PART 2

Restrictions on partial property transfers

Set-off and netting

3.—(1) A partial property transfer to which this Order applies may not provide for the transfer of some, but not all, of the protected rights and liabilities between a particular person (“P”) and a banking institution under a particular set-off arrangement^{M12}, netting arrangement^{M13} or title transfer financial collateral arrangement.

(2) A partial property transfer to which this Order applies may not include provision under the continuity powers which terminates or modifies the protected rights or liabilities between P and a banking institution.

(3) For the purposes of paragraphs (1) and (2), rights and liabilities between P and a banking institution are protected if they are rights and liabilities which either P or the banking institution is entitled to set-off or net under a set-off arrangement, netting arrangement or title transfer financial collateral arrangement which P has entered into with the banking institution so long as they are not excluded rights or excluded liabilities.

(4) For the purposes of paragraph (1), a property transfer instrument or order which purports to transfer all of the protected rights and liabilities between P and a banking institution under a particular set-off arrangement, netting arrangement or title transfer financial collateral arrangement shall be treated as having done so effectively (and so not give rise to a contravention of paragraph (1)), notwithstanding the possibility that any of the protected rights or liabilities are foreign property and may not have been effectively transferred by the property transfer instrument or order or by virtue of steps taken under section 39 of the Act.

- (5) For the purposes of paragraph (3), it is immaterial whether—
 - (a) the arrangement which permits P or the banking institution to set-off or net rights and liabilities also permits P or the banking institution to set-off or net rights and liabilities with another person; or
 - (b) the right of P or the banking institution to set-off or net is exercisable only on the occurrence of a particular event.

(6) In this article, “excluded rights” and “excluded liabilities” have the meanings given in article 1 except that the reference to subordinated debt [F42 and the references to transferable securities in paragraph (f) of the definition of “excluded rights” shall be treated as if they were respectively a reference to subordinated debt or transferable securities] issued by P or by the banking institution.

(3) A partial property transfer to which this Order applies may not transfer the liability unless the benefit of the security is also transferred.

(4) A partial property transfer to which this Order applies may not include provision under the continuity powers which terminates or modifies the arrangement if the effect of that provision is to provide that the liability is no longer secured against the property or right.

(5) Paragraphs (2), [F46(2A),] (3) and (4) do not apply if the arrangement has been entered into by a banking institution in contravention of a rule prohibiting such arrangements made by [F47]the Financial Conduct Authority or the Prudential Regulation Authority] under the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000 or otherwise than in accordance the Part 4 permission (within the meaning of that Act) of the banking institution.

PART 3

Remedies

Financial markets, termination rights and continuity power

10.—(1) This article applies where a partial property transfer has been made in contravention of article 7^{F63}...or any other provision of this Order which relates to the exercise of the continuity powers.

(2) The partial property transfer is void in so far as it is made in contravention of those provisions of the Order.

F63 Word in art. 10(1) omitted (1.1.2015) by virtue of The Bank Recovery and Resolution Order 2014 \(S.I. 2014/3329\), arts. 1(2), 125(6)

Set-off and netting

11.—(1) This article applies where a partial property transfer has been made in contravention of—

- (a) article 3; or
- (b) article 4, to the extent that the contravention relates to set-off arrangements, netting arrangements or title transfer financial collateral arrangements, unless the contravention relates to the exercise of the continuity powers (in which case article 10 applies).

(2) The partial property transfer does not affect the exercise of the right to set-off or net.

Contravention of other provisions of the Order

12.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), this article applies where any person (“P”) considers that a partial property transfer has been made in contravention of any provision of this Order and that as a result the property, rights or liabilities of P have been affected.

(2) This article does not apply to the extent that article 10 or 11 applies.

(3) P may give notice to the relevant authority of the alleged contravention of this Order.

(4) The notice under paragraph (3) must—

- (a) be given within 60 days of the day on which the partial property transfer took effect;
- (b) be in writing;
- (c) specify the provision of this Order which is alleged to have been contravened and the manner in which that contravention has occurred;
- (d) identify the property, rights or liabilities to which the alleged contravention relates; and
- (e) contain or be accompanied by such information as the relevant authority may reasonably require.

(5) Subject to paragraph (8), within 60 days of receipt of a notice under paragraph (3), the relevant authority must—

- (a) if it agrees that a provision of this Order has been contravened in the manner specified in the notice given under paragraph (3), take the steps specified in paragraph (6);
- (b) if it does not agree that a provision of this Order has been contravened in the manner specified in the notice given under paragraph (3), take the steps specified in paragraph (7).

(6) The steps are to remedy the contravention by transferring property, rights or liabilities to the transferee or the transferor under the partial property transfer (whether by means of an onward property transfer instrument under section 43 of the Act, a reverse property transfer under section 44 [F64, 44A or 44E], a property transfer order under section 45, a reverse property transfer under section 46 or by other means).

(7) The steps are to give reasons to P as to why it considers that no provision of this Order has been contravened in the manner specified in the notice under paragraph (3).

(8) If the relevant authority considers that the matters raised in the notice under paragraph (3) are of such complexity that it is impracticable to take a decision under paragraph (5) within 60 days of receipt of the notice, the relevant authority may extend the period of 60 days by no more than 60 days; in such cases it must, within 60 days of receipt of the notice under paragraph (3), inform P of the extension and the duration of the extension.

(9) The property, rights or liabilities which are transferred under paragraph (6) may be the same property, rights or liabilities which were, in contravention of this Order, transferred or not transferred (as the case may be) or, if the transfer of such property, rights or liabilities is not practicable, property, rights or liabilities which, in the opinion of the relevant authority, are equivalent to those property, rights or liabilities.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order restricts the making of partial property transfer instruments and orders (“partial property transfers”) under the Banking Act 2009 (c.1) (“the Act”). The Order also makes provision to protect certain interests including security interests, set-off arrangements and netting arrangements.

Article 2 sets out the cases in which the Order applies.

Article 3 provides protection for rights and liabilities under a particular set-off arrangement, netting arrangement or title transfer financial collateral arrangement. Certain rights and liabilities are excluded from these protections including rights and liabilities which relate to a retail deposit or retail liability (as defined in article 1). These protections limit what property may be (or may not be) transferred under a partial property transfer and what provision may be made under the powers conferred by sections 64 to 67 of the Act (“the continuity powers”).

Article 4 provides that a property, rights or liabilities may not be transferred and provision may not be included under the continuity powers, to the extent that to do so would contravene Community law.

Article 5 provides for protections for secured liabilities. These protections limit what property may be (or may not be) transferred under a partial property transfer and what provision may be made under the continuity powers. In particular, article 5 provides that liabilities (whether owed by or to the banking institution) and the benefit of security relating to those liabilities may not be separated by any transfer of the banking institution's property, rights and liabilities.

Article 6 provides for protections for capital market arrangements (within the meaning given by paragraph 1 of Schedule 2A to the Insolvency Act 1986 (c.45)). These protections limit what property may be (or may not be) transferred under a partial property transfer and what provision may be made under the continuity powers.

Article 7 provides for protections for financial markets including the default rules of recognised investment exchanges and recognised clearing houses and market contracts. These protections limit what property may be (or may not be) transferred under a partial property transfer and what provision may be made under the continuity powers.

Article 8 provides for additional limits to apply to reverse property transfers under sections 44 and 46 of the Act. These protections limit what property may be (or may not be) transferred under a reverse transfer.

Article 9 provides that provision may not be made in a partial property transfer for section 38(6) or (7) of the Act (termination rights etc) to apply to certain instruments and arrangements.

Articles 10 to 12 provide for remedies for contraventions of the provisions of the Order.

A full Impact Assessment of the effect that this instrument will have on the costs of business and the voluntary sector has been prepared. It may be obtained from the Banking Reform Team, HM Treasury, 1 Horse Guards Road, London, SW1A 2HQ. It is also available on HM Treasury's website (www.hm-treasury.gov.uk) and is annexed to the Explanatory Memorandum published alongside this instrument on the OPSI website (www.opsi.gov.uk).
