PART II

THE ORGANISATION

3. The Organisation is an organisation of which the United Kingdom and other sovereign Powers are members.

4. The Organisation shall have the legal capacities of a body corporate.

5. In the exercise of the official activities of the Organisation, the Organisation shall enjoy immunity from suit and legal process except—

- (a) in so far as such immunity is waived in a particular case by the Council of the Organisation;
- (b) in respect of a civil action by a third party for damage arising from an accident caused by a motor vehicle belonging to, or operated on behalf of, the Organisation or in respect of a motor traffic offence involving such a vehicle;
- (c) in respect of the enforcement of an arbitration award made under Article 16 or 18 of the Protocol;
- (d) in respect of any counter-claim directly connected with court proceedings initiated by the Organisation.

6. The Organisation’s property and assets shall enjoy immunity from suit and legal process, except—

- (a) in so far as such immunity is waived in a particular case by the Council of the Organisation;
- (b) in so far as the property or assets may be temporarily necessary in connection with the prevention or investigation of accidents involving motor vehicles belonging to, or operated on behalf of, the Organisation;
- (c) in respect of an attachment order against the salaries, wages and emoluments owed by the Organisation to an official of the Organisation.

7. The Organisation shall have the like inviolability of official archives and premises as, in accordance with the 1961 Convention Articles, is accorded in respect of the official archives and premises of a diplomatic mission, except that the premises of the Organisation may be entered

(4) Cm. 928.
(5) Cm.5233.
(6) 1964 c. 81.

by an agent of the competent authorities with the express consent of the Director-General of the Organisation or his duly authorised representative; such consent shall be presumed if it is not practicable to contact the Director-General in the case of fire or other disaster requiring prompt protective action.

8. Within the scope of its official activities the Organisation, its property and income shall be exempt from Income Tax, Corporation Tax and Capital Gains Tax.

9.—(1) The Organisation shall have—

- (a) relief, under arrangements made by the Secretary of State, by way of refund of value added tax paid on the supply of any goods and services of substantial value which are necessary for the official activities of the Organisation, such relief to be subject to compliance with such conditions as may be imposed in accordance with the arrangements;
- (b) exemption from prohibitions and restrictions on importation or exportation of goods by the Organisation which are necessary for the exercise of its official activities except where the prohibitions or restrictions arise from European Community law; and
- (c) exemption from duties (whether of customs or excise) and taxes on the importation of goods by the Organisation which are necessary for the exercise of its official activities, such exemption to be subject to compliance with such conditions as the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs may prescribe for the protection of the Revenue.

(2) No exemption or reimbursement shall be granted for duties, taxes or other charges of any kind which only constitute remuneration for services rendered.

(3) No provision within this article is applicable to the purchase or use of goods or services or the importation of goods intended for the personal use of the Director-General or any official of the Organisation.

PART III REPRESENTATIVES

10.—(1) Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Member which they represent, representatives of Members at the meetings of the Organisation shall enjoy, while exercising their functions and in the course of their journeys to and from the place of meeting—

- (a) the like immunity from personal arrest or detention as is accorded to the head of a diplomatic mission;
- (b) the like exemption and privileges in respect of their personal baggage as in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 36 of the 1961 Convention Articles are accorded to a diplomatic agent; and
- (c) immunity from suit and legal process, even after the termination of their mission, in respect of acts, including words spoken or written, performed by them in their official capacity, except in the case of a motor traffic offence committed by a representative or in the case of damage caused by a motor vehicle belonging to or driven by him.

(2) This Article shall not operate so as to confer any privilege or immunity on any person who is a British citizen, a British overseas territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British National (Overseas) or a permanent resident of the United Kingdom.

PART III

OFFICIALS

High Officials

11.—(1) Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Council of the Organisation, the Director-General of the Organisation, or any official acting in his stead as provided for in Article VI of the Convention, shall enjoy—

- (a) the like immunity from suit and legal process, the like inviolability of residence, and the like exemption or relief from taxes and rates, other than customs or excise duties and taxes on the importation of goods, as are accorded to or in respect of the head of a diplomatic mission;
- (b) the like exemption and privileges in respect of his personal baggage as in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 36 of the 1961 Convention Articles are accorded to a diplomatic agent;
- (c) relief, under arrangements made by the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, by way of refund of duty (whether of customs or excise) paid on imported hydrocarbon oil (within the meaning of the Hydrocarbon Oil Duties Act 1979) or value added tax paid on the importation of such oil which is bought in the United Kingdom by him or on his behalf, such relief to be subject to compliance with such conditions as may be imposed in accordance with the arrangements;
- (d) the exemptions accorded to officials of the Organisation under Article 12(1)(b); and
- (e) exemptions whereby, for the purposes of the enactments relating to national insurance and social security, including enactments in force in Northern Ireland,—
  - (i) services rendered for the Organisation by the officer shall be deemed to be excepted from any class of employment in respect of which contributions under those enactments are payable, but
  - (ii) no person shall be rendered liable to pay any contribution which he would not be required to pay if those services were not deemed to be so excepted.

(2) This Article shall not apply to any person who is a British citizen, a British overseas territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British National (Overseas) or a permanent resident of the United Kingdom.

All Officials

12.—(1) Except in so far as in any particular case any privilege or immunity is waived by the Director-General or any official acting in his stead as provided for in Article VI of the Convention, any officials of the Organisation shall enjoy—

- (a) immunity from suit and legal process, even after the termination of their functions, in respect of acts, including words written or spoken, done by them in the course of performance of official duties; this immunity shall not apply, however, in the case of a motor traffic offence committed by officials of the Organisation, nor in the case of damage caused by a motor vehicle belonging to or driven by officials of the Organisation;
- (b) the like exemption from duties (whether of customs or excise) and taxes on the importation of furniture and personal effects (including one motor vehicle each) which—
  - (i) at or about the time when they first enter the United Kingdom to take up their posts as officials of the Organisation are imported for their personal use; and

- (ii) are articles which were in their ownership or possession, or which they were under contract to purchase, immediately before they so entered the United Kingdom, as in accordance with paragraph 1 of Article 36 of the 1961 Convention Articles is accorded to a diplomatic agent;
- (c) exemption from income tax in respect of salaries and emoluments paid by the Organisation, from the date that an internal effective tax for the benefit of the Organisation is applied by the Organisation on such salaries and emoluments.
- (d) the like exemption and privileges in respect of an official's personal baggage as in accordance with paragraph 2 of Article 36 of the 1961 Convention Articles are accorded to a diplomatic agent.

(2) In paragraph (1)(c), the reference to "salaries and emoluments" does not include pensions or annuities paid by the Organisation.

(3) Neither this Article nor Part IV of Schedule 1 to the Act shall apply to any person who is a British citizen, a British overseas territories citizen, a British Overseas citizen, a British National (Overseas) or a permanent resident of the United Kingdom.

13. As from the date on which the Organisation has established a social security scheme, which the Secretary of State considers to provide adequate benefits, officials employed by the Organisation shall enjoy exemptions whereby for the purposes of the enactments relating to social security, including enactments in force in Northern Ireland—

- (a) services rendered for the Organisation by them shall be deemed to be excepted from any class of employment in respect of which contributions under those enactments are payable, but
- (b) no person shall be rendered liable to pay any contribution which he would not be required to pay if those services were not deemed to be so excepted.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order confers the legal capacities of a body corporate and privileges and immunities upon the European Organization for Nuclear Research; and confers privileges and immunities on representatives of its Members attending meetings of the Organisation and its Director-General and officials. These privileges and immunities are conferred in accordance with the Protocol of 18 March 2004 on the Privileges and Immunities of the European Organization for Nuclear Research (Cm. 6356) to the Convention for the Establishment of the European Organization for Nuclear Research (CERN) and the Financial Protocol annexed thereto signed on 1 July 1953 (Cm. 928) and amended on 17 January 1971 (Cm. 5233). The Order will enable Her Majesty's Government to give effect to that Agreement and will come into force on the date on which the Protocol enters into force in respect of the United Kingdom.
