- (a) it has a constitution, available in written form;
- (b) its constitution specifies an area in relation to which it seeks to enter into a TMO agreement with an authority;

- (e) its constitution provides that the affairs of the TMO must be conducted either—
 - (i) by the members of the TMO at a general meeting; or
 - (ii) by a committee or board of directors elected by members of the TMO.

(2) For the purposes of these Regulations, a TMO—

(3) “House” is defined for the purposes of Part 2 of the Housing Act 1985, in section 56.

(4) See section 27AB(8) of the Housing Act 1985.

- (a) is not disqualified from being a TMO if its constitution contains provision for matters other than those specified in paragraph (1); and

Disputes between authorities and TMOs

8.—(1) Where an authority and a TMO cannot resolve a dispute that has arisen between them concerning the application or interpretation of any provision of these Regulations or the TMO agreement, either party may refer the matter to an arbitrator agreed between them or, in default of agreement, appointed by the Secretary of State.

(2) In making the referral described in paragraph (1), the authority and the TMO must have regard to any guidance provided from time to time by the Secretary of State as to the procedure and conduct of the arbitration.

PART 2

Authority support following proposal notice

12.—(1) Where an authority has accepted a proposal notice, the TMO which served the notice may request the authority for such support as is specified in the request, being support that is reasonably required for the purposes of pursuing the proposal notice.
