MERCHANT SHIPPING

The Merchant Shipping (Fees) Regulations 2006

Made	- - - -	24th July 2006
Laid before Parliament		27th July 2006
Coming into force	- -	11th September 2006

The Secretary of State for Transport, in exercise of the powers conferred by section 302 of the Merchant Shipping Act 1995(1), and with the consent of the Treasury, makes the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Merchant Shipping (Fees) Regulations 2006 and come into force on 11th September 2006.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“the Act” means the Merchant Shipping Act 1995;

“the Agency” means the Maritime and Coastguard Agency, an executive agency of the Department for Transport;

“local office” means—

- (i) one of the Agency’s Marine Offices,
- (ii) an office of the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs,
- (iii) an office of the Scotland Office Agriculture and Fisheries Department, or
- (iv) an office of the Department of Agriculture for Northern Ireland, which is specified in the “List of Local Offices for Fishing Vessel Registration” published by the Department for Transport;

“premium service”, in relation to a fee, means a service performed for an applicant attending in person at a local office or at the office where the register of British ships is kept;

“the Radio Regulations” means—

the Merchant Shipping (Radio) (Fishing Vessels) Rules 1974(2),

(1) 1995 c. 21.

(2) S.I. 1974/1919, amended by S.I. 1982/1292, 1994/1104 and 1999/3210.

the Fishing Vessels (Safety Provisions) Rules 1975(3), so far as they relate to radio surveys, the Merchant Shipping (Survey and Certification) Regulations 1995(4), so far as they relate to radio installations in cargo ships;

the Merchant Shipping (Radio Installations) Regulations 1998(5), the Merchant Shipping (Radio) (Fishing Vessels) Regulations 1999(6), and the Merchant Shipping (Passenger Ships on Domestic Voyages) Regulations 2000(7), so far as they relate to radio installations; “vessel” has the same meaning as “ship” in the Act.

Fees payable to the Agency

3. Subject to regulations 4 and 5, the fee payable in respect of a service or other function described in Schedule 1 to these Regulations is the fee—

- (a) specified in that Schedule in relation to that service or function, or
- (b) otherwise determined under that Schedule.

Calculation of fees: general

4.—(1) Save in a case to which paragraph (2) applies, where a fee is payable in respect of a survey or periodical inspection for the issue, renewal, amendment or endorsement of a certificate of any kind, no further fee is payable in respect of the issue, renewal, amendment or endorsement of that certificate.

(2) This paragraph applies to a survey for the issue, renewal, amendment or endorsement of a certificate which is performed abroad by a locally appointed surveyor, as regards which—

- (a) if it is carried out for the issue of a certificate pursuant to the Radio Regulations, a fee is chargeable in respect of the work involved at the hourly rate of £36;
- (b) if it is carried out for the issue, renewal, amendment or endorsement of a certificate pursuant to any other enactment, a fee is chargeable in respect of the work involved at the hourly rate of £94.

(3) Where a fee is determined by reference to the amount of work involved, whether on or off a ship—

- (a) if the work on the service or function in respect of which the fee is payable is carried out in conjunction with a non-statutory survey the fee is to be determined by reference to the time taken to ensure compliance with the requirements in respect of which the fee is payable;
- (b) in the case of a fee payable pursuant to the Radio Regulations, where the work is not timed at an exact number of hours, the time by reference to which the fee is determined is to be rounded up to the nearest quarter of an hour.

(4) Where a fee is payable in respect of the issue or endorsement of a certificate, the Agency is not required to issue the certificate or endorsement until that fee has been paid.

(5) In this regulation, “non-statutory survey” means a survey not required by or under the Act (and for which no fee is payable hereunder).

(3) S.I. 1975/330. Relevant amendments are by S.I. 1991/1342, 1996/2419 and 1999/3210.

(4) S.I. 1995/1210. Relevant amendments are by S.I. 2000/1334.

(5) S.I. 1998/2070, amended by S.I. 1999/1957, 2000/2687, 2001/1638, 2002/2201, 2004/302 and 2005/2114.

(6) S.I. 1999/3210, amended by S.I. 2002/2201.

(7) S.I. 2000/2687. Relevant amendments are by S.I. 2002/1473.

Payment for travel, subsistence and other expenses

5.—(1) Where a fee is determined by reference to the amount of work involved, whether on or off a ship, the fee may include an amount for the time spent travelling, save that—

- (a) travelling time in excess of 4 hours for each visit to a ship in the United Kingdom is to be disregarded;
- (b) where it is necessary for a surveyor or inspector to travel from the United Kingdom to a ship located abroad and back to the United Kingdom, travelling time in excess of 10 hours in any period of 24 hours is to be disregarded.

(2) The cost of travel and subsistence incurred in visiting a ship outside the United Kingdom is to be reimbursed to the Agency in addition to the fee payable under these Regulations.

(3) Expenses incurred in respect of any service provided to the Agency by a person not employed by the Agency is to be reimbursed to the Agency in addition to the fee payable under these Regulations.

Transitional provisions

6.—(1) Except in a case to which paragraph (2) applies, where an application for any of the following services, namely—

- (a) an examination,
- (b) the issue of a licence, certificate or any other document or copy document,
- (c) the registration of a ship or a transfer or mortgage of a ship, or
- (d) an exemption from any requirement of or under the Act, is made before 11th September 2006 but the service is provided on or after that date the fee payable in respect of that application is the fee prescribed immediately before the coming into force of these Regulations.

(2) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) an application for an inspection, survey, test or other function is made before 11th September 2006,
- (b) the fee payable in respect of that function is to be calculated by reference to an hourly rate, and
- (c) any work to conduct that inspection, survey, test or other function is carried out after 10th September.

(3) Where paragraph (2) applies the hourly rate prescribed under these Regulations applies for the purpose of calculating—

- (a) the fee in respect of the survey, inspection, testing or other work carried out after 10th September, and
- (b) any additional fee which becomes payable under Part 13 of Schedule 1 to these Regulations by reason of an event occurring after 10th September.

Revocation

7. The Regulations specified in Schedule 2 are revoked.

Application of Part I

2. Subject to paragraph 3, the services and other functions to which this Part applies are—

- (a) a survey or inspection of a ship or its equipment or an audit of its management systems, on the application of the owner for the issue, amendment, endorsement or renewal of a certificate for the purpose of showing compliance with any of the statutory requirements;
- (b) any other inspection of a ship or its equipment under section 258(1) of the Act⁽⁸⁾ (powers to inspect ships and their equipment, etc) on the application of the owner, for the purpose of seeing that the ship complies with any of the statutory requirements;
- (c) an inspection under section 258(1) of the Act, otherwise than on the application of the owner, for the purpose of seeing whether or not the statutory requirements have been complied with;
- (d) an inspection, survey or audit of the ship, its equipment or management, whether on the application of the owner or otherwise, where—
 - (i) the ship or any of its equipment subject to the statutory requirements has been damaged, changed or modified,
 - (ii) a previous inspection has revealed a failure to comply with any of those requirements, or
 - (iii) the inspection, survey or audit is carried out in respect of a United Kingdom ship following the detention of that ship in another country;for the purpose of seeing that the statutory requirements have subsequently been complied with;
- (e) the consideration of an application for an exemption or approval or an amendment of an exemption or approval pursuant to any of the statutory requirements;
- (f) the appointment (including consideration of the suitability of an appointment) of a surveyor not employed by the Agency to undertake a survey, inspection or audit outside the United Kingdom in accordance with the statutory requirements and the subsequent consideration of the results thereof and the issue, renewal or endorsement of a certificate;
- (g) an inspection pursuant to the statutory requirements which results in the detention of a ship to which Part I of the Merchant Shipping (Port State Control) Regulations 1995⁽⁹⁾ applies, and any subsequent inspection relating to the deficiencies which led to the detention;
- (h) a survey or inspection pursuant to the statutory requirements which results in the issue of a prevention of operation notice in accordance with regulation 9 of the Merchant Shipping (Mandatory Surveys for Ro-Ro Ferry and High Speed Passenger Craft) Regulations 2001 and any subsequent survey or inspection relating to the deficiencies which led to the issue of that notice;
- (i) the issue or re-issue of a certificate pursuant to the statutory requirements, or the issue of a letter of acceptance in lieu of a statutory certificate.

3. Where a fee is specifically prescribed under another Part of this Schedule in respect of a survey, inspection or audit or the issue, amendment, renewal or endorsement of a certificate in connection with any of the statutory requirements, the fee so prescribed applies and not the fee prescribed under this Part.

⁽⁸⁾ Section 258(1) was amended by the Merchant Shipping and Maritime Security Act 1997 (c. 28), Schedule 1, paragraph 4(1) and Schedule 7, Part I.

⁽⁹⁾ S.I. 1995/3128, amended by S.I. 1998/1433, 1998/2198, 2001/2349 and 2003/1636.

Time for payment

4.—(1) This paragraph applies in relation to any service or function mentioned in paragraph 2(a), (b), (d), (e) or (f) which is provided in pursuance of an application made with a view to showing compliance with, or seeking exemption from, any requirement imposed by or under any of the statutory instruments listed in paragraph 1.

(2) Where this paragraph applies—

(a) in the case of an application relating to a requirement under the Radio Regulations, the applicant shall if requested by, or arranged in advance with, the Secretary of State, and

(b) in the case of any other application, the applicant shall,

before commencement of the work pay a deposit on account of the fee, the amount of the deposit to be calculated by reference to an estimate by the appropriate authority of the duration of the work likely to be required and the hourly rate prescribed in respect of that service or function.

(3) If during the course of the work the appropriate authority estimates that the duration of the work likely to be required is greater than the amount deposited under sub-paragraph (2), it may recalculate the deposit and the applicant must pay any excess.

(4) If the duration of the work actually required in consequence of the application is greater or less than its estimated or re-estimated duration, the fee is to be recalculated by reference to the actual duration and the difference is to be paid by, or as the case may be, refunded to, the applicant.

(5) In this paragraph “appropriate authority” means the Agency or other appropriate certifying authority provided for in relation to the relevant statutory requirements.

Fees for surveys and inspections, etc

5. Save as provided in paragraph 6 (and subject to any additional fee which may be payable under Part 13 of this Schedule), the fee for a service or function to which this Part applies performed by a person employed by the Agency is to be determined by reference to the time spent in doing the necessary work and calculated at the hourly rate of £94.

6.—(1) A fee for a radio survey under the Radio Regulations is to be calculated as provided in sub-paragraph (2).

(2) To the extent that the fee is payable in respect of—

(a) time occupied in travelling to the place of survey, conducting the survey and completing the survey report, it is to be charged at an hourly rate of £36;

(b) all other work (including administration) done in connection with the survey, the amount chargeable is £75.

PART 2

CERTIFICATES OF COMPETENCY AND EXAMINATIONS FOR OFFICERS

Interpretation

1. In this Part, “item 1 examination”, in either table, means the examination described in the second column of item 1 in that table.

Remittal of fees

2.—(1) Where, in any case, an application for a certificate of competency is rejected on grounds that the applicant does not meet the preliminary criteria for the examination, the prescribed fee of £51 is payable instead of, and not in addition to, the fee for the item 1 examination (so that the sum of £150 is to be refunded to an applicant from an examination fee which he has previously paid).

(2) Where the prescribed fee of £57 has been paid for an initial assessment for qualification as an engineering officer (merchant vessel) the fee for the item 1 examination is to be reduced to £144.

PART 13

ADDITIONAL CHARGES (WAITING TIME, ATTENDANCE AT UNUSUAL HOURS)

Interpretation

1. In this Part—

“inspector” means a Departmental inspector appointed under section 256 of the Act (appointment of inspectors and surveyors);

“surveyor” means a surveyor of ships appointed under that section;

“unusual hour” means any time—

- (a) before 8 a.m. or after 6 p.m. on Monday to Friday (inclusive), or
- (b) on a Saturday, Sunday or bank holiday (and “bank holiday” means any day to be observed as such under section 1 of, and Schedule 1 to, the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971(19)).

(19) 1971 c. 80.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). UK
Statutory Instruments are not carried in their revised form on this site.

Application

2. Save as provided in paragraph 3, the fees specified in the Table of fees apply where—
- (a) an inspector or surveyor is unable to start an inspection, survey or test for which a fee is payable under these Regulations at the appointed hour,
 - (b) an inspection, survey or test is disrupted, or
 - (c) an inspector or surveyor is called upon to perform a function for which a fee is payable under these Regulations—
 - (i) in the United Kingdom, at an unusual hour, or
 - (ii) outside the United Kingdom.
3. The fees which would otherwise apply by virtue of paragraph 2(a) and (b) do not apply where—
- (a) a delay in the commencement, or the disruption, of an inspection, survey or test is due to reasons over which the applicant has no control,
 - (b) the delay lasts for less than one hour, or
 - (c) the inspector or surveyor is reasonably able to avoid waiting time by performing other available work (for which the appropriate fee has been paid) in the vicinity.

Calculation of fees

4. Where a fee specified in the Table of fees applies, it is payable in addition to the hourly fee payable by virtue of any other provision of this Schedule.
