CRIMINAL LAW

The Police, Public Order and Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act
2006 (Consequential Provisions and Modifications) Order 2007

Made - - - - 28th March 2007

Coming into force in accordance with Article 1

The Secretary of State makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 104, 112(1) and 113(2), (3) and (4) of the Scotland Act 1998(1).

In accordance with section 115(1) of, and paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Schedule 7 to, that Act, a draft of this Order was laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation, commencement and extent

1.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Police, Public Order and Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2006 (Consequential Provisions and Modifications) Order 2007.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), this Order shall come into force on the day after the day on which it is made.

(3) Articles 2(b), (c) and (d), 3, 4 and 6 and the Schedule shall come into force on 1st April 2007.

(4) Subject to paragraphs (5), (6), (7) and (8), the provisions of this Order extend to the whole of the United Kingdom.

(5) Article 5 extends to England and Wales and Northern Ireland only.

(6) Subject to paragraphs (7) and (8), the modifications specified in the Schedule have the same extent as the provisions being modified.

(7) The modification specified in paragraph 4(16) of the Schedule extends to Scotland only.

(8) The modifications specified in paragraphs 4(17) and 6 of the Schedule extend to England and Wales and Northern Ireland only.

Interpretation

2. In this Order–

- (a) “the Act” means the Police, Public Order and Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2006(2);
- (b) “the Agency” means the Scottish Crime and Drug Enforcement Agency;
- (c) “the Commissioner” means the Police Complaints Commissioner for Scotland;
- (d) “SOCA” means the Serious Organised Crime Agency.

Disclosure of information

3.—(1) Any person may disclose information to the Agency or the Commissioner if the disclosure is made for the purposes of the exercise or carrying out by the Agency or the Commissioner of any of their functions within the meaning of the Act.

(2) Any person who, without the consent of the Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs, discloses information to another person which those Commissioners have disclosed under paragraph (1) commits an offence.

(3) It is a defence for a person charged with an offence under paragraph (2) to prove that he reasonably believed that–

- (a) the disclosure was lawful; or
- (b) the information had already and lawfully been made available to the public.

(4) A person who commits an offence under paragraph (2) is liable–

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years, to a fine, or to both; or
- (b) on summary conviction, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months or to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or to both.

(5) Information disclosed by the Agency under section 19 of the Act to any person or body must not be further disclosed except–

- (a) for a purpose connected with any function of that person or body for the purposes of which the information was disclosed by the Agency, or otherwise for any of the permitted purposes specified in section 19(2) of the Act; and
- (b) with the consent of the Agency.

(6) Information disclosed by the Commissioner under section 46 of the Act to any public body or office holder must not be further disclosed except–

- (a) for a purpose connected with any function of that public body or office holder; and
- (b) with the consent of the Commissioner.

(7) Consent under paragraphs (2), (5) and (6) may be given–

- (a) in relation to a particular disclosure; or
- (b) in relation to disclosures made in circumstances specified or described in the consent.

(8) A disclosure under this article does not breach–

- (a) any obligation of confidence owed by the person making the disclosure; or
- (b) any other restriction on the disclosure of information (however imposed).

(9) But nothing in this article authorises–

- (a) a disclosure, in contravention of any provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998(3), of personal data which are not exempt from those provisions; or
- (b) a disclosure which is prohibited by Part 1 of the Regulation of Investigatory Powers Act 2000(4).

(10) Paragraph (1) does not apply to any person who may disclose information under section 20(1) or 46(4) of the Act.

(11) Paragraphs (5) and (6) do not apply to further disclosure by any person, body or office holder to whom section 19(4) or 46(2) of the Act applies.

Agreements to establish complaints procedures

4.—(1) The Commissioner and the British Transport Police Authority may enter into an agreement to establish and maintain procedures which correspond to or are similar to those contained in Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Act in relation to complaints made about the acts or omissions of the British Transport Police Force, a constable of that Force and any other persons specified in the agreement who serve with that Force or who are employed by the British Transport Police Authority.

(2) The Commissioner and the Civil Nuclear Police Authority may enter into an agreement to establish and maintain procedures which correspond to or are similar to those contained in Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Act in relation to complaints made about the acts or omissions of the Civil Nuclear Constabulary, a member of that Constabulary and any other persons specified in the agreement who are serving with that Constabulary or who are employed by the Civil Nuclear Police Authority.

(3) The Commissioner and the Secretary of State may enter into an agreement to establish and maintain procedures which correspond to or are similar to those contained in Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Act in relation to complaints made about the acts or omissions of the Ministry of Defence Police, a member of the Ministry of Defence Police and any other persons specified in the agreement who serve with the Ministry of Defence Police.

(4) The Commissioner and SOCA may enter into an agreement to establish and maintain procedures which correspond to or are similar to those contained in Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Act in relation to complaints made about the acts or omissions of SOCA and members of the staff of SOCA.

(5) The Commissioner and Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs may enter into an agreement to establish and maintain procedures which correspond to or are similar to those contained in Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Act in relation to complaints made about the acts or omissions of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs, the Commissioners for Revenue and Customs, an officer of Revenue and Customs and any other persons specified in the agreement who are authorised to act for or on behalf of Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs.

(6) The Commissioner and the Secretary of State may enter into an agreement to establish and maintain procedures which correspond to or are similar to those contained in Chapter 2 of Part 1 of the Act in relation to complaints made about—

- (a) the exercise by an immigration officer of specified enforcement functions;
- (b) the exercise by officials of the Secretary of State of specified enforcement functions relating to asylum or immigration.

(7) But “complaint” for the purposes of an agreement made under this article, does not include—

- (a) a statement which consists of or includes an allegation of an act or omission which constitutes a crime;
- (b) any statement made by a person who is serving with, or who has served with—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order makes provision and modifications in consequence of the Police, Public Order and Criminal Justice \(Scotland\) Act 2006 \(asp 10\) (“the Act”).

Article 3 makes provision to enable persons not covered by the Act to disclose information to the Scottish Crime and Drug Enforcement Agency (“the Agency”) and the Police Complaints Commissioner for Scotland (“the Commissioner”) to enable the Agency and Commissioner to exercise any of their functions under the Act. Article 3 also provides that it will be an offence for any person to disclose information which has been sent to the Agency or the Commissioner by the Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs, without obtaining their consent. Provision is also made in Article 3 for conditions on the further disclosure of information by a person, public body or office holder where that information has been disclosed to them by the Agency or Commissioner and such further disclosure is not covered by the relevant provisions of the Act.

Article 4 enables agreements to be made to establish and maintain procedures in Scotland for reviewing certain complaints made about the acts and omissions of the British Transport Police, the Civil Nuclear Constabulary, the Ministry of Defence Police, the Serious Organised Crime Agency, Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs and immigration officers and officials who exercise certain types of enforcement functions which relate to asylum or immigration. The agreements will not be able to establish any procedures for reviewing complaints which may constitute a criminal offence or contain a statement about the terms and conditions of a person’s service or employment. An agreement which is entered into under this article will have no effect on any action carried out by any person or body about whom complaints procedures can be established under this article when that person or body is outside Scotland. Article 4 also makes provision about the sharing of certain information between the Commissioner and the Parliamentary Commissioner for Administration.

Article 5 makes it an offence in England, Wales and Northern Ireland to fail to comply with any requirement imposed on a person by a football banning order made under section 51 or 52 of the Act.

Article 6 and the Schedule make modifications of primary and secondary legislation in consequence of the Act.
