(Working Time) Regulations 2008

Offences by bodies corporate

13.—(1) Where an offence committed by a body corporate is proved to have been committed with the consent or connivance of, or to have been attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body corporate or a person who was purporting to act in any such capacity, that person as well as the body corporate is guilty of that offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) Where the affairs of a body corporate are managed by its members, the preceding paragraph apply in relation to the acts and defaults of a member in connection with the member's functions of management as if the member were a director of the body corporate.
