Information about your rights

The Mobile Homes Act 1983

1. Because you will have an agreement with a site owner which will entitle you to keep your mobile home on his site and live in it as your home, you will have certain rights under the Mobile Homes Act 1983, affecting in particular your security of tenure, the sale of your home and the review of the pitch fee.

Implied terms

2. These rights, which are contained in the implied terms set out in Part 3 of this statement, will apply automatically and cannot be overridden, so long as your agreement continues to be one to which the 1983 Act applies.

Express terms

3. If you are not happy with any of the express terms of your proposed agreement (as set out in Part 5 of this statement) you should discuss them with the site owner, who may agree to change them.

Right to challenge

4. If you enter into the agreement and subsequently become dissatisfied with the express terms of the agreement you can challenge them as explained in paragraphs 5. But you must do so within six months of the date on which you enter into the agreement or the date you received the written statement, whichever is the later. If you wish to challenge your agreement, you may wish to consult a solicitor or citizens' advice bureau.

5. A challenge can be made either in the county court or before an arbitrator. You can—
- (a) ask for any express terms of the agreement (those set out in Part 5 of this statement) to be changed or deleted; or
 - (b) ask for further terms to be included in the agreement concerning the matters set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act (see paragraph 8).

The site owner can also go to court or to an arbitrator to ask for the agreement to be changed in these two ways.

6. The appointment of an arbitrator may be provided for in one of the express terms of the agreement. If not, you and the site owner can still agree in writing to appoint an arbitrator to settle a dispute between you.

7. The court or arbitrator must make an order on terms they consider just and equitable in the circumstances.

Further terms

8. The matters set out in Part 2 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act are—
- (a) the sums payable by the occupier in pursuance of the agreement and the times at which they are to be paid;
 - (b) the review at yearly intervals of the sums so payable;
 - (c) the provision or improvement of services available on the protected site, and the use by the occupier of such services; and

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

(d) the preservation of the amenity of the protected site.

Time limit

9. If no application to the court or an arbitrator is made within six months of the date on which you entered into the agreement or the date you received the written statement, which ever is the later, both you and the site owner will be bound by the terms of the agreement and will not be able to change them unless both parties agree.

Unfair terms

10. If you consider that any of the express terms of the proposed agreement (as set out in Part 5 of this statement) are unfair, you can, in accordance with the provisions of the Unfair Terms in Consumer Contracts Regulations 1999(5), complain to the Office of Fair Trading or any qualifying body(6).

PART 3

Implied Terms

Under the 1983 Act, certain terms will be automatically included in your agreement. These implied terms are set out in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act This is set out below and includes the amendments made to Schedule 1 by the Housing Act 2004 and the Mobile Homes Act 1983 (Amendment of Schedule 1) (England) Order 2006(7). The numbering follows that used in the 1983 Act as amended by the 2004 Act and the 2006 Order.

“SCHEDULE 1

AGREEMENTS UNDER THE ACT

PART 1

Terms implied by Act

1. Subject to paragraph 2 below, the right to station the mobile home on land forming part of the protected site shall subsist until the agreement is determined under paragraph 3, 4, 5 or 6 below.

Owner’s estate or interest

2.—(1) If the owner’s estate or interest is insufficient to enable him to grant the right for an indefinite period, the period for which the right subsists shall not extend beyond the date when the owner’s estate or interest determines.

(2) If planning permission for the use of the protected site as a site for mobile homes has been granted in terms such that it will expire at the end of a specified period, the period for which the right subsists shall not extend beyond the date when the planning permission expires.

(5) S.I. 1999/2083.

(6) For the definition of “qualifying body” see S.I. 1999/2083

(7) S.I. 2006/1755.

(3) If before the end of a period determined by this paragraph there is a change in circumstances which allows a longer period, account shall be taken of that change.

Termination by occupier

3. The occupier shall be entitled to terminate the agreement by notice in writing given to the owner not less than four weeks before the date on which it is to take effect.

Termination by owner

4. The owner shall be entitled to terminate the agreement forthwith, if on the application of the owner, the court—

- (a) is satisfied that the occupier has breached a term of the agreement and, after service of a notice to remedy the breach, has not complied with the notice within a reasonable time; and
- (b) considers it reasonable for the agreement to be terminated.

5. The owner shall be entitled to terminate the agreement forthwith if, on the application of the owner, the court—

- (a) is satisfied that the occupier is not occupying the mobile home as his only or main residence; and
- (a) considers it reasonable for the agreement to be terminated⁽⁸⁾.

6.—(1) the owner shall be entitled to terminate the agreement forthwith if, on the application of the owner, the court is satisfied that, having regard to its condition, the mobile home—

- (a) is having a detrimental effect on the amenity of the site; or
- (b) the court considers it reasonable for the agreement to be terminated.

(2) Sub-paragraphs (3) and (4) below apply if, on an application under sub-paragraph (1) above—

- (a) the court considers that, having regard to the present condition of the mobile home, paragraph (a) of that sub-paragraph applies to it, but
- (b) it also considers that it would be reasonably practicable for particular repairs to be carried out on the mobile home that would result in sub-paragraph (1)(a) not applying to it, and
- (c) the occupier indicates that he intends to carry out those repairs.

(3) In such a case the court may make an order adjourning proceedings on the application for such period specified in the order as the court considers reasonable to allow the repairs to be carried out. The repairs must be set out in the order.

(4) If the court makes such an order, the application shall not be further proceeded with unless the court is satisfied that the specified period has expired without the repairs having been carried out.

Recovery of overpayments by occupier

7. Where the agreement is terminated as mentioned in paragraph 3, 4, 5 or 6 above, the occupier shall be entitled to recover from the owner so much of any payment made by him in pursuance of the agreement as is attributable to a period beginning after the termination.

Sale of mobile home

8. The occupier shall be entitled to sell the mobile home, and to assign the agreement, to a person approved of by the owner, whose approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

9. The occupier shall be entitled to give the mobile home, and to assign the agreement, to a member of his family approved by the owner, whose approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

(2) Sub-paragraphs (1A) to (1G) of paragraph 8 above shall apply in relation to the approval of a person for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) above as they apply in relation to the approval of a person for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of that paragraph.

(3) The owner may not require any payment to be made (whether to himself or otherwise) in connection with the gift of the mobile home, and the assignment of the agreement, as mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) above.

- (a) on the application of the owner, the court is satisfied that the other pitch is broadly comparable to the occupier’s original pitch and that it is reasonable for the mobile home to be stationed on the other pitch for that period; or
- (b) the owner needs to carry out essential repair or emergency works that can only be carried out if the mobile home is moved to the other pitch for that period, and the other pitch is broadly comparable to the occupier’s original pitch.

(2) If the owner requires the occupier to station the mobile home on the other pitch so that he can replace, or carry out repairs to, the base on which the mobile home is stationed, he must if the occupier so requires, or the court on the application of the occupier so orders, secure that the mobile home is returned to the original pitch on the completion of the replacement or repairs.

(3) The owner shall pay all the costs and expenses incurred by the occupier in connection with his mobile home being moved to and from the other pitch.

(4) In this paragraph and in paragraph 13 below, “essential repair or emergency works” means—

14. Unless the occupier has agreed otherwise, the owner may enter the pitch for a reason other than one specified in paragraph 12 or 13 only if he has given the occupier at least 14 clear days’ written notice of the date, time and reason for his visit.

15. The rights conferred by paragraphs 12 to 14 above do not extend to the mobile home.

The pitch fee

16. The pitch fee can only be changed in accordance with paragraph 17, either—

- (a) the owner may apply to the court for an order under paragraph 16(b) determining the amount of the new pitch fee;
 - (b) the occupier shall continue to pay the current pitch fee to the owner until such time as the new pitch fee is agreed by the occupier or an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee is made by the court under paragraph 16(b); and
 - (c) the new pitch fee shall be payable as from the review date but the occupier shall not be treated as being in arrears until the 28th day after the date on which the new pitch fee is agreed or, as the case may be, the 28th day after the date of the court order determining the amount of the new pitch fee.
- (5) An application under sub-paragraph (4)(a) may be made at any time after the end of the period of 28 days beginning with the review date.
- (6) Sub-paragraphs (7) to (10) apply if the owner—
- (a) has not served the notice required by sub-paragraph (2) by the time by which it was required to be served, but
 - (b) at any time thereafter serves on the occupier a written notice setting out his proposals in respect of a new pitch fee.
- (7) If (at any time) the occupier agrees to the proposed pitch fee, it shall be payable as from the 28th day after the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (6)(b).

- (a) the owner may apply to the court for an order under paragraph 16(b) determining the amount of the new pitch fee;
 - (b) the occupier shall continue to pay the current pitch fee to the owner until such time as the new pitch fee is agreed by the occupier or an order determining the amount of the new pitch fee is made by the court under paragraph 16(b); and
 - (c) if the court makes such an order, the new pitch fee shall be payable as from the 28th day after the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (6)(b).
- (9) An application under sub-paragraph (8) may be made at any time after the end of the period of 56 days beginning with the date on which the owner serves the notice under sub-paragraph (6)(b).
- (10) The occupier shall not be treated as being in arrears—
- (a) where sub-paragraph (7) applies, until the 28th day after the date on which the new pitch fee is agreed; or

- 18.—(1) When determining the amount of the new pitch fee particular regard shall be had to—

- (3) In a case where the pitch fee has not been previously reviewed, references in this paragraph to the last review date are to be read as references to the date when the agreement commenced.

19. When determining the amount of the new pitch fee, any costs incurred by the owner in connection with expanding the protected site shall not be taken into account.

20.—(1) There is a presumption that the pitch fee shall increase or decrease by a percentage which is no more than any percentage increase or decrease in the retail prices index since the last review date, unless this would be unreasonable having regard to paragraph 18(1) above.

(2) Paragraph 18(3) above applies for the purposes of this paragraph as it applies for the purposes of paragraph 18.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations replace, as regards England only, the Mobile Homes (Written Statement) Regulations 1983, which are revoked to the extent that they apply to England.

Section 1(2) of the Mobile Homes Act 1983 (“the 1983 Act”) provides that, before an agreement to which section 1 of the 1983 Act applies is entered into, the owner of the site must give to the proposed occupier of the mobile home a written statement. Section 1 applies to all agreements under which a person is entitled to station a mobile home on a protected site and occupy it as his only or main residence. A protected site is defined in section 5(1) of the 1983 Act.

Section 1(2)(a) to (d) of the 1983 Act requires the written statement to:

- specify the names and addresses of the parties;
- include particulars of the land on which the proposed occupier is to be entitled to station the mobile home that are sufficient to identify that land;
- set out the express terms to be contained in the agreement; and
- set out the terms to be implied by section 2(1) of the 1983 Act.

Regulation 3 of these Regulations requires the written statement to contain material, in addition to that required by section 1(2)(a) to (d), and to be in the form set out in the Schedule. The Schedule consists of five Parts:

- Part 1 deals with the names and addresses of the parties and with particulars of the land, and certain express terms, namely the pitch fee, its review and additional charges;
- Part 2 contains information about the occupier’s rights under the proposed agreement;
- Part 3 contains the terms to be implied by section 2(1) of the 1983 Act, as set out in Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act (as amended by section 207 of the Housing Act 2004 (c.34) and the Mobile Homes Act 1983 (Amendment of Schedule 1) (England) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/1755));
- Part 4 contains the supplementary provisions relevant to the site owner’s approval of a proposed purchaser of the mobile home or the family member to whom the mobile home is to be given, as set out in Part 3 of Schedule 1 to the 1983 Act;
- Part 5 is for any other express terms of the agreement.

These Regulations apply in relation to written statements given after 1st October 2006 as regards protected sites in England.
