EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends the General Medical Services and Personal Medical Services Transitional and Consequential Provisions Order 2004 to:

- (a) extend for a further year the period for which prescription forms, repeatable prescriptions and batch issues need not include the name of the contractor as required by various Regulations relating to primary medical services; and
- (b) correct a cross-referencing error in article 110 of that Order.
