The Energy Administration (Scotland) Rules 2006

PART 4

Meetings and Reports

Entitlement to vote (creditors and members)

21.—(1) Except Rule 29(2) and (3), Part 5 (claims in energy administration) applies for the purpose of determining a creditor's entitlement to vote at any creditors' meeting in an energy administration.

(2) Members of a protected energy company at their meetings shall vote according to their rights attaching to their shares in accordance with the articles of association.

(3) The reference in paragraph (2) to a member's share shall include any other interests which he may have as a member of the protected energy company.
