Guidance Notes

1. The type of premises licence should be inserted here. The following options are available:

- regional casino
- large casino
- small casino
- converted casino
- bingo
- adult gaming centre
- family entertainment centre
- betting

The type chosen should match the selection made by the applicant in Part 1 of the application form submitted to the licensing authority. If the premises licence is a betting premises licence, a suffix should also be added so that the title will read either "Betting Premises Licence (in respect of premises other than a track)" or "Betting Premises Licence (in respect of a track)"

2. Except where the licence is transferred or reinstated, the names or names given should reflect those given in Part 2 of the application for a premises licence.

3. Except where the licence is transferred or reinstated, the address or addresses given should reflect those given in Part 2 of the application for a premises licence.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

4. Where the holder of the premises licence does not hold an operating licence then this entry is to be left out. A premises licence can be issued to a person who does not hold an operating licence:

- if the premises concerned are a track; or
- where the premises licence has been issued under transitional arrangements, and the holder of the premises licence is applying for an operating licence, but the application has not been granted by the date of issue.

5. Give the address of the premises as set out in Part 3 of the application for a premises licence. If the premises have no address, give a description of the premises and their location which as far as possible reflects that set out in the application for a premises licence. If the application is in respect of a vessel, the name and country of registration of the vessel should be entered here.

6. If the licence is in respect of a vessel, the place in the area of the licensing authority where the vessel is situated or moored for the purposes of the licence should be entered here. Unless varied, this place should be the same as that given in Part 3 of the application for a premises licence. If the application is not in respect of a vessel, this entry in the licence should be left out.

7. Licences run for an indefinite duration unless they are revoked, surrendered or lapse under Part 8 of the Gambling Act 2005.

[This entry is only to be included where the licensed premises are a vessel. See Note 4]

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

Summary of the Terms and Conditions of the Premises Licence

1. The premises licence will run in perpetuity unless:
 - the Secretary of State prescribes a period after which the licence will expire under section 191 of the Gambling Act 2005;
 - the licence holder surrenders the licence under section 192 of the Gambling Act 2005
 - the licence lapses under section 194 of the Gambling Act 2005;
 - the licence is revoked under section 193 or 202(1) of the Gambling Act 2005.
2. The premises licence applies only in relation to the premises specified in Part 2 of the licence and may not be varied so that it applies to any other premises (except in the case of a converted casino premises licence).
3. The premises licence authorises the premises to be used for [Insert a description of the activities for which the premises are authorised to be used].
4. The premises licence is subject to:
 - any conditions specified on the face of the licence as being attached under section 169(1)(a) of the Gambling Act 2005;
 - any other conditions attached to the licence by virtue of regulations made under sections 167 and 168 of the Gambling Act 2005 (other than any conditions under section 168 which have been excluded by the licensing authority); and
 - any conditions attached to the licence by virtue of specific provisions of the Gambling Act 2005.
5. In particular, it is a condition of the premises licence under section 185 of the Gambling Act 2005 that the holder keeps the licence on the premises and arranges for it to be made available on request to a constable, enforcement officer or local authority officer. The holder of the licence commits an offence if he fails to comply with this condition.
