(5) Where two or more persons are acting as the bank liquidator jointly, any one of them may resign (without prejudice to the continuation in office of the other or others) on the ground that, in his opinion and that of the other or others, it is no longer expedient that there should continue to be the present number of joint bank liquidators.

42.—(1) This rule applies where a meeting is summoned to notify the creditors of the bank liquidator's resignation.

(2) The meeting will resolve whether to give the bank liquidator his release.

(5) The bank liquidator's resignation is effective as from the date on which the court receives notice of his resignation, and the court shall endorse that date on the notice.

(6) Where the creditors have resolved to appoint a new bank liquidator in place of the one who has resigned, rules 4.19 to 4.21(24) of the 1986 Rules shall apply to the appointment of the new bank liquidator, except that the notice to be given by the new bank liquidator under rules 4.19(4) of the 1986 Rules shall also state that his predecessor as bank liquidator has resigned and whether he has been released.

(7) If there is no quorum present at the meeting summoned to notify the creditors of the bank liquidator's resignation, the meeting is deemed to have been held, a resolution is deemed to have been passed that the bank liquidator's resignation be accepted, and the creditors are deemed not to have resolved against the bank liquidator having his release.

Release of resigning or removed bank liquidator

43.—(1) Where the liquidator's resignation is notified to a meeting of creditors which has not resolved against his release, he has his release from when his resignation is effective under rule 42.

- (e) the meeting of the liquidation committee held under rule 44 resolves against the bank liquidator being released, he must apply to the Accountant of Court for his release.

(3) Where the Accountant of Court gives release under this rule, he shall certify it accordingly, and send the certificate to the Accountant in Bankruptcy, registrar of companies and the Bank of England.

(7) Where the liquidation committee does not resolve against the bank liquidator's release, the bank liquidator vacates office and has his release when the notice in paragraph (6) is lodged in court.

(8) If there is no quorum present at the final meeting, the bank liquidator shall report to the court that a final meeting was summoned in accordance with section 115 of the 2009 Act, but there was no quorum present; and the final meeting is then deemed to have been held, and the liquidation committee not to have resolved against the bank liquidator being released.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Rules)

These Rules set out the procedure for the bank insolvency process under Part 2 of the Banking Act 2009.

The main features of bank insolvency are as follows. In the event of a deposit-taking bank becoming insolvent, it enables those depositors who are eligible for compensation under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (“the FSCS”) to either–

- (a) receive compensation for their lost deposits as soon as possible after the bank goes into bank insolvency; or
- (b) have their account transferred to a different bank.

This is the first objective of the bank insolvency process.

The procedure can only be initiated by the Bank of England, the Financial Services Authority (“the FSA”) or the Secretary of State by application to the court. The court then makes a bank insolvency order, appointing a bank liquidator. In the initial stages, the bank liquidator is accountable to a liquidation committee formed of the FSA, the Bank of England and the FSCS.

Once the bank liquidator considers that the first objective is achieved, the liquidation committee will pass a resolution to that effect and the bank insolvency will move to the second objective which is to wind up the affairs of the bank so as to achieve the best results for the creditors as a whole.

The Rules are based on the Insolvency (Scotland) Rules 1986 and certain provisions of the 1986 Rules are applied to these Rules, subject to a number of general and specific modifications.

Part 2 of these Rules sets out the application process for a bank insolvency order.

Part 3 sets out the procedure for appointing a provisional bank liquidator.

Part 4 sets out provisions relating to the statement of affairs.

Part 5 makes provision in relation to creditors and contributories.

Part 6 sets out the procedure concerning meetings of contributories.

Part 7 sets out procedure concerning claims.

Part 8 sets out provisions relating to the liquidator.

Part 9 sets out provisions concerning the liquidation committee.

Part 10 set out provisions relating to the distribution of bank assets.

Parts 11 to 13 set out miscellaneous procedures.

Part 14 sets out provisions relating to meetings.

Part 15 contains general provisions.
