The Energy Administration (Scotland) Rules 2006

PART 8

Replacing energy administrator

Grounds for resignation

50.—(1) The energy administrator may give notice of his resignation on grounds of ill health or because—

- (a) he intends ceasing to be in practice as an insolvency practitioner; or
- (b) there is some conflict of interest, or change of personal circumstances, which precludes or makes impracticable the further discharge by him of the duties of energy administrator.

(2) The energy administrator may, with the leave of the court, give notice of his resignation on grounds other than those specified in paragraph (1).
