2008 No. 948

COMPANIES

The Companies Act 2006 (Consequential Amendments etc) Order 2008

Made - - - - 1st April 2008

Coming into force in accordance with article 2

The Secretary of State makes the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 1292, 1294 and 1296 of the Companies Act 2006(1).

In accordance with sections 1290 and 1294(6) of that Act, a draft of this instrument was laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

Citation

1. This Order may be cited as the Companies Act 2006 (Consequential Amendments etc) Order 2008.

Coming into force

2.—(1) The provisions of this Order come into force as follows.

(2) Articles 1 to 3 and 5 to 12 and Schedules 1 and 2 come into force on 6th April 2008.

(3) Article 4 and Schedules 3 and 4 come into force on 1st October 2008.

Consequential amendments, repeals and revocations: 6th April 2008

3.—(1) Schedule 1 to this Order contains amendments coming into force on 6th April 2008—

(a) Part 1 contains amendments about eligibility for appointment as auditor and related matters;

(b) Part 2 contains other amendments.

(2) Schedule 2 to this Order contains repeals and revocations coming into force on that date.

Consequential amendments, repeals and revocations: 1st October 2008

4.—(1) Schedule 3 to this Order contains amendments coming into force on 1st October 2008.

(2) Schedule 4 to this Order contains repeals and revocations coming into force on that date.

Eligibility for appointment as statutory auditor: effect of appointing partnership

5.—(1) Section 1216 of the Companies Act 2006 (effect of appointing partnership) applies in relation to any statutory appointment where eligibility for the appointment depends on eligibility for appointment as a statutory auditor under Part 42 of that Act.

(2) In subsection (6)(b) of that section as it applies by virtue of this article, the reference to being prohibited by virtue of section 1214(1) of that Act from acting as statutory auditor shall be read as including a reference to being prohibited or disqualified from acting, or ineligible or disqualified for appointment, on the ground of lack of independence (of any description) by virtue of any other enactment applying in relation to the appointment.

(3) For the purposes of this article a “statutory appointment” means an appointment in pursuance of an enactment authorising or requiring the making of the appointment.

(4) This article applies only where that enactment was passed or made before 6th April 2008.

Provisions referred to in amendments

6.—(1) The following provisions have effect in relation to any amendment made by this Order.

(2) Any reference to the Companies Act 2006, the provisions of that Act or any particular provision of that Act includes any provision made under that Act or, as the case may be, the provision referred to.

(3) Any provision of the Companies Act 2006 referred to in the amendment has effect for the purposes of the amendment although not yet brought into force generally.

(4) Where by virtue of any transitional provision a provision of the Companies Act 2006 has effect only—

(a) on or after a specified date, or

(b) in relation to matters occurring or arising on or after a specified date, any amendment substituting or inserting a reference to that provision has effect correspondingly.

(5) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (4), the provisions of paragraph 35 of Schedule 4 to the Companies Act 2006 (Commencement No. 5, Transitional Provisions and Savings) Order 2007(2) apply in any case where the effect of an amendment made by this Order is that the lawfulness of a distribution depends on Part 23 of the Companies Act 2006, or any provision of that Part, applying in relation to accounts for financial years beginning before 6th April 2008.

Savings for provisions relating to execution of documents

7.—(1) The repeal of provisions of section 36A of the Companies Act 1985(3) (execution of documents) does not affect the operation of that section as applied by the Foreign Companies (Execution of Documents) Regulations 1994(4).

(2) That section as so applied does not apply to companies registered in Northern Ireland to which section 44 of the Companies Act 2006 applies.

8.—(1) The repeal of provisions of Article 46A of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986(5) (execution of documents) does not affect the operation of that Article—

(2) S.I. 2007/3495 (C. 150).

(3) 1985 c.6; section 36A was inserted by the Companies Act 1989 (c.40), section 130(2) and has been amended by the Regulatory Reform (Execution of Deeds and Documents) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/1906), articles 5, 7(2) and 10 and Schedule 1, paragraphs 9 to 11 and Schedule 2.

(4) S.I. 1994/950; the regulations have been amended and revoked in part by the Foreign Companies (Execution of Documents) (Amendment) Regulations 1995 (S.I. 1995/1729), regulations 2 to 5.

(5) S.I.1986/1032 (N.I. 6); Article 46A was inserted by the Companies (No. 2) (Northern Ireland) Order (S.I. 1990/1504 (N.I. 10)), Article 65(2).

- (a) in relation to a liquidator of a company(6), or
- (b) as applied by the Foreign Companies (Execution of Documents) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2003(7).

(2) That Article as so applied does not apply to companies registered in Great Britain to which section 44 of the Companies Act 2006 applies.

Saving for accounting definitions

9.—(1) The repeal of paragraphs 88 and 89 of Schedule 4 to the Companies Act 1985 (accounting definitions) does not affect the operation of those provisions for the purposes of section 152(2) or 172(2)(b)(i) of that Act.

(2) The repeal of paragraphs 87 and 88 of Schedule 4 to the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (accounting definitions) does not affect the operation of those provisions for the purposes of Article 162(2) or 182(2)(b)(i) of that Order.

Saving for earlier consequential amendments

10. The repeal of section 50 of the Companies Act 1989(8) or Article 52 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1990(9) (appointment etc of auditors: power to make consequential amendments) does not affect any amendments made by regulations under that section(10) or Article(11) that are in force immediately before 6th April 2008.

Saving for limited liability partnerships

11. Nothing in this Order affects any provision of the Companies Act 1985 or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 as applied by the Limited Liability Partnerships Regulations 2001(12) or the Limited Liability Partnerships Regulations (Northern Ireland) 2004(13) to limited liability partnerships.

General saving

12. The amendments, revocations and repeals made by this Order do not affect the operation of section 1297 of the Companies Act 2006 (continuity of the law).

(6) Article 46A has been amended so as to apply to a company liquidator by the Law Reform (Miscellaneous Provisions) (Northern Ireland) Order 2005 (S.I. 2005/1452 (N.I. 7)), Article 4(2).

(7) S.R. (NI) 2003 No 5.

(8) 1989 c.40.

(9) S.I. 1990/593 (N.I. 5).

(10) The regulations in force under the 1989 Act are the Companies Act 1989 (Eligibility for Appointment as Company Auditor) (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1991 (S.I. 1991/1997), as amended by the Companies Act 1989 Part II (Consequential Amendments) Regulations 1995 (S.I. 1995/1163) and the Companies Act 1989 Part II (Consequential Amendment) (No. 2) Regulations 1995 (S.I. 1995/2723).

(11) The regulations in force under the 1990 Order are the Companies (1990 Order) (Eligibility for Appointment as Company Auditor) (Consequential Amendments) Regulations (Northern Ireland) 1993 (S.R. (NI) 1993 No 67).

(12) S.I. 2001/1090.

“PART 17A

SUPPLEMENTARY PROVISIONS

Introductory

434A. The provisions of this Part have effect for the purposes of—

- (a) the First Group of Parts, and
- (b) sections 411, 413, 414, 416 and 417 in Part 15.

Representation of corporations at meetings

434B.—(1) If a corporation is a creditor or debenture-holder, it may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise a person or persons to act as its representative or representatives—

- (a) at any meeting of the creditors of a company held in pursuance of this Act or of rules made under it, or
- (b) at any meeting of a company held in pursuance of the provisions contained in a debenture or trust deed.

(2) Where the corporation authorises only one person, that person is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual creditor or debenture-holder.

(133) S.I. 2003/2093 (C. 85).

(134) Section 176A was inserted by the Enterprise Act 2002 (c.40), section 252.

(3) Where the corporation authorises more than one person, any one of them is entitled to exercise the same powers on behalf of the corporation as the corporation could exercise if it were an individual creditor or debenture-holder.

(4) Where the corporation authorises more than one person and more than one of them purport to exercise a power under subsection (3)—

- (a) if they purport to exercise the power in the same way, the power is treated as exercised in that way;
- (b) if they do not purport to exercise the power in the same way, the power is treated as not exercised.

Legal professional privilege

434C. In proceedings against a person for an offence under this Act nothing in this Act is to be taken to require any person to disclose any information that he is entitled to refuse to disclose on grounds of legal professional privilege (in Scotland, confidentiality of communications).”.

(143) The definition of “associated undertaking” was substituted by the Building Societies Act 1997 (c.32), Schedule 7, paragraph 53(1)(b).

(144) The definition of “subsidiary undertaking” was inserted by S.I. 1991/1729, article 5.

(4) At the appropriate place insert—

““undertaking” and “subsidiary undertaking” have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see sections 1161(1) and 1162 of, and Schedule 7 to, the Companies Act 2006);”.

109. After that section insert—

“Meaning of “associated undertaking”

119A.—(1) In this Act “associated undertaking”, in relation to a building society, means an undertaking (other than a subsidiary undertaking of the society)—

- (a) in which the society (or the group of which the society is a member) holds a participating interest, and
- (b) over whose operating and financial policy the society (or group) exercises a significant influence.

(2) A “participating interest” means an interest in the shares of the undertaking held on a long term basis for the purpose of securing a contribution to the activities of the society (or group) by the exercise of control or influence arising from or related to that interest.

(3) For this purpose—

- (a) a holding of 20% or more of the shares of an undertaking is presumed to be a participating interest unless the contrary is shown;
- (b) an “interest in shares” includes—
 - (i) an interest that is convertible into an interest in shares, and
 - (ii) an option to acquire shares or any such interest, and an interest or option falls within sub-paragraph (i) or (ii) notwithstanding that the shares to which it relates are, until the conversion or the exercise of the option, unissued;
- (c) an interest held on behalf of an undertaking is treated as held by it.

(4) A holding of 20% or more of the voting rights in an undertaking is presumed to result in the exercise of such influence as is mentioned in subsection (1)(b), unless the contrary is shown.

(5) For this purpose—

- (a) the voting rights in an undertaking means the rights conferred on shareholders in respect of their shares or, in the case of an undertaking not having a share capital, on members, to vote on all, or substantially all, matters affecting the undertaking; and
- (b) the provisions of paragraphs 5 to 11 of Schedule 7 to the Companies Act 2006 (rights to be taken into account and attribution of rights) apply in determining whether the society (or the group) holds 20% or more of the voting rights in an undertaking.

(6) References in this section to the group of which the society is a member at any time are to the undertakings that would fall to be included in the consolidation if consolidated group accounts were to be drawn up by the society at that time.

(7) An undertaking is not an “associated undertaking” of a building society for the purposes of this Act if, in such accounts, it would fall to be dealt with as a joint venture (that is, an undertaking managed jointly with one or more undertakings not included in the consolidation).”.

110. In Schedule 10A to the Building Societies Act 1986(145) (emoluments of and dealings with directors and other officers), in paragraph 1(2), in the definition of “shares”, for “section 188(1) of the Companies Act 1985” substitute “section 779(1) of the Companies Act 2006”.

111.—(1) Schedule 10B to the Building Societies Act 1986(146) (disclosures about related undertakings) is amended as follows.

(2) In paragraphs 3(2)(a), 7(3)(a), 11(2)(a), 15(2)(a) and 18(2)(a), in each place where it occurs, for “the Companies Act 1985 or the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986” substitute “the Companies Act 2006”.

(3) In paragraph 9(5) and (6)(b), for “section 258 of the Companies Act 1985” substitute “section 1162 of the Companies Act 2006”.

(3) For paragraph 16A(194) (companies exempt from audit: accountant’s report) substitute—

“16A.—(1) This paragraph applies to a registered social landlord that—

- (a) is a company,
- (b) is exempt from the audit requirements of the Companies Act 2006 by virtue of section 477 of that Act (small companies’ exemption), and
- (c) is not a charity.

(2) The directors of the company must cause a report to be prepared in accordance with paragraph 16B and made to the company’s members in respect of the company’s individual accounts for any year in which the company takes advantage of its exemption from audit.

(3) The Relevant Authority may, in respect of any such financial year, give a direction to the company requiring it—

- (a) to appoint a qualified auditor to audit its accounts and balance sheet for that year, and
- (b) to furnish to the Relevant Authority a copy of the auditor’s report by such date as is specified in the direction.

(4) A direction under sub-paragraph (3) may not be given until after the end of the financial year to which it relates.

16B.—(1) The report required for the purposes of paragraph 16A(2) must be prepared by a person (“the reporting accountant”) who is eligible under paragraph 16C.

(2) The report must state whether in the opinion of the reporting accountant making it—

- (a) the accounts of the company for the financial year in question are in agreement with the accounting records kept by the company under section 386 of the Companies Act 2006, and
- (b) having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in those accounting records, those accounts have been drawn up in a manner consistent with the provisions of Part 15 of that Act, so far as applicable to the company.

(3) The report must also state that in the opinion of the reporting accountant, having regard only to, and on the basis of, the information contained in the accounting records kept by the company under section 386 of the Companies Act 2006, the company is entitled to exemption from audit under section 477 of that Act (small companies’ exemption) for the financial year in question.

(4) The report must state the name of the reporting accountant and be signed and dated.

(5) The report must be signed—

- (a) where the reporting accountant is an individual, by that individual;

(194) Section 16A was inserted by the Housing Act 2004 (c.34), Schedule 11, paragraph 18.

- (b) where the reporting accountant is a firm, for and on behalf of the firm by an individual authorised to do so.

16C.—(1) The reporting accountant must be either—

- (a) a member of a body listed in sub-paragraph (4) who, under the rules of the body—
- (i) is entitled to engage in public practice, and
 - (ii) is not ineligible for appointment as a reporting accountant, or
- (b) any person (whether or not a member of any such body) who—
- (i) is subject to the rules of any such body in seeking appointment or acting as a statutory auditor under Part 42 of the Companies Act 2006, and
 - (ii) under those rules, is eligible for such appointment.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1), references to the rules of a body listed in sub-paragraph (4) are to the rules (whether or not laid down by the body itself) which the body has power to enforce and which are relevant for the purposes of Part 42 of the Companies Act 2006 (statutory auditors) or this paragraph.

This includes rules relating to the admission and expulsion of members of the body, so far as relevant for the purposes of that Part or this paragraph.

(3) An individual or a firm may be appointed as a reporting accountant, and section 1216 of the Companies Act 2006 (effect of appointment of partnership) applies to the appointment as reporting accountant of a partnership constituted under the law of England and Wales or Northern Ireland, or under the law of any other country or territory in which a partnership is not a legal person.

(4) The bodies referred to in sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) are—

- (a) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales,
- (b) the Institute of Chartered Accountants of Scotland,
- (c) the Institute of Chartered Accountants in Ireland,
- (d) the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants,

- (f) the Association of Accounting Technicians,
- (g) the Association of International Accountants,
- (h) the Chartered Institute of Management Accountants, and
- (i) the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators.

(5) The Secretary of State may by order amend sub-paragraph (4) by adding or removing a body to or from the list in that sub-paragraph or by varying any entry for the time being included in that list.

(6) An order under sub-paragraph (5) shall be made by statutory instrument which shall be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.

(7) A person may not be appointed by a company as reporting accountant if he would be prohibited from acting as auditor of that company by virtue of section 1214 of the Companies Act 2006 (independence requirement).

16D.—(1) The provisions of the Companies Act 2006 listed in sub-paragraph (2) apply to the reporting accountant and a reporting accountant's report as they apply to an auditor of the company and an auditor's report on the company's accounts, subject to any necessary modifications.

- (2) The provisions are—
- (a) sections 423 to 425 (duty to circulate copies of annual accounts);
 - (b) sections 431 and 432 (right of member or debenture holder to demand copies of accounts);
 - (c) sections 434 to 436 (requirements in connection with publication of accounts);
 - (d) sections 437 and 438 (public companies: laying of accounts before general meeting);
 - (e) sections 441 to 444 (duty to file accounts with registrar of companies);
 - (f) section 454(4)(b) and regulations made under that provision (functions of auditor in relation to revised accounts);
 - (g) sections 499 to 501 (auditor’s right to information);
 - (h) sections 505 and 506 (name of auditor to be stated in published copies of report).

(3) In sections 505 and 506 as they apply by virtue of this paragraph in a case where the reporting accountant is a firm, any reference to the senior statutory auditor shall be read as a reference to the person who signed the report on behalf of the firm.

16E. In paragraphs 16A to 16D—

“company” means a company registered under the Companies Act 1985;

“financial year” has the meaning given by section 390 of the Companies Act 2006;

- 15.—(1) The provisions of sections 15A to 15E have effect in relation to bodies appointed under section 14 (supervision of accounts and reports of issuers of transferable securities).
- (2) In those sections—
- (a) “prescribed body” means a body appointed under that section; and
- (b) references to the functions of a prescribed body are to its functions under that section.

Disclosure of information by tax authorities

15A.—(1) The Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs may disclose information to a prescribed body for the purposes of its functions.

(2) This section applies despite any statutory or other restriction on the disclosure of information.

Provided that, in the case of personal data within the meaning of the Data Protection Act 1998, information is not to be disclosed in contravention of that Act.

- (3) Information disclosed to a prescribed body under this section—
- (a) may only be used for the purposes of its functions, and
- (b) must not be further disclosed except to the person to whom the information relates.
- (4) A person who contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence unless—
- (a) the person did not know, and had no reason to suspect, that the information had been disclosed under this section, or
- (b) the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.

(198) Subsection (12) has been amended by regulation 2(3) of, and paragraph 5 of Schedule 3 to, S.I. 2005/1433, and by section 1272 of, and paragraphs 13 and 14(1) and (5) in Part 2 of Schedule 15 to, the Companies Act 2006.

(199) Section 15 has been amended by article 15 of S.I. 2005/1967 \(N.I. 17\) and by section 1272 of, and paragraphs 13 and 15 in Part 2 of Schedule 15 to, the Companies Act 2006.

- (5) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (4) is liable—
- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
 - (b) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales or Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (ii) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months, or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both).

(6) In subsection (5)(b)(i) as it applies in relation to England and Wales in the case of an offence committed before section 154(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, for “twelve months” substitute “six months”.

(7) Sections 400, 401 and 403 of the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (supplementary provisions relating to offences) apply in relation to an offence under this section.

Power of prescribed body to require documents, information and explanations

15B.—(1) This section applies where it appears to a prescribed body that there is, or may be, a question whether the periodic accounts and reports produced by an issuer of transferable securities comply with any accounting requirements imposed by Part 6 rules.

(2) The prescribed body may require any of the persons mentioned in subsection (3) to produce any document, or to provide any information or explanations, that the body may reasonably require for the purpose of its functions.

- (3) Those persons are—
- (a) the issuer;
 - (b) any officer, employee, or auditor of the issuer;
 - (c) any persons who fell within paragraph (b) at a time to which the document or information required by the prescribed body relates.

(4) If a person fails to comply with such a requirement, the prescribed body may apply to the court.

(5) If it appears to the court that the person has failed to comply with a requirement under subsection (2), it may order the person to take such steps as it directs for securing that the documents are produced or the information or explanations are provided.

(6) A statement made by a person in response to a requirement under subsection (2) or an order under subsection (5) may not be used in evidence against him in any criminal proceedings.

(7) Nothing in this section compels any person to disclose documents or information in respect of which a claim to legal professional privilege (in Scotland, to confidentiality of communications) could be maintained in legal proceedings.

- (8) In this section—
- “the court” means the High Court or the Court of Session; and
 - “document” includes information recorded in any form.

Restrictions on disclosure of information obtained under compulsory powers

15C.—(1) This section applies to information (in whatever form) obtained in pursuance of a requirement or order under section 15B (power of prescribed body to require documents etc) that relates to the private affairs of an individual or to any particular business.

(2) No such information may, during the lifetime of that individual or so long as that business continues to be carried on, be disclosed without the consent of that individual or the person for the time being carrying on that business.

(3) This does not apply—

- (a) to disclosure permitted by section 15D (permitted disclosure of information obtained under compulsory powers), or
- (b) to the disclosure of information that is or has been available to the public from another source.

(4) A person who discloses information in contravention of this section commits an offence, unless—

- (a) the person did not know, and had no reason to suspect, that the information had been disclosed under section 15B, or
- (b) the person took all reasonable steps and exercised all due diligence to avoid the commission of the offence.

(5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable—

- (a) on conviction on indictment, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or a fine (or both);
- (b) on summary conviction—
 - (i) in England and Wales or Scotland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both);
 - (ii) in Northern Ireland, to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or to a fine not exceeding the statutory maximum (or both).

(6) In subsection (5)(b)(i) as it applies in relation to England and Wales in the case of an offence committed before section 154(1) of the Criminal Justice Act 2003 comes into force, for “twelve months” substitute “six months”.

Permitted disclosure of information obtained under compulsory powers

15D.—(1) The prohibition in section 15C of the disclosure of information obtained in pursuance of a requirement or order under section 15B (power of prescribed body to require documents etc) that relates to the private affairs of an individual or to any particular business has effect subject to the following exceptions.

(2) It does not apply to the disclosure of information for the purpose of facilitating the carrying out by the prescribed body of its functions.

(3) It does not apply to disclosure to—

- (a) the Secretary of State,
- (b) the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment for Northern Ireland,
- (c) the Treasury,
- (d) the Bank of England,
- (e) the Financial Services Authority, or
- (f) the Commissioners for Her Majesty’s Revenue and Customs.

- (4) It does not apply to disclosure—
- (a) for the purpose of assisting a body designated by an order under section 1252 of the Companies Act 2006 (delegation of functions of the Secretary of State) to exercise its functions under Part 42 of that Act (statutory auditors);
 - (b) with a view to the institution of, or otherwise for the purposes of, disciplinary proceedings relating to the performance by an accountant or auditor of his professional duties;
 - (c) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Secretary of State or the Treasury to exercise any of their functions under any of the following—
 - (i) the Companies Acts (as defined in section 2 of the Companies Act 2006),
 - (ii) Part 5 of the Criminal Justice Act 1993 (insider dealing),
 - (iii) the Insolvency Act 1986 or the Insolvency (Northern Ireland) Order 1989,
 - (iv) the Company Directors Disqualification Act 1986 or the Company Directors Disqualification (Northern Ireland) Order 2002,
 - (v) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000;
 - (d) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment for Northern Ireland to exercise any powers conferred on it by the enactments relating to companies, directors' disqualification or insolvency;
 - (e) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Bank of England to exercise its functions;
 - (f) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Commissioners for Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs to exercise their functions;
 - (g) for the purpose of enabling or assisting the Financial Services Authority to exercise its functions under any of the following—
 - (i) the legislation relating to friendly societies or to industrial and provident societies,
 - (ii) the Building Societies Act 1986,
 - (iii) Part 7 of the Companies Act 1989,
 - (iv) the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000; or
 - (h) in pursuance of any Community obligation.
- (5) It does not apply to disclosure to a body exercising functions of a public nature under legislation in any country or territory outside the United Kingdom that appear to the prescribed body to be similar to its functions for the purpose of enabling or assisting that body to exercise those functions.
- (6) In determining whether to disclose information to a body in accordance with subsection (5), the prescribed body must have regard to the following considerations—
- (a) whether the use which the other body is likely to make of the information is sufficiently important to justify making the disclosure;
 - (b) whether the other body has adequate arrangements to prevent the information from being used or further disclosed other than—
 - (i) for the purposes of carrying out the functions mentioned in that subsection, or
 - (ii) for other purposes substantially similar to those for which information disclosed to the prescribed body could be used or further disclosed.
- (7) Nothing in this section authorises the making of a disclosure in contravention of the Data Protection Act 1998.

Power to amend categories of permitted disclosure

15E.—(1) The Secretary of State may by order amend section 15D(3), (4) and (5).

(2) An order under this section must not—

- (a) amend subsection (3) of that section (UK public authorities) by specifying a person unless the person exercises functions of a public nature (whether or not he exercises any other function);

3. In Article 182 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (availability of profits for private company to redeem or purchase shares out of capital), in paragraph (5)(a), omit “or 165”.

4. In Article 654 of the Companies (Northern Ireland) Order 1986 (companies’ registered numbers), in paragraph (4), for “the requirement of Article 359(1)(a)” substitute “any requirement imposed by regulations made under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006”.

Charities (Northern Ireland) Order 1987 (S.I. 1987/2048 (N.I. 19))

5. For Article 9B of the Charities (Northern Ireland) Order 1987(208) (status to appear on correspondence etc) substitute—

“Requirement to disclose charitable status

9B.—(1) Where a company is a charity and its name does not include the word “charity” or “charitable”, the fact that the company is a charity must be stated (in English) in legible characters—

- (a) in every location, and in every description of document or communication, in which it is required by regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006 to state its registered name; and
- (b) in all conveyances purporting to be executed by the company.

(2) In paragraph (1)(b) “conveyance” means any instrument creating, transferring, varying or extinguishing an interest in land.

Civil consequences of failure to make required disclosure

9BA.—(1) This Article applies to any legal proceedings brought by a company to which Article 9B applies to enforce a right arising out of a contract or conveyance in connection with which there was a failure to comply with that Article.

- (2) The proceedings shall be dismissed if the defendant to the proceedings shows—
 - (a) that he has a claim against the claimant arising out of the contract or conveyance that he has been unable to pursue by reason of the latter’s failure to comply with Article 9B, or
 - (b) that he has suffered some financial loss in connection with the contract or conveyance by reason of the claimant’s failure to comply with that Article,

unless the court before which the proceedings are brought is satisfied that it is just and equitable to permit the proceedings to continue.

(3) This Article does not affect the right of any person to enforce such rights as he may have against another person in any proceedings brought by that person.

Criminal consequences of failure to make required disclosure

9BB.—(1) Where a company fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with Article 9B, an offence is committed by—

- (a) the company, and
- (b) every officer of the company who is in default.

(208) Article 9B was inserted by the Companies (No. 2) (Northern Ireland) Order 1990 (S.I. 1990/1504 (N.I. 10)), Article 47.

(2) For this purpose a shadow director of the company is treated as an officer of the company if the failure is to comply with Article 9B(1)(a) and that person would be treated as an officer of the company for the purposes of the corresponding requirement of regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006.

(3) A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

(4) Expressions used in this Article have the same meaning as in section 84 of the Companies Act 2006 (criminal consequences of failure to disclose company's registered name).".

Companies Act 1989 (c.40)

6. In section 112 of the Companies Act 1989 (charitable companies: Scotland), for subsection (8) substitute—

“(8) If a company fails to comply with subsection (6) it commits an offence.

(9) An officer of a company, or a person acting on its behalf, who—

(a) issues or authorises the issue of any business letter of the company, or any notice or other official publication of the company, in which the statement required by subsection (6) does not appear, or

(b) issues or authorises the issue of any bill, invoice, receipt or letter of credit in which the statement required by subsection (6) does not appear, commits an offence.

(10) An officer of a company, or a person acting on its behalf, who signs or authorises to be signed on behalf of the company any bill of exchange, promissory note, endorsement, cheque or order for money or goods in which the statement required by subsection (6) does not appear—

(a) commits an offence, and

(b) is personally liable to the holder of the bill of exchange, promissory note, endorsement, cheque or order for money or goods for the amount of it (unless it is duly paid by the company).

(11) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (8), (9) or (10) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.”.

Charities Act 1993 (c.10)

7. For section 68 of the Charities Act 1993(209) (status to appear on correspondence etc) substitute—

“Requirement to disclose charitable status

68.—(1) Where a company is a charity and its name does not include the word “charity” or “charitable”, the fact that the company is a charity must be stated in legible characters—

(a) in every location, and in every description of document or communication, in which it is required by regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006 to state its registered name, and

(b) in all conveyances purporting to be executed by the company.

(209) Section 68 has been amended by the Welsh Language Act 1993 (c.38), section 33 and Schedule 2.

(2) Where a company's name includes the word "elusen" or "elusennol" (the Welsh equivalents of "charity" and "charitable"), subsection (1) does not apply in relation to any document that is wholly in Welsh.

(3) The statement required by subsection (1) must be in English, except that, in the case of a document that is otherwise wholly in Welsh, the statement may be in Welsh if it consists of or includes the word "elusen" or "elusennol".

(4) In subsection (1)(b) "conveyance" means any instrument creating, transferring, varying or extinguishing an interest in land.

Civil consequences of failure to make required disclosure

68ZA.—(1) This section applies to any legal proceedings brought by a company to which section 68 applies to enforce a right arising out of a contract or conveyance in connection with which there was a failure to comply with that section.

(2) The proceedings shall be dismissed if the defendant to the proceedings shows—

(a) that he has a claim against the claimant arising out of the contract or conveyance that he has been unable to pursue by reason of the latter's failure to comply with section 68, or

(b) that he has suffered some financial loss in connection with the contract or conveyance by reason of the claimant's failure to comply with that section,

unless the court before which the proceedings are brought is satisfied that it is just and equitable to permit the proceedings to continue.

(3) This section does not affect the right of any person to enforce such rights as he may have against another person in any proceedings brought by that person.

Criminal consequences of failure to make required disclosure

68ZB.—(1) Where a company fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 68, an offence is committed by—

(a) the company, and

(b) every officer of the company who is in default.

(2) For this purpose a shadow director of the company is treated as an officer of the company if the failure is to comply with section 68(1)(a) and that person would be treated as an officer of the company for the purposes of the corresponding requirement of regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006.

(3) A person guilty of such an offence is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

(4) Expressions used in this section have the same meaning as in section 84 of the Companies Act 2006 (criminal consequences of failure to disclose company's registered name)."

8.—(1) Section 69C of the Charities Act 1993(210) (CIOs: disclosure of name and status) is amended as follows.

(2) For subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) The name of a CIO must appear in legible characters—

(210) Section 69C was inserted by the Charities Act 2006 (c.50), Schedule 7, paragraph 1.

- (a) in every location, and in every description of document or communication, in which a charitable company would be required by regulations under section 82 of the Companies Act 2006 to state its registered name; and
 - (b) in all conveyances purporting to be executed by the CIO.”.
- (3) In subsection (2) for “subsection (1)(d)” substitute “subsection (1)(b)”.
- (4) In subsection (5) for “documents” substitute “locations, documents, communications and conveyances”.

9. After that section insert—

“Civil consequences of failure to disclose name and status

69CA.—(1) This section applies to any legal proceedings brought by a CIO to enforce a right arising out of a contract or conveyance in connection with which there was a failure to comply with section 69C.

(2) The proceedings shall be dismissed if the defendant to the proceedings shows—

- (a) that he has a claim against the claimant arising out of the contract or conveyance that he has been unable to pursue by reason of the failure to comply with section 69C, or
- (b) that he has suffered some financial loss in connection with the contract or conveyance by reason of the failure to comply with that section,

unless the court before which the proceedings are brought is satisfied that it is just and equitable to permit the proceedings to continue.

(3) This section does not affect the right of any person to enforce such rights as he may have against another person in any proceedings brought by that person.”.

10.—(1) Section 69D of the Charities Act 1993(211) (CIOs: offences connected with name and status) is amended as follows.

(2) For subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) In the case of failure, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 69C an offence is committed by—

- (a) every charity trustee of the CIO who is in default, and
- (b) any other person who on the CIO’s behalf—
 - (i) signs or authorises the signing of the offending document, communication or conveyance, or
 - (ii) otherwise commits or authorises the offending act or omission.

(1A) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (1) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale and, for continued contravention, a daily default fine not exceeding one-tenth of level 3 on the standard scale.

(1B) The reference in subsection (1) to a charity trustee being “in default”, and the reference in subsection (2) to a daily default fine, have the same meaning as in the Companies Acts (see sections 1121 to 1123 and 1125 of the Companies Act 2006).”.

(3) Omit subsection (2).

11. In section 73D of the Charities Act 1993(212) (power to relieve trustees, auditors etc from liability for breaches of trust or duty), in subsection (6)—

(211) Section 69D was inserted by the Charities Act 2006 (c.50), Schedule 7, paragraph 1.

(212) Section 73D was inserted by the Charities Act 2006 (c.50), section 38.

- (a) in paragraph (b), for “section 727 of the Companies Act 1985” substitute “section 1157 of the Companies Act 2006”;
