5. Extent

6. European Convention on Human Rights
 - 6.1 The Home Secretary, Jacqui Smith, has made the following statement regarding Human Rights:

“In my view the provisions of the Terrorism Act 2000 (Proscribed Organisations) (Amendment) Order 2007 are compatible with Convention rights”.

7. Policy background

7.1 Section 3 of the Terrorism Act 2000 provides a power to proscribe by order an organisation which commits or participates in acts of terrorism, prepares for, promotes or encourages terrorism or is otherwise concerned with terrorism. Section 21 of the Terrorism Act 2006 amended the grounds for proscription to include organisations which glorify terrorism.

7.2 Additional criteria were issued by the Home Office in 2001 on deciding whether or not to proscribe an organisation. These are:

- The nature and scale of the organisation's activities
- The specific threat that it poses to the UK
- The specific threat that it poses to British nationals overseas
- The extent of the organisation's presence in the UK
- The need to support international partners in fight against terrorism

7.3 Proscription means that an organisation is outlawed in the UK as soon as the order comes into force. It is a criminal offence for a person to belong to or encourage support for a proscribed organisation. It is also a criminal offence to arrange a meeting in support of a proscribed organisation or to wear clothing or to carry articles in public which arouse reasonable suspicion that they are a member or supporter of a proscribed organisation. Proscription means that the financial assets of the organisation become terrorist property and can be subject to freezing and seizure. Organisations that are proscribed can appeal to the Secretary of State for de-proscription.

8. Impact

8.1 A Regulatory Impact Assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it has no impact on business, charities or voluntary bodies

8.2 There is no impact on the public sector.
