7.—(1) Where the application for a special measures direction is made, in accordance with rule 2(2)(a), for a witness to give evidence by means of a live link, the following provisions of this rule shall also apply.

 - (ii) the witness is not available for cross-examination and the parties have agreed that there is no need for the witness to be so available;
- (f) a statement of the circumstances in which the video recording was made which complies with paragraph (4) of this rule; and
- (g) the date on which the video recording was disclosed to the other party or parties.

(3) Where it is proposed to tender part only of a video recording of an interview with the witness, the application must specify that part and be accompanied by a video recording of the entire interview, including those parts which it is not proposed to tender in evidence, and by a statement of the circumstances in which the video recording of the entire interview was made which complies with paragraph (4) of this rule.

(6) If the special measures direction enables a video recording of an interview of a witness to be admitted as evidence in chief of the witness with provision for the witness, in accordance with section 30 of the Act, to be provided with a device as an aid to communication during the video recording of the interview the information to be included under paragraph (4)(d) shall include also details of any such device used for the purposes of the recording.

(7) A party who receives a recording under paragraph (2) must within 14 days of its receipt, notify the applicant and the court administration officer, in writing—

(9) However, paragraph (8) does not apply if the witness is a child witness in need of special protection.

(10) Notwithstanding the provisions of rule 2 and this rule, any video recording which the accused proposes to tender in evidence need not be sent to the prosecution until the close of the prosecution case at the trial.

(11) The judge advocate may determine an application by the accused to tender in evidence a video recording even though the recording has not, in accordance with paragraph (10), been served upon the prosecution.

(12) Where a video recording which is the subject of a special measures direction is sent to the prosecution after the direction has been made, the prosecutor may apply to the judge advocate for the direction to be varied or discharged.

(13) An application under paragraph (12) may be made orally to the judge advocate.

(14) A prosecutor who makes an application under paragraph (12) must state—

- (a) why he objects to the admission under section 27 of the Act of any part of the video recording or recordings disclosed, giving his reasons why it would not be in the interests of justice for the recording or any part of it to be admitted; and

Intermediaries

10. The declaration required to be made by an intermediary in accordance with section 29(5) of the Act shall be in the following form:

“I solemnly, sincerely and truly declare that I will well and faithfully communicate questions and answers and make true explanation of all matters and things as shall be required of me according to the best of my skill and understanding.”

PART 3

Restriction on cross-examination by an accused acting in person

Restrictions on cross-examination of witness

11.—(1) This rule and rules 12 and 13 apply where an accused is prevented from cross-examining a witness in person by virtue of section 34, 35 or 36 of the Act.

(2) The judge advocate shall explain to the accused as early in the proceedings as is reasonably practicable that he—

- (a) is prevented from cross-examining a witness in person; and
- (b) should arrange for a legal representative to act for him for the purpose of cross-examining the witness.

(3) The accused shall notify the court administration officer within 7 days of the judge advocate giving his explanation, or within such other period as the judge advocate may in any particular case allow, of the action, if any, he has taken.

(4) Where he has arranged for a legal representative to act for him, the notification shall include details of the name and address of the representative.

(5) The notification shall be in writing.

(6) The court administration officer shall notify all other parties to the proceedings of the name and address of the person, if any, appointed to act for the accused.

(7) Where the judge advocate gives his explanation under paragraph (2) to the accused either within 7 days of the day set for the commencement of any hearing at which a witness in respect of whom a prohibition under section 34, 35 or 36 of the Act applies may be cross-examined or after such a hearing has commenced, the period of 7 days shall be reduced in accordance with any directions issued by the judge advocate.

(8) Where at the end of the period of 7 days or such other period as the judge advocate has allowed, the court administration officer has received no notification from the accused, the judge advocate may grant the accused an extension of time, whether on his own motion or on the application of the accused.

(9) Before granting an extension of time, the judge advocate may hold a hearing at which all parties to the proceedings may attend and be heard.

(10) Any extension of time shall be of such period as the judge advocate considers appropriate in the circumstances of the case.

(11) The decision of the judge advocate as to whether to grant the accused an extension of time shall be notified to all parties to the proceedings by the court administration officer.

Appointment of legal representative by the judge advocate

12.—(1) Where the judge advocate decides, in accordance with section 38(4) of the Act, to appoint a legal representative, the court administration officer shall notify all parties to the proceedings of the name and address of the representative.

(2) An appointment made by the judge advocate under section 38(4) of the Act shall, except to such extent as the judge advocate may in any particular case determine, terminate at the conclusion of the cross-examination of the witness or witnesses in respect of whom a prohibition under section 34, 35 or 36 of the Act applies.

Appointment arranged by the accused

13.—(1) The accused may arrange for the legal representative, appointed by the judge advocate under section 38(4) of the Act, to be appointed to act for him for the purpose of cross-examining any witness in respect of whom a prohibition under section 34, 35 or 36 of the Act applies.

(2) Where such an appointment is made—

- (a) both the accused and the legal representative appointed shall notify the court of the appointment; and
- (b) the legal representative shall, from the time of his appointment, act for the accused as though the arrangement had been made under section 38(2)(a) of the Act and shall cease to be the representative of the court under section 38(4) of the Act.

(3) Where the court receives notification of the appointment either from the legal representative or from the accused but not from both, the judge advocate shall investigate whether the appointment has been made, and if he concludes that the appointment has not been made, paragraph (2)(b) shall not apply.

(4) An accused may, notwithstanding an appointment by the judge advocate under section 38(4) of the Act, arrange for a legal representative to act for him for the purpose of cross-examining any witness in respect of whom a prohibition under section 34, 35 or 36 of the Act applies.

(5) Where the accused arranges for, or informs the court of his intention to arrange for, a legal representative to act for him, he shall notify the court, within such period as the judge advocate may allow, of the name and address of any person appointed to act for him.

(6) Where the court is notified within the time allowed that such an appointment has been made, any legal representative appointed by the judge advocate in accordance with section 38(4) of the Act shall be discharged.

(7) The court administration officer shall, as soon as reasonably practicable after the court receives notification of an appointment under this rule or, where paragraph (3) applies, after the judge advocate is satisfied that the appointment has been made, notify all the parties to the proceedings—

Prohibition on cross-examination of particular witness

14.—(1) An application by the prosecutor for the judge advocate to give a direction under section 36 of the Act in relation to any witness must be sent to the court administration officer and at the same time a copy thereof must be sent by the applicant to every other party to the proceedings.

(2) In his application the prosecutor must state why, in his opinion—

- (a) the evidence given by the witness is likely to be diminished if cross-examination is undertaken by the accused in person;
- (b) the evidence would be improved if a direction were given under section 36(2) of the Act; and
- (c) it would not be contrary to the interests of justice to give such a direction.

(3) On receipt of the application the court administration officer must refer it to the judge advocate.

(4) Where a copy of the application is received by a party to the proceedings more than 14 days before the date set for the trial to begin, that party may make observations in writing on the application to the court administration officer, but any such observations must be made within 14 days of the receipt of the application and be copied to the other parties to the proceedings.

(5) A party to whom an application is sent in accordance with paragraph (1) who wishes to oppose the application must give his reasons for doing so to the court administration officer and the other parties to the proceedings.

(6) Those reasons must be notified—

- (a) within 14 days of the date the application was served on him, if that date is more than 14 days before the date set for the trial to begin;
- (b) if the trial has begun, in accordance with any directions issued by the judge advocate; or
- (c) if neither sub-paragraph (a) nor sub-paragraph (b) apply, before the date set for the trial to begin.

(7) Where the application made in accordance with paragraph (1) is made before the date set for the trial to begin and—

- (a) is not contested by any party to the proceedings, the judge advocate may determine the application without a hearing;
- (b) is contested by a party to the proceedings, the judge advocate must direct a hearing of the application.

(8) Where the application is made after the trial has begun—

- (a) the application may be made orally; and
- (b) the judge advocate may give such directions as he considers appropriate to deal with the application.

(9) Where a hearing of the application is to take place, the court administration officer shall notify each party to the proceedings of the time and place of the hearing.

(10) A party notified in accordance with paragraph (9) may be present at the hearing and be heard.

(11) The court administration officer must, as soon as possible after the determination of an application made in accordance with paragraph (1), give notice of the decision and the reasons for it to all the parties to the proceedings.

(12) A person making an oral application under paragraph (8)(a) must—

- (a) give reasons why the application was not made before the trial commenced; and
- (b) provide the judge advocate with the information set out in paragraph (2).

(2) A person opposing an application must state in the written notification whether he disputes that the—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

These Rules make provision for a range of measures designed to help young, disabled, vulnerable or intimidated witnesses give evidence in court-martial proceedings. These measures are contained in Part 2 of the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 (c. 23) (“the Act”), certain provisions of which are applied, with modifications, to courts-martial proceedings by the Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999 (Application to Courts-Martial) Order 2006 (S.I. 2006/2886).

Part 2 of these Rules contains provisions relating to applications for a special measures direction in the case of witnesses who require assistance on the grounds of age or incapacity or on the grounds of fear or distress about testifying. These measures include the use of screens, live television links and video-recorded evidence. Rule 2 provides for an application for a special measures direction to be made in the form prescribed in Schedule 1 to the Rules. Rule 3 provides rules for extending the time for making an application and rule 4 provides for late applications. Rule 5 provides for an application to be made to vary or discharge a special measures direction which has already been made and rule 6 provides for renewal applications where a material change of circumstances has occurred since an application was refused. Additional requirements are imposed where the application relates either to the giving of evidence by means of live television link (rule 7) or the admission of a video recording of an interview with a witness as evidence in chief of the witness (rule 8). Rule 9 provides for the mutual disclosure between parties of expert evidence to be adduced in connection with the application for the special measures direction and rule 10 sets out the declaration required to be made by an intermediary.

Part 3 of these Rules deals with restrictions on cross-examination of a witness by an accused acting in person. Rule 11 sets out the procedure for the judge advocate to notify the accused that he is prevented from cross-examining the witness and the procedure required for the accused to appoint a legal representative to conduct the cross-examination. Rule 12 deals with the appointment of a legal representative by the judge advocate and rule 13 deals with the appointment of that legal representative by the accused. Rule 14 makes provision for the prosecutor to make an application to the judge advocate to give a direction that the accused be prevented from cross-examining a witness.

In Part 4 of these Rules, rule 15 makes provision for an application under section 41(2) of the Act for leave to adduce evidence or ask questions about a complainant's sexual history.

Part 5 of these Rules contains provisions relating to applications for reporting directions in respect of adult witnesses under section 46 of the Act. Rule 16 provides for applications for a reporting direction to be made using Form A to Schedule 2 of the Rules or orally. Rule 17 makes provision for any party to the proceedings to oppose an application and rule 18 makes provision for urgent applications to be made in exceptional circumstances. Rule 19 contains provision for applications to be made (using Form B to Schedule 2 of the Rules) for an excepting direction to dispense with the restrictions imposed by a reporting direction. Rule 20 contains provisions relating to applications for the revocation of reporting directions or the variation or revocation of an excepting direction and rule 21 contains provision for applications for an extension of time. Rule 22 sets out the procedure for determining applications for reporting directions.

Rules 23 and 24 contain consequential revocations and amendments to existing courts-martial rules.
