CONVERSION DECISIONS

The notice commencing the conversion phase

4.—(1) Subject to paragraph (5), the Secretary of State may at any time issue a notice to any person who is entitled to an existing award.

(2) Any person to whom such a notice is issued is referred to in these Regulations as a notified person.

(3) The notice must inform the notified person—

- (a) that an existing award is to be converted into an award of an employment and support allowance if certain conditions are satisfied;
- (b) that, if those conditions are not satisfied, the existing award will not be converted and will terminate by virtue of these Regulations;
- (c) of the requirements that must be met in order to satisfy those conditions; and
- (d) of such other matters as the Secretary of State considers appropriate.

(4) The issue of the notice to a notified person begins the conversion phase in relation to that person, with effect from the date of issue.

(5) No notice may be issued to any person—

- (a) who reaches pensionable age at any time before 6th April 2014; or
- (b) at any time when payment of the existing award to the person is subject to adjustment under regulation 4 of the Social Security (Transitional Payments) Regulations 2009^(a) (adjustment of subsequent payments following an adjusting payment of benefit).

(6) Where a person is entitled to—

- (a) an existing award of incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance; and
- (b) an existing award of income support, the notice issued to the person under this regulation shall have effect in relation to both such awards.

Deciding whether an existing award qualifies for conversion

5.—(1) In relation to the existing award or awards to which a notified person (“P”) is entitled, the Secretary of State must, except where paragraph (8)(a) applies, make a conversion decision in accordance with these Regulations.

(2) A conversion decision is—

- (a) a decision that P’s existing award or awards qualify for conversion into an award of an employment and support allowance in accordance with regulation 7 (qualifying for conversion); or
- (b) a decision that P’s existing award or awards do not qualify for conversion into an award of an employment and support allowance.

(3) A notice of a conversion decision under paragraph (2)(a) must specify the amount of an employment and support allowance to which P is entitled on the effective date (subject to any relevant deductions).

(4) The amount referred to in paragraph (3) is to be determined in accordance with regulation 8 (amount of an employment and support allowance on conversion).

(5) The Secretary of State must notify P of the Secretary of State’s conversion decision.

(a) S.I. 2009/609.

- (6) The conversion phase ends in relation to P—
- (a) immediately before the effective date of the conversion decision notified to P; or
 - (b) if earlier, when P’s entitlement to the award or awards to which the notice under regulation 4 (notice commencing the conversion phase) relates otherwise ceases to be subject to conversion (because entitlement to the award has terminated or for some other reason).

(7) The effective date of any conversion decision is to be determined in accordance with regulation 13 (effective date of a conversion decision).

(8) In the event that P’s entitlement to an existing award ceases to be subject to conversion (for example, because P’s entitlement to an award of income support has ceased to fall within paragraph (c) of the definition of “existing award” in paragraph 11 of Schedule 4 to the 2007 Act)—

- (a) before a conversion decision is made, the Secretary of State must notify P that the conversion phase has ended without a conversion decision being made; or
- (b) after the making of a conversion decision but before its effective date, the Secretary of State must notify P that the conversion decision shall not come into effect.

(9) On the giving of a notice under paragraph (8)(b), the conversion decision to which it relates shall lapse with immediate effect.

- (e) the Social Security and Child Support (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations 1999^(c).

(3) In the application of the enactments listed in paragraph (2)(d) and (e), the conversion decision is to be treated as if it were a decision as to a person’s entitlement to an employment and support allowance which had been made on a claim.

Qualifying for conversion

7. For the purposes of regulation 5(2)(a) (deciding whether an existing award qualifies for conversion), an existing award or awards to which a notified person is entitled qualify for conversion into an award of an employment and support allowance only if the person satisfies the basic conditions set out in section 1(3)(a) to (d) and (f) of the 2007 Act.

Step 1

Determine in accordance with Part 1 of the 2007 Act and the 2008 Regulations the amount (if any) of an employment and support allowance to which the notified person would be entitled if, on a claim made by that person—

- (a) it had been determined that the person was entitled to an award of an employment and support allowance; and
- (b) the assessment phase had ended.

Step 2

Determine in accordance with regulations 9 to 12—

- (c) whether the notified person is entitled to a transitional addition; and
- (d) if so, the amount of the transitional addition.

Step 3

Aggregate the amounts (if any) which result from Steps 1 and 2.

(3) The entitlement of a notified person to any transitional addition terminates in accordance with regulation 21 (termination of transitional addition).

Transitional addition: incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance

10.—(1) This regulation applies to any notified person who is entitled to an existing award of incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance (and for these purposes it is irrelevant whether the person is also entitled to any existing award of income support).

(2) In any case falling within paragraph (1)—

- (a) the notified person shall be entitled to a transitional addition if Amount A exceeds Amount B; and
- (b) the amount of transitional addition to which the notified person is entitled under this paragraph shall be equal to the amount of any such excess.

(3) Amount A is the amount of the weekly rate of the existing award applicable to the notified person.

(4) To calculate Amount B—

- (a) take the amount prescribed under paragraph (2) of regulation 67 of the 2008 Regulations (prescribed amounts for purpose of calculating a contributory allowance) which is applicable to the notified person; and
- (b) add the amount of the applicable component determined in accordance with regulation 12(5).

(5) In paragraph (3), the reference to the weekly rate of an existing award applicable to the notified person is to—

 - (iv) by virtue of regulation 17(1) of those Regulations (former invalidity benefit); or
- (b) in the case of severe disablement allowance, the weekly rate payable under sections 68(7) and 69(1) of the Contributions and Benefits Act (as they have effect by virtue of article 4 of the Welfare Reform and Pensions Act 1999 (Commencement No.9 and Transitional and Savings Provisions) Order 2000^(d)).

Transitional addition: income support

11.—(1) This regulation applies to any notified person who is entitled to an existing award of income support (and for these purposes it is irrelevant whether the person is also entitled to any existing award of incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance).

- (2) In any case falling within paragraph (1)—
 - (a) the notified person shall be entitled to a transitional addition if Amount C exceeds Amount D; and
 - (b) the amount of transitional addition to which the notified person is entitled under this paragraph shall be equal to the amount of any such excess.
- (3) To calculate Amount C—
 - (a) take the notified person’s weekly applicable amount under regulation 17 or 18 of, and Schedule 2 to, the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987^(e) (applicable amounts);
 - (b) disregard any amount determined in accordance with (as the case may be) regulation 17(1)(e) or 18(1)(f) of, and Schedule 3 to, those Regulations (housing costs); and
 - (c) disregard any amount included in the person’s applicable amount—
 - (i) under regulation 17(1)(b), (c) or (d) of those Regulations^(f) in respect of a child or young person who is a member of the notified person’s family, or
 - (ii) under regulation 18(1)(b), (c), (d) or (e) of those Regulations in respect of a child or young person who is a member of the same household as the notified person,

(b) Sections 40 and 41 were substituted by paragraphs 8 and 9 of Schedule 1 to the Social Security (Incapacity for Work) Act 1994. They are to be repealed by Schedule 8 to the Welfare Reform Act 2007.

(c) S.I. 1995/310.

(d) S.I. 2000/2958 (C. 89).

(e) S.I. 1987/1967. Regulation 17 was amended by S.I. 1988/910 and 1445, 1989/1678, 1991/387, 1992/3147, 1996/206, 2003/455 and 1121, 2005/2687 and 2006/588. Regulation 18 was amended by S.I. 1988/1228 and 1445, 1989/1034, 1992/3147, 1996/206, 2001/3767, 2003/455 and 1121 and 2006/588.

(f) Regulations 17(1)(b) and (c) and 18(1)(c) and (d) of, and paragraphs 2, 3 and 6(1)(c) of Schedule 2 to, the Income Support (General) Regulations 1987 (“the 1987 Regulations”) (amounts for child or young person, family premium and disabled child premium) were revoked by S.I. 2003/455. Paragraph 13A(b) and (2)(a) of the 1987 Regulations (which provide for enhanced disability premium) were also amended by S.I. 2003/455 so as to exclude children or young persons from the list of persons to whom such premiums may relate. The revocations and amendments are subject to savings in accordance with regulations 1 and 7 of S.I. 2003/455, as amended by regulation 2(2) of S.I. 2005/2294.

as those provisions have effect by virtue of regulations 1 and 7 of the Social Security (Working Tax Credit and Child Tax Credit) (Consequential Amendment) Regulations 2003(a).

(4) To calculate Amount D—

(2) Subject to paragraphs (3) and (4)—

- (a) Amounts A and C are to be calculated in respect of the benefit week which ends immediately before the effective date of the notified person's conversion decision; and
- (b) Amounts B and D are to be calculated in respect of the benefit week the first day of which is the effective date of the notified person's conversion decision.

(3) Where—

- (a) by virtue of an order made under section 150 of the Administration Act (annual up-rating of benefits), there is an increase in—
 - (i) the weekly rate which, in accordance with regulation 10(3) (transitional addition: incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance), is to be used to calculate Amount A, or
 - (ii) the applicable amount which, in accordance with regulation 11(3) (transitional addition: income support), is to be used to calculate Amount C; and
- (b) that increase takes effect from any day in the benefit week referred to in paragraph (2)(b), the calculation of Amount A or C is to be made using the increased weekly rate or applicable amount (as the case may be).

(4) Where—

- (a) there is a change of circumstances in relation to a notified person which, but for subparagraph (b), would have resulted in an increase or decrease of the weekly rate or applicable amount referred to in paragraph (3)(a)(i) or (ii); and
- (b) that increase or decrease would have taken effect from any day in the benefit week referred to in paragraph (2)(b), the calculation of Amount A or C is to be made using the weekly rate or applicable amount (as the case may be) which would have been payable in respect of the existing award if it had not been subject to conversion under these Regulations.

(5) The “applicable component”, in relation to the notified person, means—

- (a) the work-related activity component, if it has been determined in accordance with the enactments applied by regulation 6 (application of certain enactments for purpose of making conversion decisions) that the notified person does not have and is not to be treated as having limited capability for work-related activity; or 13.—(1) For the purposes of determining the date on which a conversion decision takes effect in relation to any notified person—

- (a) take the date on which the person is notified of the conversion decision; and
- (b) unless paragraph (2) applies, determine the first complete fortnightly period in respect of which the person’s existing benefit is payable after that date, and the effective date of the person’s conversion decision is the first day of the benefit week immediately following the end of the fortnightly period referred to in sub-paragraph (b).

(2) Where existing benefit is payable to the notified person in respect of a period other than a fortnight—

- (a) determine the second complete benefit week in respect of which the person’s existing benefit is payable after the date on which the person is notified of the conversion decision; and
- (b) the effective date of the person’s conversion decision is the first day of the benefit week immediately following the end of that second complete benefit week.

(3) “Existing benefit”, in relation to a notified person, means the benefit in respect of the person’s existing award or awards.

Conversion decision that existing award qualifies for conversion

14.—(1) Paragraphs (2) and (3) apply in any case where the conversion decision is a decision that a notified person’s (“P”) existing award or awards qualify for conversion into an employment and support allowance.

(2) On the effective date of the conversion decision—

- (a) P’s existing award; or
- (b) both of P’s existing awards (as the case may be),

are by virtue of this paragraph converted into, and shall have effect on and after that date as, a single award of an employment and support allowance of such amount as is specified in the conversion decision.

(3) Where immediately before the effective date of the conversion decision, any relevant deduction was made from the existing award or awards, an equivalent deduction shall be made from the employment and support allowance to which P is entitled by virtue of these Regulations.

(4) Paragraphs (2) and (3) are subject to regulation 17.

Conversion decision that existing award does not qualify for conversion

15.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4), paragraphs (2) and (3) apply in any case where the conversion decision is a decision that a notified person’s (“P”) existing award or awards do not qualify for conversion into an employment and support allowance.

(2) P’s entitlement to one or both of—

- (a) an existing award of incapacity benefit or severe disablement allowance; or
- (b) an existing award of income support (being an award made to a person incapable of work or disabled), shall terminate by virtue of this paragraph immediately before the effective date of P’s conversion decision.

(3) Where, immediately before that date, P is entitled to be credited with any earnings under regulation 8B(2)(a) of the Social Security (Credits) Regulations 1975(a) (credits for incapacity for work), P shall not be entitled to be so credited under that regulation on or after that date.

(4) Paragraph (5) applies where—

- (a) a conversion decision within the meaning of regulation 5(2)(b) (“the earlier conversion decision”) is made by virtue of either of the following provisions of the 2008 Regulations (as they apply by virtue of regulation 6)—
 - (i) regulation 22(1) (failure to provide information or evidence requested in relation to limited capability for work), or
 - (ii) regulation 23(2) (failure to attend for a medical examination to determine whether the claimant has limited capability for work); and
- (b) after P is notified of the earlier conversion decision, the Secretary of State is satisfied (or where the conversion decision is appealed to the First-tier Tribunal, that tribunal determines) that P had good cause for failing to—
 - (i) provide the information requested, or
 - (ii) attend for or submit to the medical examination for which P was called.

(5) Where this paragraph applies—

- (a) the earlier conversion decision is treated as never having been made;
- (b) any entitlement of P—
 - (i) to an existing award which was terminated by virtue of paragraph (2), or
 - (ii) to be credited with earnings which was terminated by virtue of paragraph (3), shall be reinstated with effect from the effective date of the earlier conversion decision;

- (b) T’s entitlement to an employment and support allowance which is referred to in paragraph (1)(b) (“T’s old entitlement”) was in respect of that earlier period.

(5) Case 2 is where—

- (a) T’s old entitlement was to an income-related allowance;
- (b) the reason for terminating that entitlement was that the condition set out in paragraph 6(1)(f) of Schedule 1 to the 2007 Act had ceased to be satisfied in T’s case (no entitlement to income-related allowance where other member of a couple engages in remunerative work); and
- (c) on a subsequent claim for an income-related allowance, T’s entitlement to such an allowance commences before the end of the 12 week period which begins with the date of termination of T’s old entitlement.

(6) In Cases 1 and 2, the amount of the transitional addition which becomes payable on commencement of T’s entitlement to an employment and support allowance is to be determined by reference to the amount of the transitional addition that was payable on the termination of T’s old entitlement, subject to any subsequent adjustment of that amount that would have been made under this Part.

- (a) is entitled to a converted employment and support allowance; or
 - (b) is appealing a conversion decision as described in regulation 5(2)(b) of the Employment and Support Allowance (Existing Awards) Regulations and—
 - (i) is treated as having limited capability for work by virtue of regulation 30 of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations as modified by the Employment and Support Allowance (Existing Awards) Regulations; and
 - (ii) is not in receipt of an income-related employment and support allowance, unless the amount of the transitional addition calculated in accordance with paragraph 30 would be nil.
- (2) The claimant’s entitlement to a transitional addition by virtue of this paragraph ends on any of the following—
- (a) the reduction of the transitional addition to nil in accordance with paragraph 31;
 - (b) the termination of the claimant’s award of council tax benefit;
 - (c) the relevant person ceasing to meet the requirements of sub-paragraph (1)(a) or (b), as the case may be;

- (d) the claimant or the claimant's partner becoming entitled to an income-related employment and support allowance, an income-based jobseeker's allowance or income support;
- (e) 5th April 2020.

28.—(1) This paragraph applies where—

- (a) the claimant's entitlement to a transitional addition, ends by virtue of the termination of the claimant's award of council tax benefit, under—
 - (i) paragraph 27(2)(b);
 - (ii) sub-paragraph (3)(b) of this paragraph; or
 - (iii) paragraph 29(3)(b);
- (b) within 104 weeks of that termination but before 5th April 2020 the claimant again becomes entitled to council tax benefit;
- (c) in the benefit week in which the claimant again becomes entitled to council tax benefit the relevant person is entitled to an employment and support allowance which is not income-related;
- (d) if the period between the events mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) is more than 12 weeks, the intervening period is one to which regulation 145(2) (linking period where claimant is a work or training beneficiary) of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations applies in respect of the relevant person; and
- (e) at the date on which the claimant again becomes entitled to council tax benefit, neither the claimant nor the claimant's partner is entitled to an income-related employment and support allowance, an income-based jobseeker's allowance or income support.

(2) Where this paragraph applies, the claimant is entitled, with effect from the day on which the claimant again becomes entitled to council tax benefit, to a transitional addition of the amount of the transitional addition that would have applied had the claimant's entitlement to a transitional addition not ended (but taking account of the effect which any intervening change of circumstances would have had by virtue of paragraph 31), unless the amount of the transitional addition would be nil.

(3) The claimant's entitlement to a transitional addition by virtue of this paragraph ends on any of the following—

- (a) the reduction of the transitional addition to nil in accordance with paragraph 31;

- (b) before 5th April 2020 the relevant person again becomes entitled to an employment and support allowance which is not income-related;
- (c) either—

- (i) at the date on which the relevant person again becomes entitled to an employment support allowance which is not income-related regulation 145(1) of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulation applies to the relevant person; or
- (ii) the period between the events mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) is one to which regulation 145(2) of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations applies in respect of the relevant person; and
- (d) at the date on which the relevant person again becomes entitled to an employment support allowance which is not income-related, neither the claimant nor the claimant's partner is entitled to an income-related employment and support allowance, an income-based jobseeker's allowance or income support.

(2) Where this paragraph applies, the claimant is entitled, with effect from the day that the relevant person's entitlement to employment and support allowance takes effect for council tax benefit purposes, to a transitional addition of the amount of the transitional addition that would have applied had the claimant's entitlement to a transitional addition not ended (but taking account of the effect which any intervening change of circumstances would have had by virtue of paragraph 31), unless the amount of the transitional addition would be nil.

(3) The claimant's entitlement to a transitional addition by virtue of this paragraph ends on any of the following—

PART 8

Amount of transitional addition

30.—(1) Subject to paragraph 31, the amount of the transitional addition is the amount by which Amount A exceeds Amount B.

(2) Where a conversion decision as described in regulation 5(2)(a) of the Employment and Support Allowance (Existing Awards) Regulations is made in respect of the relevant person—

- (a) Amount A is the basic amount that would have applied on the day that decision took effect had that decision not been made; and
- (b) Amount B is the basic amount that applied on that day as a result of that decision.

(3) Where the relevant person is appealing a conversion decision as described in regulation 5(2)(b) of the Employment and Support Allowance (Existing Awards) Regulations and is treated as having limited capability for work by virtue of regulation 30 of the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations as modified by the Employment and Support Allowance (Existing Awards) Regulations—

- (a) Amount A is the basic amount that would have applied on the day the relevant person was first treated as having limited capability for work if the relevant person had not been so treated; and
- (b) Amount B is the basic amount that applied on that day as a result of the relevant person being so treated.

(4) In this paragraph and paragraph 31, "basic amount" means the aggregate of such amounts as may apply in the claimant's case in accordance with regulation 12(a) to (e) or regulation 13(a) to (f).

31.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraph (2), where there is a change of circumstances which leads to an increase in the claimant’s basic amount, the transitional addition that applies immediately before the change of circumstances shall be reduced by the amount by which Amount C exceeds Amount D.

(2) If Amount C exceeds Amount D by more than the amount of the transitional addition that applies immediately before the change of circumstances, that transitional addition shall be reduced to nil.

(3) Amount C is the basic amount that applies as a result of the increase.

(4) Amount D is the basic amount that applied immediately before the increase.”.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations supersede the Employment and Support Allowance (Transitional Provisions, Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit) (Existing Awards) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/875) (“the original Regulations”), which were revoked by the Employment and Support Allowance (Transitional Provisions, Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit) (Existing Awards) (Revocation) Regulations 2010 (S.I. 2010/1906). These Regulations remake the original Regulations with no change of substance from the original Regulations.

These Regulations make transitional provision in relation to the introduction of employment and support allowance and apply to persons entitled to any existing award (which is defined in Schedule 4 to the Welfare Reform Act 2007 in terms of incapacity benefit, severe disablement allowance and income support on grounds of disability). The Regulations set out the process for determining whether existing awards are to be converted into awards of an employment and support allowance. An award may be converted only if certain conditions are satisfied in relation to the person entitled to the award.

The Regulations also make related amendments to the Housing Benefit Regulations 2006, Council Tax Benefit Regulations 2006 and the Housing Benefit and Council Tax Benefit (Decisions and Appeals) Regulations 2001 (“the Decisions and Appeals Regulations”).

Part 2 of, and Schedule 1 to, the Regulations set out the process for determining whether or not a person’s existing award is to be converted into an award of an employment and support allowance. The conversion process operates on an individual basis and, in each case, begins when the Secretary of State sends a notice under regulation 4 to a particular person. Where the person is entitled to more than one existing award the notice and conversion process apply to both awards. Regulation 5 requires the Secretary of State to determine whether or not the existing award (or awards) qualify for conversion and to notify the person accordingly. There is also provision for notification to be given in the event that an existing award ceases to be subject to conversion. Regulation 6 and Schedule 1 establish the statutory machinery to facilitate this determination, by cross-applying certain enactments that already have effect in relation to persons who make a claim for an employment and support allowance. Schedule 1 modifies these enactments to take account of the differences that arise because a person is already entitled to an existing award and is not required to make a claim. There is also provision to enable the Secretary of State to obtain information in order to make conversion decisions and to provide for conversion decisions to be revised before they come into effect.

Under regulation 7, a person's existing award (or awards) qualify for conversion if the person satisfies the basic conditions for entitlement to an employment and support allowance, except for the condition that they are not entitled to income support. One of these basic conditions is that the person has limited capability for work. This will be determined on an individual basis, in accordance with the arrangements for work capability assessments set out in the Employment and Support Allowance Regulations 2008 ("the 2008 Regulations") (as modified by Schedule 1 to these Regulations).

If an existing award (or awards) do qualify for conversion, the Secretary of State must determine in accordance with regulations 9 to 12 the amount to which the person is entitled. In broad terms, this is the aggregate of (a) the amount to which the person would have been entitled on a successful claim for an employment and support allowance, and (b) an additional amount, referred to in the Regulations as a "transitional addition". The transitional addition is based on the difference between specified elements of the person's existing award and specified elements of the employment and support allowance into which it is to be converted.

The date on which the Secretary of State's decision about conversion comes into effect is provided for in regulation 13, and regulations 14 and 15 set out the consequences that follow from the decision. Where the decision is that a person's award (or awards) do qualify for conversion, regulation 14 converts them into a single award of employment and support allowance. Where the decision is that a person's existing award (or awards) do not qualify, regulation 15 provides that the award (or awards) terminate immediately before the effective date of the conversion decision.

Part 3 of, and Schedules 2 and 3 to, the Regulations set out the framework which has effect in relation to any person with effect from the effective date of their conversion decision under Part 2 of the Regulations. In relation to any matter to be determined in connection with a person's entitlement to an employment and support allowance (including a decision not to convert an award), regulation 16 and Schedules 2 and 3 cross-apply the enactments that already have effect in relation to an employment and support allowance made on a claim. This includes provision for revision, supersession and appeals in connection with conversion decisions which have come into effect. There are modifications of these enactments in Schedule 2. Regulation 17 makes provision about where the Secretary of State is notified of any change of circumstances occurring before the effective date of a conversion decision. Regulations 18 to 20 set out the circumstances in which the amount is to be reduced. Regulation 21 provides for termination when the amount is reduced to nil, when the person ceases to be entitled to an employment and support allowance or 5th April 2020 (whichever occurs first).

Part 4 of the Regulations contains miscellaneous provisions, including provision in regulation 24 which revokes the saving in regulation 2(2)(a), (b) and (c) of the Employment and Support Allowance (Transitional Provisions) Regulations 2008. This saving enables a person previously entitled to incapacity benefit, severe disablement allowance or income support on grounds of disability to make a repeat (linked) claim for that benefit in certain circumstances, rather than having to make a new claim for employment and support allowance. The revocation of this saving comes into force on 31st January 2011.

Regulation 25 revokes regulation 31 of the 2008 Regulations which provides that a claimant who claims a jobseeker's allowance and is able to show a reasonable prospect of obtaining employment is throughout that claim to be treated as not having limited capability to work. Regulation 25 also amends regulation 144 of the 2008 Regulations so that a person does not have to serve a period of waiting days in relation to a new claim for employment and support allowance if that person would have benefited from the saving revoked by regulation 24 if they had made a claim before 31st January 2011.

Schedule 4 provides for consequential amendments to two pieces of secondary legislation.

Schedule 5 provides for amendments to legislation relating to housing benefit and council tax benefit which complement the conversion process. Parts 1 and 2 make amendments to the Housing Benefit Regulations 2006 and the Council Tax Benefit Regulations 2006 respectively, providing for a transitional addition to a claimant's applicable amount where the claimant or the claimant's partner has had an award of benefit converted to an employment and support allowance in accordance with these Regulations or is appealing a decision not to convert an award to an employment and support allowance. Part 3 of Schedule 5 amends the Decisions and Appeals Regulations to make provision for the supersession of awards of housing benefit or council tax benefit to take account of conversion decisions.

These Regulations have no impact on the private or voluntary sectors. An assessment of the impact the original Regulations would have had on the public sector was made. As there has been no change of substance between these Regulations and the original Regulations, the assessment made for the original Regulations applies equally to these Regulations.

Copies of this impact assessment are available in the libraries of both Houses of Parliament, and may also be obtained from the Better Regulation Unit of the Department for Work and Pensions, 6B Caxton House, Tothill Street, London SW1H 9NA, or from the DWP website: <http://www.dwp.gov.uk/resourcecentre/ria.asp>.
