regulations”). The provisions in the Regulations reflect amendments made to section 251 of the Companies Act 1985 (c. 6) (provision of summary financial statements to shareholders) by regulation 11 of the Companies Act 1985 (International Accounting Standards and Other Accounting Amendments) Regulations 2004 (S.I. 2004/2947) and regulation 12 of the Companies Act 1985 (Operating and Financial Review and Directors' Report etc.) Regulations 2005 (S.I. 2005/1011).

Regulations 2 to 11 extend to all companies the ability to send out summary financial statements (“SFS”) to members and others (“entitled persons”) instead of the full accounts and reports, subject to the conditions set out in the 1995 Regulations as amended being satisfied. Previously only listed public companies as defined in regulation 2(1) of the 1995 Regulations have had that ability. One of the conditions that must be satisfied is that the full accounts and reports for the year in question must have been audited (regulation 3(1A) of the 1995 Regulations as inserted by regulation 3 of these Regulations).

New regulation 10A of, and Schedule 3A to, the 1995 Regulations, inserted by regulations 11 and 15 of, and the Schedule to, these Regulations, specify the form and content of the SFS of companies and groups which prepare their accounts in accordance with international accounting standards.

Under the Regulations (regulations 12(3), 13(3) and 14(3)) a company’s SFS need no longer contain a summary of the directors' report. Companies may however include such a summary if they wish to and, in the case of quoted companies (as defined in section 262(1) of the Companies Act 1985), may include a summary of the operating and financial review (regulations 12(2), 13(2) and 14(2), and paragraph 1(3) of new Schedule 3A inserted by regulation 15).

The form of a consultation by notice under regulation 5 of the 1995 Regulations is amended by regulation 5 of these Regulations to take account of these changes, and so that the notice includes a statement that if a full copy of the operating and financial review prepared by a quoted company is not sent to an entitled person it will be published on a web site, stating where and how to access that web site.

The content of SFS is amended to reflect the fact that, as a result of amendments to Part 7 of the Companies Act 1985 made by S.I. 2004/2947, information concerning a company’s dividends is now contained in the notes to a company’s accounts rather than in the profit and loss account (regulations 12(4) to (6), 13(4) to (6) and 14(4) to (6)). For companies preparing accounts in accordance with international accounting standards dividend disclosures are required by paragraphs 3(2) and 4(2) of new Schedule 3A to the 1995 Regulations inserted by regulation 15 of these Regulations.

Amendments to the content of SFS also reflect changes to the provisions on adjustment of prior year amounts contained in regulations 3, 5, 8 and 10 of the Companies Act 1985 (Investment Companies and Accounting and Audit Amendments) Regulations 2005 (regulations 12(7), 13(7), and 14(7)).

Regulation 16 contains a transitional provision so that where a company (whether or not a listed public company) has before 1st October 2005 ascertained that an entitled person does not wish to receive full accounts and reports then that is valid for the purposes of the amended 1995 Regulations.

Regulation 17 repeals provisions of the 1995 Regulations that are spent.
