STAMP DUTY
STAMP DUTY RESERVE TAX

The Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations (No.12) 2009

Made	- - - -	5th November 2009
Laid before the House of Commons	- - - -	6th November 2009
Coming into force	- -	29th November 2009

The Treasury make the following Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred on them by sections 116 and 117 of the Finance Act 1991⁽¹⁾.

Citation and commencement

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Stamp Duty and Stamp Duty Reserve Tax (Investment Exchanges and Clearing Houses) Regulations (No.12) 2009 and shall come into force on 29th November 2009.

(2) These Regulations shall have effect—

- (a) for the purposes of the charge to stamp duty, in relation to instruments executed on or after 29th November 2009;
- (b) for the purposes of the charge to stamp duty reserve tax—
 - (i) in the case of agreements to transfer traded securities which are not conditional, in relation to agreements made on or after 29th November 2009;
 - (ii) in the case of agreements to transfer traded securities which are conditional, in relation to agreements where the condition is satisfied on or after that date.

Interpretation

2.—(1) In these Regulations—

(1) 1991 c. 31. Section 116(4) was amended by paragraph 5 of Schedule 20 to the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 (c. 8) and by paragraph 7 of Schedule 21 to the Finance Act 2007 (c. 11).

“clearing participant” means a member of Eurex Clearing AG who as such is permitted by the Rules of Eurex Clearing AG to clear transactions made on the Exchange for a traded security and who may or may not also be a participant in the Exchange;

“client” means a person who gives instructions to a non-clearing firm for traded securities to be sold on the Exchange;

“Eurex Clearing AG” is a company registered in Germany which is a recognised clearing house under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000(2);

“the Exchange” means the Irish Stock Exchange, which is permitted to operate as a recognised investment exchange under Article 36 of the Directive(3);

“nominee” means a person whose business is or includes holding trading securities as a nominee for Eurex Clearing AG acting in its capacity as a person providing clearing services in connection with a transaction made on the Exchange, or as a nominee for a clearing participant (as the case may be);

“non-clearing firm” means a participant in the Exchange other than a clearing participant;

“traded securities” means stocks and shares which are issued or raised by a company but does not include stocks and shares issued by a company not incorporated in the United Kingdom unless—

- (a) the stocks and shares are registered in a register kept in the United Kingdom by or on behalf of the company; or
- (b) in the case of shares, they are paired, within the meaning of section 99(6A) of the Finance Act 1986(4), with shares issued by a company incorporated in the United Kingdom.

Prescription of recognised investment exchanges and recognised clearing houses

3. For the purpose of sections 116 and 117 of the Finance Act 1991—

- (a) The Irish Stock Exchange is prescribed as a recognised investment exchange; and
- (b) Eurex Clearing AG is prescribed as a recognised clearing house.

Prescribed circumstances for the purposes of sections 116 and 117

4.—(1) In the circumstances prescribed in this regulation, a charge to stamp duty or stamp duty reserve tax shall be treated as not arising.

(2) The circumstances prescribed are where, in connection with a transaction made on the Exchange, conditions A and B are met.

(3) Condition A is that traded securities of a particular kind are transferred, or agreed to be transferred, from—

- (a) a clearing participant or a nominee of a clearing participant to another clearing participant or nominee,
- (b) a non-clearing firm or its client to a clearing participant or a nominee of a clearing participant,
- (c) a clearing participant or a nominee of a clearing participant to Eurex Clearing AG or to a nominee of that clearing house,

(2) 2000 c. 8.

(3) The definition of “the Directive” was inserted by the Finance Act 2007, Schedule 21, paragraph 7(1) and (2) and the expression means Directive 2004/39/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 21 April 2004 on markets in financial instruments, as amended from time to time (OJ L 145, 30.4.2004).

(4) 1986 c. 41. Subsection (6A) was inserted by section 144 of the Finance Act 1988 (c.39) and was amended by section 113(2) of the Finance Act 1990 (c.29). The whole of Part 4 of the 1986 Act is to be repealed from a date to be appointed (see sections 110 and 111(1) of the 1990 Act).

- (d) a person other than a clearing participant to Eurex Clearing AG or to a nominee of that clearing house, as a result of a failure by a clearing participant to fulfil his obligations in respect of the transaction concerned to transfer traded securities to Eurex Clearing AG or to a nominee of that clearing house, or
- (e) Eurex Clearing AG or a nominee of that clearing house to a clearing participant or a nominee of a clearing participant.

(4) Condition B is that the person to whom those securities are agreed to be transferred under any of the agreements specified in paragraph (3) (“the relevant agreement”) is required on receipt of those securities to transfer traded securities under a matching agreement to another person or, in the case of an agreement falling within paragraph (3)(d), would have been so required if the failure referred to in that paragraph had not occurred.

(5) In this regulation—

- (a) a “matching agreement” means an agreement under which—
 - (i) the traded securities agreed to be transferred are of the same kind as the traded securities agreed to be transferred under the relevant agreement, and
 - (ii) the number and transfer price of the traded securities agreed to be transferred are identical to the number and transfer price of the traded securities agreed to be transferred under the relevant agreement;
- (b) references to Eurex Clearing AG are references to that clearing house in its capacity as a person providing clearing services in connection with a transaction made on the Exchange;
- (c) references to a clearing participant are references to a clearing participant in his capacity as such.

Consequential provision

5.—(1) Traded securities which are the subject of an agreement specified in regulation 4(3) shall be dealt with by a clearing participant who is party to the agreement in a separate designated account, and not otherwise.

(2) In paragraph (1) “designated account” means an account designated by Eurex Clearing AG for a clearing participant in connection with the traded securities concerned.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations exempt from stamp duty and stamp duty reserve tax (“SDRT”) certain transfers of, or agreements to transfer traded securities made in the course of trading in those securities on the Irish Stock Exchange (“the Exchange”). The transfers and agreements exempted are those involving Eurex Clearing AG (and nominees of that clearing house), through whom transactions on the Exchange are cleared, or clearing participants in Eurex Clearing AG (and their nominees).

Regulation 1 provides for citation, commencement and effect and regulation 2 contains definitions.

Regulation 3 prescribes the Exchange as a recognised investment exchange and Eurex Clearing AG as a recognised clearing house for the purpose of the exemption.

Regulation 4 prescribes the circumstances in which stamp duty and SDRT will not be charged.

Regulation 5 makes consequential provisions requiring traded securities which are agreed to be transferred in the prescribed circumstances to be dealt with in a separate designated account.

A full and final Impact Assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no impact on the private or voluntary sectors is foreseen.
