PART 3

Offences and penalties

Offence of obstruction

6. A person is guilty of an offence if that person, in relation to an authorised person acting under these Regulations—

- (a) intentionally obstructs an authorised person;
- (b) without reasonable cause, fails to give to an authorised person any information or assistance or to provide any facilities that such person may reasonably require;
- (c) knowingly or recklessly gives false or misleading information to an authorised person; or
- (d) fails to produce a record when required to do so by an authorised person.
