EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations apply only in respect of voluntary aided schools in England. Regulation 2 provides that any expenditure incurred by an appropriate body or any promoters in respect of a new voluntary aided school shall not be treated as capital expenditure if it is an amount which is less than £2,000.

Paragraph 9A(3) of Schedule 3 enables the Secretary of State to prescribe expenditure which is, or is not, to be treated as capital expenditure for the purposes of that Schedule in relation to any appropriate body and any promoters in respect of a voluntary aided school. An appropriate body is defined as the governing body of the school, or a relevant body in relation to the school. A relevant body is defined as the appropriate diocesan authority or the school's trustees.
