Regulation 2(1), (2) and (3) prescribes the fee where such a licence or registration is issued for the first time. Regulation 2(4), (5) and (6) prescribes the fee where such a licence is issued to a person, or registration is issued to an operator, either who held such a licence or registration on the date on which these Regulations come into force or who has on or since that date already been issued with such a licence or registration, and introduces two levels of fee: sub-paragraphs (a) of each of paragraphs (4), (5) and (6) of regulation 2 relate to a licence or registration issued where the Secretary of State determines that a compliance inspection is required before issuing such a licence or registration, and sub-paragraphs (b) of each of paragraphs (4), (5) and (6) of regulation 2 relate to such a licence or registration where no such compliance inspection is required.

Regulation 2(7) and (8) prescribes the fees where an export authorisation and import authorisation are issued. Regulation 2(9) prescribes the fee where a licence issued under regulation 2(1) or (4), or registration issued under regulation 2(2), (3), (5) or (6), has been lost by a person, or where that licence or registration has been defaced or damaged, and such licence or registration is re-issued to him.
