CRIMINAL LAW, ENGLAND AND WALES

The Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (Drinking Banning Orders) (Approved Courses) Regulations 2009

Made	- - - -	8th July 2009
Laid before Parliament		13th July 2009
Coming into force	- -	31st August 2009

The Secretary of State makes the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 12(5), 13(2) and (8) and 14(5) of the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006⁽¹⁾.

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006 (Drinking Banning Orders) (Approved Courses) Regulations 2009.

(2) These Regulations shall come into force on 31st August 2009.

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“2006 Act” means the Violent Crime Reduction Act 2006;

“course” means a course for the purposes of section 2 of the 2006 Act;

“course provider” means a person who provides a course for the purposes of section 2 of the 2006 Act.

Applications for approval

3. An application for the approval of a course may only be made in response to an invitation to tender issued for that purpose by the Secretary of State and must be received by the Secretary of State before the end of 28 days beginning with the first day after the issuing of the invitation to tender.

(1) 2006 c. 38.

Course fees

4. A course provider may not require a person to pay more than £250 or less than £120 for a course.

Monitoring of courses

5. A course provider shall permit the Secretary of State or any other person authorised by the Secretary of State to visit any premises which are used by a course provider in connection with the provision of a course at any reasonable time.

6. A course provider shall comply with any reasonable request by the Secretary of State to submit information within a reasonable period to the Secretary of State in connection with the course provided by that course provider.

7.—(1) A course provider shall record the information specified in paragraph (6).

(2) A course provider shall submit to the Secretary of State, in respect of each 12 month period, the information specified in paragraph (6)(b) to (n) that is recorded during that 12 month period.

(3) Subject to paragraph (7), a course provider shall submit to the Secretary of State, in respect of each 3 month period, the information specified in paragraph (6)(b) to (n) that is recorded during that 3 month period.

(4) The first 3 month period and the first 12 month period shall begin on the day that the Secretary of State grants an approval in respect of the course provided by the course provider.

(5) The information referred to in paragraphs (2) and (3) shall be submitted no later than the end of 28 days beginning on the first day after the end of each 3 month period or each 12 month period as the case may be.

(6) The course provider shall record the following information in relation to every subject of a drinking banning order in which the course provider's course is specified, to the extent the information is applicable to that subject—

- (a) name;
- (b) date of birth;
- (c) identification number assigned by the course provider to the subject of the drinking banning order;
- (d) gender;
- (e) the date on which the drinking banning order was made;
- (f) the date on which the course provider first contacted the subject of the drinking banning order;
- (g) the reason for refusing to attend a course;
- (h) the date the notice of non-completion was sent to applicant;
- (i) the date on which the course began;
- (j) the number of hours of the course that involved individual sessions;
- (k) the number of hours of the course that involved group sessions;
- (l) the date the course was completed;
- (m) the date the certificate of completion was sent to the proper officer of the court that made the order;
- (n) the date the certificate of completion was sent to the subject of the drinking banning order.

(7) Where the Secretary of State requests on reasonable notice that certain categories of information specified in paragraph (6)(b) to (n) are provided instead of all the information required by paragraph (3), the course provider shall provide those categories of information instead of all such information.

(8) The information referred to in paragraph (2) shall be accompanied by a report prepared by the course provider in which the course is evaluated.

Withdrawal of approvals

8.—(1) An approval of a course may be withdrawn by the Secretary of State by giving notice in writing to the course provider and such withdrawal shall have effect in accordance with the notice.

(2) The Secretary of State may withdraw an approval of a course with immediate effect or at different times for different purposes.

(3) The Secretary of State may suspend an approval before taking the decision whether or not to withdraw it; and any such suspension—

- (a) shall be made by giving notice in writing to the course provider; and
- (b) shall have effect in accordance with the notice.

Information on courses and course providers

9. The Secretary of State may publish and make available on request information regarding courses and course providers.

Certificates of completion

10. A certificate of completion issued by a course provider under section 13 of the 2006 Act must be in the form specified in Schedule 1.

Notice of non completion

11.—(1) A notice of a decision under section 13(4) of the 2006 Act must be in the form specified in Schedule 2.

(2) Such a notice must—

- (a) be given to the subject of the drinking banning order in person; or
- (b) be sent by post to the last known address of that person, in which case it shall be deemed to have been given to that person on the second working day after the date on which it is sent.
