Determination of the winning licence option

24.—(1) OFCOM shall calculate the total value of the valid bids made in respect of each licence option as follows —

- (a) where the number of valid bids in respect of a licence option is equal to or less than the number of licences under that licence option, OFCOM shall calculate the total value of all the valid bids for that licence option;
- (b) where the number of valid bids in respect of any licence option is greater than the number of licences under that licence option, OFCOM shall —
 - (i) identify the n highest valid bids, where n is the number of licences under that licence option; and
 - (ii) calculate the total value of the n highest valid bids.

(2) The winning licence option shall be the one having the highest total value, determined under paragraph (1).

(3) If there is more than one licence option having the highest total value determined under paragraph (1), the winning licence option shall be that with the greater or, as the case may be, the greatest number of licences amongst those licence options having the equal highest total value.

Determination of winning bids

25.—(1) The winning bids shall be those valid bids included in the calculation made under regulation 24(1) for the winning licence option.

(2) Where there is more than one bid of equal value included in the calculation made under regulation 24(1) for the winning licence option, and that value is the lowest amount included in that calculation, OFCOM shall employ a method of random selection amongst those bids of equal value to determine which of them shall be treated as a winning bid.

Provisional award notice and sums payable 26.—(1) OFCOM shall give a provisional award notice to each bidder who submitted a winning bid (a “winning bidder”) containing —

- (a) a draft of the licence which the winning bidder is provisionally awarded;
- (b) a statement of the licence fee;
- (c) the sum which the winning bidder shall pay to OFCOM; and
- (d) the latest time by which the winning bidder must pay that sum.

(2) The licence fee in respect of the winning bidder’s licence shall be a sum equal to the winning bid made by that winning bidder.

(3) The sum which each winning bidder shall pay to OFCOM shall —

- (a) where its bid deposit has not been forfeited in accordance with regulation 31, be a sum equal to the licence fee less the bid deposit; and
- (b) where its bid deposit has been so forfeited, be a sum equal to the licence fee.

(4) OFCOM shall also notify each bidder who did not submit a winning bid that it has not been provisionally awarded a licence.

(5) OFCOM shall publish on their internet website the identity of the winning bidders to whom licences have been provisionally awarded.

Payment

27.—(1) Each winning bidder shall pay to OFCOM the sum specified in its provisional award notice by the time specified in that notice.

(2) That sum shall be paid into OFCOM’s bank account by a same day electronic transfer, with accompanying information which identifies the bidder.

(3) If a winning bidder fails to make payment in accordance with this regulation it shall —

Licences not awarded

29.—(1) Where OFCOM do not grant a licence to a winning bidder because that winning bidder has failed to make payment in accordance with regulation 27(1), OFCOM shall select the appropriate bidder (among those bidders who made a valid bid for the winning licence option) to which a provisional award notice should next be given in accordance with the order of precedence set out in paragraph (3) and follow the procedures set out in regulations 26 to 28 to give a provisional award notice, receive payment of the licence fee and grant a licence.

(2) Should that bidder fail to make payment, OFCOM shall follow the procedures set out in regulations 26 to 28 to give a provisional award notice, receive payment of the licence fee and grant a licence to the next bidder in the order of precedence until the licence is awarded or the list of bidders (among those bidders who made a valid bid for the winning licence option) is exhausted.

(3) The order of precedence among bidders who made a valid bid for the winning licence option shall be determined by the sums bid by those bidders for the winning licence option such that higher sums shall prevail over lower sums, and, where any two or more bidders bid sums of equal value OFCOM shall employ a method of random selection to determine the precedence among those bidders.

Completion of the award process

- 30. After the grant of licences, OFCOM shall complete the award process by —
- (a) publishing on their internet website the details of all bids, the identity of all bidders and the identity of the persons to whom licences were granted and the licence fees paid; and
 - (b) refunding to applicants who were not qualified or who withdrew in accordance with regulation 9, and unsuccessful bidders, the initial deposits or bid deposits, (where such deposits have not already been forfeited under regulations 23(2), 27(3)(b) or 31) but not any interest which has accrued on the deposits.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations set out the procedure that will apply to the grant of wireless telegraphy licences at the frequency bands 1781.7 megahertz to 1785.0 megahertz and 1876.7 megahertz to 1880.0 megahertz.

To apply a body corporate must deliver the documents required by regulation 4(3) to the Office of Communications (“OFCOM”) on a day specified on their internet website. Information is required about applicants' bidder groups (which is a term defined in regulation 2(f)). An initial deposit of twenty five thousand pounds must also be paid to OFCOM (regulation 4(3)(b)).

Regulation 5 provides for a procedure under which overlaps between applicants' bidder groups can be drawn to the attention of the applicants and time is to be allowed for applicants to notify OFCOM of any changes to bidder groups which have the effect that such overlaps are removed. An applicant will not be qualified to bid where a member of its bidder group is also a member of another bidder group (regulation 7(2)).

OFCOM will determine which applicants are qualified to bid in the auction, taking into account the matters set out in regulation 7(3). Under regulation 8, OFCOM will notify applicants of the last day when they may withdraw their application without forfeiture of the initial deposit.

OFCOM will follow the procedure in Part 4 of these Regulations (where the number of bidders are seven or fewer) or the procedure in Part 5 (where the number of bidders is more than seven) (regulation 10).

Under Part 4, where the number of bidders is seven or fewer, OFCOM will provisionally award a licence with a fee of fifty thousand pounds to each bidder and require a sum to be paid which takes into account the amount on deposit (regulation 11). If a bidder does not pay the sum required by the required time, that bidder will not be granted a licence and will forfeit sums on deposit held by OFCOM (regulation 12). If the sum is paid on time, a licence is to be granted (regulation 13).

Under Part 5, where the number of bidders is more than seven, OFCOM will give each bidder a notice, setting out the delivery period within which the completed bid documentation must be provided to OFCOM (regulation 15). The bid documentation must be completed in accordance with regulations 16 and 17 and sealed bids submitted in accordance with regulation 18. Bidders must also pay to OFCOM a further deposit (regulation 19).

Under Part 5, OFCOM shall determine the winning bids by following the procedure set out in regulations 24 and 25. Winning bidders will be given provisional award notices setting out the licence fee payable by that bidder, a sum to be paid which takes into account the amount on deposit and the time by which the sum must be paid (regulation 26). If a winning bidder does not pay the sum by the required time that bidder will not be granted a licence and will forfeit any deposit held by OFCOM (regulation 27). If the sum is paid on time a licence is to be granted (regulation 28). Licences not granted due to a failure by a winning bidder to make payment under regulation 27 may be offered to other bidders in accordance with the procedure set out in regulation 29.

If in relation to an applicant which is qualified to bid or a bidder OFCOM are satisfied that certain events are occurring or have occurred and the occurrence would materially affect the outcome of the award process the applicant or bidder concerned will forfeit sums on deposit and may be excluded from the award process (regulation 31).

A full regulatory impact assessment of the effect these Regulations will have on the cost to business has been prepared and is available to the public from the OFCOM library at Riverside House, 2a Southwark Bridge Road, London SE1 9HA, telephone 020 7981 3000 or on the OFCOM internet website at <http://www.ofcom.org.uk>.
