2009 No. 2100

The Court Martial and Service Civilian Court (Youth Justice and Criminal Evidence Act 1999) Rules 2009

PART 4

Restrictions on reporting

Variation or revocation of a reporting or excepting direction

- 13.—(1) An application to—
- (a) revoke a reporting direction, or
 - (b) vary or revoke an excepting direction,

may be made at any time after the commencement of the proceedings in the court.

(2) An application under paragraph (1) may be made by a party to the proceedings in which the direction was issued, or by a person who, although not a party to those proceedings, is in the opinion of the judge advocate directly affected by the direction.

(3) An application under paragraph (1) must be made in writing and the applicant must send that application to the court administration officer, and at the same time copies of the application shall be sent to every party or, as the case may be, every other party to the proceedings.

(4) The applicant must set out in his application the reasons why he seeks to have the direction varied or, as the case may be, revoked.

(5) Any person served with a copy of an application who wishes to oppose it, must notify the applicant and the court administration officer in writing of his opposition and give reasons for it.

(6) Any notification under paragraph (5) must be given within 5 working days of the date the application was served on him unless an extension of time is granted under rule 14.
