EDUCATION, ENGLAND

The Further Education (Principals' Qualifications) (England)
Regulations 2007

Made	- - - -	25th June 2007
Laid before Parliament		5th July 2007
Coming into force	- -	1st September 2007

The Secretary of State for Education and Skills makes the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 137, 145 and 210(7) of the Education Act 2002(a):

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as The Further Education (Principals' Qualifications) (England) Regulations 2007 and come into force on 1st September 2007.

Application

2.—(1) These Regulations apply only in relation to England.
(2) These Regulations do not apply to a person who, before the coming into force of these Regulations, has been appointed as the principal of a further education institution.

Interpretation

3. In these Regulations—
“CEL” means the Centre for Excellence in Leadership, registered with the Charity Commission under the name “Inspire Leadership”;
“Principals' Qualification” means the qualification awarded to a person by CEL, where it is satisfied that that person has successfully completed the Principals' Qualifying Programme; and “Principals' Qualifying Programme” means the programme of training for principals of further education institutions approved by the Secretary of State and provided by CEL.

Principals' qualification

4. Subject to regulation 5, a person may serve as a principal of a further education institution only if that person holds—
(a) the Principals' Qualification; or

(a) 2002 c. 32.

- (b) a relevant qualification obtained in an EEA State or Switzerland recognised in accordance with the provisions of Council Directive 92/51/EEC^(a) and Directive 2005/36/EC^(b).

Exception for person following the Principals' Qualifying Programme

5. A person may serve as a principal of a further education institution without any of the qualifications referred to in regulation 4 while he is following the Principals' Qualifying Programme.

25th June 2007

Bill Rammell
Minister of State
Department for Education and Skills

(a) OJ L 209, 24.7.1992, p24. This Directive as amended has been implemented by the European Communities (Recognition of Professional Qualifications) (Second General System) Regulations 2002 (S.I. 2002/2934), as amended by S.I. 2004/1771, 2004/2033, 2005/882, 2006/1718, 2006/3214 and 2007/289. These Regulations apply to a range of professions including further education teachers, for which the Secretary of State is the designated authority.

(b) OJ L 255, 30.9.2005, p22, also implemented by S.I. 2002/2934 as amended.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations apply only to principals of further education institutions in England appointed for the first time on or after 1st September 2007.

Regulation 4 requires such principals to—

- (a) hold the Principals' Qualification or to be participating in the Principals' Qualifying Programme with a view to obtaining the Principals' Qualification; or
- (b) hold any comparable recognised qualification obtained in Switzerland or any EEA country .

By regulation 3, a person who does not hold such a qualification is prohibited from being a principal of a further education institution. But by regulation 5, this prohibition does not apply to a person who is on the Principals' Qualifying Programme.
